NOT SEARED. BUT THE HEART-THROBS OF TRUE MANHOOD.

SPARTA, GA., Sept 22, 1885.—To the Constitution, Atlanta.—Were I to practice deception in a case like this, I would think that my heart had become seared beyond recognition. To be guilty of bearing false testimony, there by imperiling the lives of my fellow-men, would place me beneath the dignity of a gentleman.

The facts which I disclosed are endorsed and vouched for by the community in which I live and I trust they may exert the influence intended. For twenty long years I have suffered untold tortures from a terrible pain and weakness in the small of my back, which resisted all modes and all manner of treatment.

For a long time the horriying pangs of an eating cancer of my lower lip had added to my misery and suffering. This encroaching, burning and painful sore on my lip was pronounced Epithelial Cancer by the prominent physicians in this section, which stubbornly resisted the best medical talent. About eighteen months ago a piercing pain located in my breasts which could not be allayed by the use of ordinary modes of treatment.

These sufferings of misery and prostration became so great that, on the 18th of last July, a leading physician said that I could not live longer than four days, and I had almost given up in despair. The burning and excruciating ravages of the cancer, the painful condition of my back and breast and the rapid prostration of my whole system combined to make me a mere wreck of former manhood.

While thus seemingly suspended on a thread between life and death, I commenced the use of B. B. B., the grades blood medicine, to me and my household, ever used. The effect was wonderful—it was magical. The excruciating pains which had tormented me by day and by night for twenty years were soon held in abeyance, and peace and comfort were restored to a suffering man, the cancer commenced healing, strength was imparted to my feeble frame, and when eight bottles had been used I was the happiest of men, and fell about as well as I ever did.

All pain has vanished, the cancer on my lip healed and I was pronounced cured. To those who are afflicted, and need a blood remedy, I urge the use of B. B. B., as a wonderfully effective, speedy and cheap blood purifier.

SPARTA, GA., Sept 22, 1885.—I often saw Mr. Allen Grant when he was suffering with epithelial cancer of under lip, and after using the B. B. B. medicine, as stated above, I find him now almost, if not perfectly cured.

SPARTA, GA., Sept 22, 1885.—We take pleasure in certifying to the truth of the above statement, having supplied the patient with the Blood Balm.
