RALEIGH NOTES.

The News and Gossip In and Around the Capital.

Wake Forest vs. University to-morrow.

Our accommodating and faithful city collector, Mr. C. B. Root, is out again after a long spell of sickness.

The University Minstrel and Glee Club will come with the University Baseball Team and will give an entertainment Friday night in Metropolitan Hall.

Mr. E. W. Martin is Manager and W. M. Little is Musical Director of the University Minstrel and Glee Club that will appear here on next Friday night.

The popular clothiers, Messrs. Whiting Bros. always know how to fix up an attractive advertisement, and they know full well how to fix up a young man when he wants to go to see his best girl.

Master Donaldson Stronach, whose illness we noted some days ago, has been stricken down with paralysis and is in a very critical condition. We hope sincerely that he may yet be spared to his devoted parents.

Messrs. Woolcott & Son want to show to the ladies of Raleigh their new flowers, hats and ribbons, and they will show them with pleasure. The ladies of Raleigh and vicinity always know where they can be pleased.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Carter. As this is the anniversary meeting, reports of the work during the year will be given and all the members are earnestly requested to be present.

The remains of Mr. Silas Morris, who died in Goldsboro Tuesday afternoon, arrived on the 4:32 train from the east yesterday and were interred in the Old City Cemetery where the funeral took place. The remains were met at the depot by an escort of relatives and friends.

Every young lady in Raleigh should be out at Athletic Grounds on to-morrow afternoon with their white and orange colors ready to see a great game of baseball between the University and Wake Forest boys. The University team so far has the championship of the State and Wake Forest will dispute it with them to-morrow.

The CHRONICLE is glad to know that Raleigh talent is being patronized by Librarian Birdsong in the selection of artists to paint and crayon the portraits to be hung in the Library. The painting of Henry Lawson Wyatt, the first Confederate soldier killed in the war, which has been so highly spoken of, is from the brush of Miss Mollie Nixon, of this city.

COMING AND GOING.

Some of the Folks You Know and Their Doings.

F. E. Emery, of Weldon, is here.

Mr. Herbert E. Norris was here yesterday.

Hon. T. B. Womack, of Chatham, is in the city.

Mr. E. F. Reid, of Morganton, is here on business.

Mr. G. W. Davis, of Wake Forest, spent yesterday in Raleigh.

Mr. W. B. Dunn, of Wake Forest College, was in Raleigh yesterday.

M. H. Pinnix, Esq., of Lexington, is here to argue a case before the Supreme Court.

Maj. Wm. A. Guthrie and R. B. Boone, Esq., of Durham, were at the Yarbrough yesterday.

Ex-Senator Samuel J. Pemberton, of Albemarle, is in the city appearing before the Supreme Court.

Mr. A. H. Patterson, one of the foremost Y. M. C. A. promoters among the State University students, is in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bush, of Pittsboro, who are in Raleigh visiting their daughter who is attending school at St. Mary's.

Gov. Thos. M. Holt, we are saddened to learn, has been called to Graham by the painful intelligence that his mother is very sick.

Mr. Peyton Dunn, of Leadvale, Tennessee, arrived in Raleigh yesterday and has entered the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

We were glad to see Capt. R. B. Peebles, the able Representative of Northampton county in the last House, in Raleigh yesterday.

Mr. E. W. Bell, who with his family has been on a visit to his father in the city, returned to his home in Winston. His family will remain longer.

Mr. M. T. Leach returned from High Point where he went to attend the funeral of his sister Mrs. Nannie Cook, wife of Mr. R. G. Cook. The funeral was held from High Point Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. McCorkle officiating.

Johnston's Mills Burned.

Yesterday morning early, the lumber mills of Messrs. J. L. Johnston & Son, about thirteen miles south of this city, were destroyed by fire. There was fortunately little lumber in the mills at the time of the fire and the loss is great, though, we learn, almost covered by insurance.

Meeting of the Southern and State Dental Associations.

Arrangements have been perfected for entertaining the Southern Dental Association which meets at Morehead City August 1st. The State Dental Association will meet at the same time and place.

CHRIST CHURCH A BRILLIANT SCENE.

Several Hundred Joyous Young People See One of the Brightest and Happiest Events of the Season.

It was a scene of delight last evening when the long aisles of Christ Church became decorated by the faces of several hundred young people, and the flickering flames seemed filled with the inspiration usually attending a brilliant occasion of the nature of that which did take place at 9.30.

It was the marriage of Mr. Thos. Eberhardt to Miss Elizabeth Marshall, and was celebrated in that happy style customary among our young people. Mendelssohn's wedding march from the mellow tones of the large pipe organ was the signal for the entry, and the nuptial approach the altar as follows:

Messrs. Butt and Cecil Lee, Henry Litchford and Thos. R. Pescud, George Hardin and J. H. London.

These were followed by the bridesmaids, all attired in dresses of white mull and carrying bouquets of rare white flowers in their hands:

Misses Mildred Badger and Eliza Skinner, Mabel Hale and Bessie Tucker, Mary Snow, and Laura King of Warrenton; Annie Faison and Luder Tucker, Josephine Smith and Lallah Plummer, of Portsmouth; Emily Wigfield and Virginia Butt, of Portsmouth; Misses Salsie and Theodora Marshall, the bride's beautiful little sisters followed them.

Miss Maudie Marshall, the beautiful and popular sister of the bride, elegantly attired and bearing delicate flowers, came up the right as Maid of Honor. On the opposite side slowly stepped to the marriage altar Miss Elizabeth Marshall, the lovely and charming bride, dressed in white faille francaise demitrimmed with chiffon and other ornaments, wearing splendid diamonds, the gift of the groom. She carried nuptial buds and lilies of the valley.

Previously the groom, with his best man, Mr. R. B. Roney, had appeared at the altar from the vestry room and after his hand in escorting her to the altar, as the tones of the organ mellowed into soft and melodious lays of love. The ceremony was beautifully performed by Dr. M. M. Marshall, father of the bride, and the happy wedding party hurried off to the bride's home to enjoy an elegant reception.

Mr. Eberhardt enjoys the esteem and confidence of the people of Raleigh in a marked degree, and we state what we know when we say that he is deserving of this high esteem. He is not only a popular and affable gentleman, but also a successful and rising business man.

The bride is the second daughter of the esteemed Rector of Christ Church and possesses rare gifts of head and heart as well as beauty and grace. The happy couple left on the midnight train for the Northern cities.

The CHRONICLE's "rice" goes after them and may a long and happy married life be theirs.

BASEBALL TOMORROW.

The University and Wake Forest Teams to Battle for the State Championship.

A fine baseball game tomorrow.

Mr. Perrin Basbee, Captain of the State University Team, writes the CHRONICLE that the Wake Forest College baseballists will meet them in a match game of ball on to-morrow afternoon at the Athletic Park to dispute with them the championship of the State.

The University boys have just defeated Trinity at Winston by a score of 8 to 3 and now the tug-of-war comes between the two teams mentioned above.

The colors of the University are white and high blue, and the color of Wake Forest is orange. Let the Raleigh young ladies and young men go out in full force and give the victors a huzzah.

AN IMPROVEMENT.

A Vote of Thanks is Due to Maj. Winder.

Major J. C. Winder, always prompt in the extension of his courtesies and appreciation of the needs and conveniences of the public, and also generous in his purpose to co-operate in every possible way to make the Southern Inter-State Immigration Exposition a success, has signified his intention to erect over the track of the railroad, at its terminus at the Exposition grounds, a shed ample enough in length and breadth to shield passengers from all the caprices of the weather. This improvement will impress its importance upon those who have in former days had the experience either of blazing sunshine or of drenching rain.

SPECIAL NOICES.

True Worth. In this enlightened and progressive age we should place the right estimate on true worth. This is what most clear, cool-headed and thinking people do. We see this fact thoroughly demonstrated every day. Since we have reduced the price on our entire mammoth stock of fine dress goods one-third less than their real value, we have customers every day who have never traded here before, but are now availing themselves of this rare opportunity of getting a fine dress for a great deal less than its real value. We are showing a large variety of white goods in any design or quality that you may want and which we are selling at a big bargain. We have this season the largest and prettiest assortment of millinery goods that it has been our pleasure to produce in this line. We are having a very flattering trade in Men's, Youths' and Boys' Ready-Made Clothing. We have the largest and noblest assortment ever brought to this market, and we guarantee to save you from $3 to $5 on each suit that you buy. Our great Emporium is packed from floor to ceiling with pretty new Spring goods, and each article is a real bargain.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.

THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

(By The United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 23, 1891.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Company, in their cotton circular to-night, say: "Liverpool opened at an advance of barely 1-32d., and this market, in consequence, opened at a decline of from two to three points from last night. The presence of a large number of buying orders soon made itself apparent, and an improvement set in which gathered force as it progressed, and finally resulted in advancing August to 9.90, when it became known that Liverpool had further improved, closing firm at a net gain from yesterday of three to four points. The trading here has again been up on a liberal scale."

Receipts at ports to-day estimated at 9,000 bales, against 9,393 bales last week, and 1,425 bales the same week last year.

The spot market is quiet; middling uplands 8 7/8; sales 243 bales. Transactions in futures 135,000 bales. Futures closed firm, 11 to 12 points higher, as follows:
