

Cimarron

COLFAX COUNTY, NEW MEXICO

Town Lots for Sale in

Beautiful Cimarron

Unequaled Climate Efficient School System
 Fuel in Abundance Purest Water
 Unlimited Natural Resources
 GENERAL REPAIR SHOPS OF TWO RAILROADS

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION APPLY TO

The CIMARRON TOWNSITE COMPANY

THE CITIZEN

Published Every Wednesday by
 GEO. E. REMLEY.

Local and Personal

Mr. Massay of Denver, Colorado, was in Cimarron for a day on business.

Mrs. Candido Barcala, who has been seriously ill, is now recovering nicely.

Mr. S. P. Officer has consented to take charge of the local editorial work of the Cimarron New and Press.

E. H. Fisher, the townsite engineer, spent two or three days at Raton and Trinidad on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Robert Sammons, of the Sweetwater, brought in a big consignment of lumber from his mills last Thursday.

Hunter & Neff, the new firm of painters, have taken the contract to paint the outside of G. E. Remley's house.

Last Thursday's wind played havoc with the lumber piles in the yards of the Continental Tie & Lumber Co.

J. O. Rogers, the manager of the Crocker Mercantile company, spent three or four days of last week at Raton on business.

Harry Rhodes has left for the Bartlett ranch on the Vermajo, where he will be engaged in building some houses on the ranch.

S. E. Pelphrey has returned to Cimarron after an absence of three or four days spent in transacting business at other points.

Mr. George Gillespie, one of the well known and oldest residents of the county, returned to Chico after a short visit in Cimarron.

Miss Tillie Paulson, who has been employed at the Swastika, left the hotel force, having made other arrangements for the future.

Mr. Arthur Hamilton returned from Wagon Mound to complete his affairs here preparatory to taking a position at the former place.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Shahan from over on the Vermajo, are rejoicing over the arrival of the stork, who presented the proud parents with a fine little son. Mrs. Shahan has been at Ute Park for some time, staying at the old Jackson ranch, her old home.

"Donny" Donovan, the star first baseman of last year's champion team, is again in Cimarron.

Miss Catherine Larkin and Miss Caroline Parker have accepted positions with the Swastika Hotel.

The Continental Tie & Lumber Co. has received all the machinery necessary for the big box factory, which they will operate in the near future.

E. H. Fisher and Kersy Coe left last Monday for the new town on Colfax, where they expected to spend a few days surveying.

Mr. Martin Bukovec spent the last of the week in Raton on business connected with his new hotel here in Cimarron called the "Grand."

E. L. Matthews, who has been in Cimarron for some time, will spend the next three or four months near Albuquerque, where he has obtained a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Foster of the Raton Range, were visitors in Cimarron last week on business connected with their paper called the Cimarron News and Press.

Mr. Colt, of the contracting firm of Colt & Windburn, which is building the big reservoir on the Rayado, was a business visitor in Cimarron last Thursday.

Jesse Lowman, a brother of Chas. Lowman of this city, made a short visit here last Sunday, returning to Springer, where he is in the employ of the French Land & Irrigation Co.

Mr. C. M. Fox, representing the Fox Cigar company of Raton, was in Cimarron on business during the week. Mr. Fox is very much pleased with Cimarron and the growth it is making.

Jack Diamond, the nifty little short stop and catcher of the Cimarron Swastikas of last year, is billed for a twenty round go with Ed. Winters, the brother of M. M. Winters of this place. The boxing match will take place at Raton in the near future.

Mr. Van Dusen of the Raton Electrical Supply Co., has completed the wiring of the residence of Geo. E. Remley, and has returned to Raton. Mr. Van Dusen states that he is very much pleased with Cimarron and is impressed at the growth that has taken place within the last year.

The following Cimarron people were in attendance at Springer on the irrigation meeting held there last Saturday: M. M. Chase, M. G. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brooks, G. H. Webster, Frederick Whitney, S. E. Pelphrey, Juan Charette, Henry Steen, D. B. Cole, E. H. Fisher and Geo. E. Remley.

Mr. Edward E. Wells of Denver, Colorado, the general state agent for the New York Board of Underwriters, was a business visitor in Cimarron last Friday. Mr. Wells conferred with Mr. Henry Steen, who has taken the agency for several of the best fire insurance companies, and will in the future make the Cimarron Townsite company's office the headquarters for his insurance business.

TAKES POSITION.

Mr. W. B. Williams of Louisiana, has taken a position with the Cimarron Lumber Co., and will make this city his home in the future. Mr. Williams is an expert in the lumber business and a member of the noted order of the "Hoo Hoo."

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the good people of Cimarron for the surprise given us on last Tuesday evening. We now wish all to unite with us in having a good year's work, and to help us in building all the branches of the work. We will do all we possibly can. Can we depend on you?
 Fraternally,
 PASTOR.

The regular Sunday services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday, the sermon of the morning being entitled, "Life with God," and that of the evening, "Vision of the Christ."

The new music books for the church orchestra have now arrived and the members of the organization are now busy learning some new music for the services which they intend giving every Sunday evening in the future. There will be choir practice and orchestra practice every Friday evening at 7:30.

LEAP YEAR DANCE.

Last Saturday evening the ladies of Cimarron gave a leap year dance to their friends, the event being held in the halls of the Star Lodge of the C. M. A. The ladies showed themselves to be very competent "hosts," and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN CAFE

SOUTH OF DEPOT

Board by Week or Month

Special Rates given Laboring Men

We Cater to Ladies and Gentlemen

ONLY CHASE & SANBORN'S FAMOUS COFFEE USED

HARVEY MYNATT

Painter and Paperhanger

Sign Painting a Specialty

Leave Orders at Pool Hall

GEO. E. REMLEY,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

CIMARRON, NEW MEXICO

When in Cimarron stop at the

SWASTIKA

THE BEST HOTEL ON THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN ROUTE

Rates $3.00 Per Day

MRS. D. M. SAVAGE, Manager

Try an Ad in the Citizen for Results