Fren Cletenta Word to chee an inch. hereing Notices loc to be a Line. SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1901.

The divorce mill is working pretty regularly in this state just now, and if statistics show a falling off in the divorce line the business must have been overworked several years ago. for the courts seem to have all they can attend to without working holidays and Sundays.

There are some queer judges in the world surely, including that official in Philadelphia who fined a doctor $10 because he kept the court walting half an hour. The doctor had a patient whose life depended on his attendance, yet the court informed the gentleman that "it were better the patient died than that the commonwealth should be treated with contempt."

The Jersey deputy sheriffs are not quite so severe as Jersey judges, if reports sent out yesterday about the trip of the Paterson murderers to state prison is true. On the way to the penitentiary, just before reaching it, all hands went into Owen McGuire's saloon, and, report says, all hands except Campbell had several stiff rounds of hot whiskey. Perhaps they were hoping the "Jersey lightning" would dim their senses so that they would not realize their entrance to their future home.

It is now admitted by treasury officlais that the greater portion of the taxes imposed nominally to meet the expenses of the war with Spain, but really to make up the deficit that would have existed long before now on account of the prohibitive nature of many sections of the Dingley tariff act, will be permanent, because of the SMELTS 4 lbs for 25c increasing public expenditures and decreasing income from customs duties. Some prominent republicans are openly advocating the lowering of tariff duties to increase the revenue, but the rock-ribbed high protectionists, of whom Mr McKinley is one of the chief high priests, will not consent to that as long as they have the power to prevent it. So the people can make up their minds to pay the war taxes not cut by the bill now before the senate for at least four years more.

> There is a vast dillerence between General De Wet and General Kitchener in the matter of handling prisoners. During three weeks the following captures were made by the Boers. At Dewetsdorp-The Gloucester regiment, the Highland Light infantry and the Royal artillery, 400 prisoners; at Dane's Neck, Brabant's Horse, 120; at Reitfontein (General Clement's), Northumberland Fusiliers, 600-1,120. That is over 1,100 prisoners, officers and men in that short time, without counting many smaller affairs. What a cry of horror would have been raised in England if all those troops were massacred in retaliation for similar butcheries on our side, says a friend of the Boers. What a day of weeping there would be in Scotland and Northumberland and Gloucestershire! But they have nearly all been released by the Boers whom Lord Kitchener was at that moment plotting to extermi-

The shrewdness of the Hanna-Mc-Kinley bluff in the senate by antagonizing appropriation bills with the ship subsidy bill cannot be denied. Having determined that there shall be an extra session of congress any way, they could afford to make this bluff. If they succeed in getting the subsidy steal through by it, they will dodge the charge of arranging for the extra session just to get it through; if the subsidy bill falls to get through, it may also prevent some of the regular appropriation bills from getting through, thus furnishing other reasons for the extra session than Mr Mc-Kinley's sudden desire to have congress provide a form of civil government for the Philippines and his anxlety lest the Cubans should have to wait a few months for congressional action on the constitution they are now making. Unless all signs are wrong, there is some partisan deviltry behind this extra session plan. It is easily conceivable that if the republicans intend to do some partisan legislating in the fifty-seventh congress, for the purpose of perpetuating themselves in power, they would prefer doing it th's spring to postponing it to the regular session, which will not close until a few months before the next congressional campaign. The large republican majority in both branches of the next congress will be a great temptation to a certain class of their leaders to indulge in partisan legislation.

In another column on this page we re-print from our esteemed contemporary, the Waterbury Democrat, a dissertation on the inconsistency of the leaders of the g. o. p., in the distribution of the patronage. The republicans of the Brass City want a broad-minded policy in the division of the spoils, where their opponents have the power, and a narrow-minded policy more rapidly and more comfortably through a single system of railroad with one ticket, one berth and one car, than with a series of changes, detentions, risks of connections, etc. It is quite safe to say that the public, much as it hates large railroad corporations, would never go back to the methods of the power, and a narrow-minded policy where the republicans have full sway, so that the majority can "gobble" everything in sight. The democrats of Waterbury, and of Connecticut, have twenty or twenty-five years ago when long journeys meant much discomfort and deprivation. This movement, however, towards consonuation has its had a number of object lessons from the republican patriots, and if they permit themselves in the future to ups and downs. Actual combination and pooling often being impossible be cajoled or brow beaten by their political opponents, they will have no one to blame but themselves. The owing to legal obstructions, the "community of interest" idea is being tried. This involves such a distribution of board of public safety in Waterbury, in selecting five patrolmen for that city, will make no mistake in imitat-ing the tactics of the New Haven reownership as can exercise control over the rate-making powers and prevent the demoralizing cut rate struggles publican county caucus. "It is a poor rule that will not work both ways." But we can hear the republican rewhich bankrupted so large a proportion of railroads during the last deformers shouting, keep the police force out of politics. Well, then, keep the courts out of politics. Of course, the court officials have nothing to do with cade. This plan is to be put into effect in the coalers, and efforts are being made to carry it out in some form in certain of the western and southwestpolitics; they are all members of the Sunday school. We have admiration for a partisan, but a hypocrite, no matter what his political affiliations ern lines. The accomplishment of such plans means the transfer of large may be, deserves the contempt of all honest people.—New Haven Union. amounts of stock into the hands of those controlling the deals, and it is such operations as these which have

ARE YOU

Looking after your boys? If so make it your duty to see that they are warm and comfortably dressed these days. Many doctor bills can be saved and trips to the drug stores avoided if prudence is exercised at the right time. A boy whose skin is tender and the blood thin is the first to contract a cold which necessitates the calling in of a doctor, and the running to drug stores for medicines. Why not prevent this unpleasantness, when you can buy him a warm Overcoat, or an Ulster, a Suit or a Reefer; it will not only keep his health in good condition, but it will also save you expense and anxiety. This week
