NEW LEADER

From the Place Held so
Long—Meeting To-Night in Hartford.

After holding the leadership for a long time, Worcester succumbed Saturday and Bridgeport is now at the top. O'Rourke has got a good team this season and the men are playing well. Hartford's new catcher is supposed to bring additional strength to the team. The league will meet in Hartford to-night, when the Worcester matter will be disposed of. The league may decide to keep the team in Worcester, with local men in charge of it. The way in which Springfield and Holyoke are seeing-sawing in the race is becoming monotonous. No team seems to have a clinch on last place and Meriden and Hartford continue to fight each other to avoid booby honors. The games Saturday resulted as follows:

At New Haven.
New Haven, June 20.—Holyoke won at New Haven, 2 to 0. Tuckey, who pitched for the loss of the game, as the men who scored were aided by bases on balls and a wild pitch. But four hits were made off Vickers. Umpire Merrick was threatened by the Clarettes. Attendance, 1,250. The score:

Holyoke . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1-2 6 0
New Haven . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-4 4 4

At Meriden.
Meriden, June 20.—At Meriden the home team defeated Worcester, 15 to 3. McGill was touched up for nineteen hits and Worcester landed on McLane for ten. Bone of Meriden hit safely five times. Attendance, 800. The score:

At Hartford.
Hartford, June 20.—The Hartforders put up the worst game of the season Saturday and lost to New London, 15 to 5. Parkins was in poor form and received a terrible drubbing. He was poorly supported. Attendance, 2,000. The score:

Good Games Played by Independent
Teams in the State.

Saturday was a great day for the independent teams in the nearby towns and cities, where the baseball game is the sole event of Saturday and the leading topic of conversation for the rest of the week. It is estimated that 2,500 persons saw the game at Williamstown between the locals and the Rockville men, and saw the Rockville men go home reminded of that classic poem, "Casey at the Bat." Manchester rosters saw a nine from Waterbury defeat their pets. The games follow:

Consolidated Won.
South Manchester, June 20.—The Manchester baseball team met defeat at the hands of the Waterbury Consolidated team Saturday 4 to 2. The defeat was mostly due to the work of the battery, Rogers and Bronkie. The visitors scored three in the short arm by one of Bronkie's ins and dragged himself to first rubbing his arm. W. Lallier sacrificed him to second, Henebry fouled to Rogers.

Camp was next up and there were two out; Mulligan was still rubbing his arm at the second. Bronkie and Bronkie had twice fouled Camp and it looked as though there was to be another blank for the visitors when the unexpected happened. Rogers was unable to stop one of Bronkie's low ones and it rolled by him and "Mul" started for third; Rogers thought that he had still time to catch him and threw towards O'Rourke, but that is all he did do and, although Jimmie is not short, it went sailing over his head and Mulligan crossed the plate. Camp made a hit and Slavin drove the ball over the fence for a home run, making the score 3 to 0. In the third Waterbury scored its fourth and last run on a dead ball, Dwyer's safe at first on the successful attempt to field Lallier at second and a hit by Mulligan.

The following innings to the eighth were painful to the local rooters and although men were several times on bases when a hit would have caused much trouble they were not forthcoming. The score:

Waterbury . . . 3 0 0 2 0 0 0 0-8 12 1

AT THE DRIVING PARK.

Winners of the Prizes at C. T. A. U.
Field Day Meet.

No better athletic events outside of the Yale athletic events were ever witnessed in the state of Connecticut than those which took place at the Driving park on Saturday afternoon. The only sad feature was the failure of the crowd to keep off the track and the inability of the police to keep them off. The first and greatest credit for the success of the meeting falls on the shoulders of Michael J. Thompson, the former graduate instructor of athletics at Georgetown. It was all through his efforts that so many athletes, with world wide reputations were on hand to compete in the various events, and there was nothing but words of praise heard on all sides for Referee Mike Thompson. Another meet under his management later in the season would be a big drawing card.

The closest race of the day was the 100-yard dash, which was won by J. F. O'Connell of Hartford, who had three yards and one-half start on Joe Reilly, the great Georgetown sprinter. O'Connell beat the tape by the fraction of an inch ahead of Reilly and so close was the finish that many thought Reilly had won or it was a dead heat. The judges called O'Connell's number the minute he crossed the tape, and it was also true that there has been a lack of order for seats which indicated a lack of interest among the members of the sporting fraternity, who consider Munroe no match for the big boller-maker.

SULLIVAN AFTER O'BRIEN.
Jack (Twinn) Sullivan, the New England middleweight, who won a decision over Andy Walsh of Brooklyn in a fifteen-round fight at St. Louis on Thursday night, is again after a match with Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia. Sullivan will go for any number of rounds with the Quaker City boxer and bet him $1,000 that he can't knock him out again inside the limit. Sullivan will post a forfeit just as soon as O'Brien says he will fight.

RUHLIN WANTS MUNROE.
Billy Madden, manager of Gus Ruhlin, the heavyweight pugilist yesterday afternoon said that Ruhlin is ready to meet Munroe in place of Jeffries. "Now that Jeffries refuses to fight on account of a sore knee," said Madden, "Ruhlin is ready to take his place and fight Munroe on June 30, or any other day in the near future. Ruhlin has been training at his home in Akron for the past two months and is in good condition. I received the following letter from him yesterday: Dear Billy—I see that Jeffries refuses to fight Munroe on June 30. I am in prime condition and will fight Munroe at Frisco in place of Jeffries if you can make arrangements. Same conditions as the Munroe-Jeffries bout will suit me. Try to arrange match. If you cannot get Munroe, try to make a match with the winner of the Fitzsimmons-O'Brien bout at Philadelphia on July 6. At present I weigh 200 pounds and feel fine. Training every day, and if match is made with Munroe for June 30 you can depend upon me for a winner. I will make a side bet of $2,500 or $5,000 on the result if Munroe agrees to fight," said Madden. "This is an opportunity for Pollok. Munroe's manager, to show the public what Munroe can do. I am willing to have Ruhlin fight at the Yosemite A. C. under the same conditions agreed to for the Munroe-Jeffries fight and will post $2,500 forfeit if Pollok agrees to fight."

Lysistrata Cup Still Held by H. H. Rogers' Yacht.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Mr. H. H. Rogers' steam yacht Kanawha has successfully defended the Lysistrata cup, defeating Mr. F. M. Smith's steam yacht Hauoli in convincing fashion. The Hauoli was beaten over the entire course of sixty nautical miles. The victory of the Kanawha entitles her to still be called the champion of the steam yacht fleet in American waters, an honor which she has modestly carried for five years and has made her one of the most popular yachts ever constructed.

The course was covered by the Kanawha in three hours and fifty-eight seconds. That is an average of nearly two knots per hour there is no use figuring it yet it is 19.90 knots.

The time the Hauoli required to cover the course was 3h. 4m. 27s., which is an average of 19.53 knots per hour.
