

WEEKLY LEDGER.

Replies to Correspondents.

Our Sacramento correspondent (without signature other than his real name) certainly did not intend his letter for publication. It would be manifestly improper to place it in print. Meanwhile, we think he need have no fears, as far as this county is concerned, on the main point named.

H. Wager, Drytown.—We scarcely know what you are driving at—the meaning of the "poetry" is ambiguous, and therefore we cannot publish it.

"There is a man on Dry Creek did dwell, And by the people is known full well,"

May easily be understood; but that affair that "sticks out a foot or so" may be construed more ways than one.

Homer, Drytown.—The letter of this excellent correspondent will be found on the 1st page of this week—having arrived in time to find a place there.

Quill Driver.—Send us your real name (not for publication) next time. We break over the rule and give your letter this time, without it, because you may not be aware that the real name is required by the editors.

Old Guard.—The second communication of this writer appears to-day. It speaks for itself.

Traveler.—You had a hard time of it in your search for the coal field. Thank you for the specimen sent—will exhibit it to the curious. We do not know of any use to which poison oak can be applied—except to poison people outwardly.

Buckeye.—We have admitted your communication, because it is right that every good Democrat should have his say.

A Democrat.—And yours appears for the very same reason.

Administration Democrat.—Your communication, containing some good old fashioned Democratic talk, came to hand just as we were going to press, and we are sorry to be compelled to lay it over until next week.

For The Weekly Ledger.
For Governor.

Messrs. Editors: Will you permit me to give two reasons why I think John B. Weller should receive the Democratic nomination for Governor? They are these: First, he is eminently capable, honest, and possessed of large experience. Second, he is and always has been a cool, ardent, hard-working Democrat—whether when the sea has been smooth, or when the storm has raged most violently, he has always been found battling manfully for the cause.

I am, gentlemen, blithely to confess that the Democratic party are too apt to pass by those who have labored long and faithfully for the good of the cause, and heap honor, place, power and emolument upon those who have been so lukewarm as to do nothing more than rote, and perhaps not even that—or, it may be, upon those whose Democracy is of extremely recently date. Now this is wrong—radically wrong. If you apply the old saw that "Republicans are ungrateful" to political parties, I fear it would be found to contain a vast deal more of truth than poetry.

I am for standing by those who have stood by the Democracy with the greatest zeal in the country's and the party's hour of trial; therefore I go for Col. Weller, as gallant an old war-horse as can be brought into the field.

Clinton, June 3d, 1857.

Thoughtful.—Jaakey and Kelley, of the Washington Restaurant, are among the most thoughtful men in town. Last Thursday was hot, and they knew it; so, at a period of that day when the mercury would have run out at the top of the tube had there been a hole there, they sent their compliments with a pitcher of most capital punch—mild and pleasant, yet decidedly invigorating. There was also a bottle of something good for the cool of the evening. Success to you, gentlemen.

The Planet Venus mistaken for a Comet.—There has been a deal of Comet excitement hereabouts for a few days—nearly all the men, women, and children in town have been up before day to see the first stranger. Some have begun to talk a good deal about the 13th of June—this day week.

By reference to an Almanac, it will be seen that the brilliant star, supposed to be the comet, is the planet Venus, and the other, appearing a good deal less and not so brilliant, is Jupiter. So much for the comet excitement.

To Horses and Others.—See Frank Hoffman's "Horse Restaurant" advertisement.

We have not a doubt but that he will give entire satisfaction to "man and beast."

Fast men are so called because they have lost all restraints of order.

When a man spoons in and the wife shovels out, the household must soon fall through.

Adjourned till to-morrow.

Dr. L. J. Czupkay is the only Physician and Surgeon now in California, who has accumulated a fortune solely by the practice of his profession. He has a classical education, and added to the talents of a physician and surgeon, he is a gentleman of easy manners, and possesses a frank and open heart. These qualities have contributed much to his great success; but that which has done more for him than all else, is the uniform candor he has shown to his patients. He never deceives them, but tells them with sincerity and honesty his opinion of their diseases. Though possessing confidence in himself, he never vituperates other gentlemen of the profession; and from our acquaintance with him, we believe he strives religiously "to do unto others, as he would that they should do unto him."

We refer our readers to the Doctor's advertisement in another column.

CERTIFICATE.—I the undersigned, Governor of Hungary, do testify hereby, that Dr. L. J. Czupkay has served during the contest for Hungarian liberty, as Chief Surgeon, in the Hungarian army, with faithful perseverance. Whereof I have given to him this certificate, and do recommend him to the sympathy, attention and protection of all those who are capable to appreciate patriotic self-sacrifice, and undeserved misfortune.

KOSSUTH LAJOS,
Governor of Hungary.

To the Public.
It having just come to my knowledge that false reports, which have resulted to my injury, have been circulated by a person named FREDERICK MILLER, I take this method to deny them, as I do not owe him one dollar, and he has sought to obtain credit at my expense.
