Ammonia for Heart.
Spirits of ammonia is undoubtedly of great value in cases of heart or nerve exhaustion, and a few drops in a glassful of cold water is a great tonic. It is not one that should be taken without the advice of a physician, however, for it is capable of injuring the heart.

Peanut Jamboree.

Miss Ruth Hurt, the charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hurt of The Farrow apartments, celebrated her thirteenth birthday yesterday afternoon by entertaining a party of forty of her friends.

The apartment was elaborately and uniquely decorated by means of pink and green crepe paper ribbons, the ceiling being done in festoons, the side-walls and windows also being draped in beautiful effect. The windows were done in panel effect one bearing the figures, "1896-1909."

There were curtains of the ribbons in the archways all in pink and green and the effect was very attractive.

The mode of entertainment was styled a peanut jamboree and there were eleven tables. There were thirteen peanuts on each table and several hat-pins, the guests being required to spear the nuts on the pins, the two spearing the greatest number before the tap of the bell progressing to the next table.

Refreshments of orange ice and cake were served and two ornate birthday cakes, one bearing the name of the young hostess and the other, thirteen burning candles of pink and green. Pink carnations also adorned the table. The favors were novel being wrapped in the napkins and were fluffy ruffles, caps and bonnets of tissue paper.

The affair was charming in all its details and heartily enjoyed by the friends of Miss Hurt who remembered her birthday with many pretty gifts.

Mrs. Hurt and Mesdames O. W. Mattison, John L. Parham, Eugene Kahn, H. O. Farrow and H. C. Thompson assisted the hostess in entertaining.

Chafin-dish Club.

"Doldrums" Once Dreaded.
The word "doldrums" is a name given by sailors to that part of the ocean near the equator in which calms and light baffling winds prevail, with hot, sultry air, local squalls, thunder and rain. In the doldrums sailing vessels beat about for weeks and they were formerly the dread of those who sailed that had to cross the equator.

Natural to Seek to Please.
We all are conscious of the feeling that we want to please and that we want to make ourselves presentable. This ambition leads to a cultivation of taste and elegance which are wonderfully stimulating, inspiring and splendid. There is nothing about such desires to be attractive. They are quite natural and really uplifting.

PLANNING BIG TRAFFIC COUP

U. P. AND WABASH WILL ENTER INTERCHANGE TRAFFIC AGREEMENT AT KANSAS CITY EARLY IN MAY.

Chicago, March 6.—The Record-Herald prints the following: "Negotiations are in progress which will, it is thought, eventually land for Edward H. Harriman's Union Pacific line west of Kansas City the greatest traffic coup in its history."

It is understood that, beginning early in May, there will be an interchange traffic agreement between the Wabash and Union Pacific at Kansas City, which will be of immense value to each system.

Details of the tentative agreement have not received the sanction of Harriman or of George J. Gould, but it is known that it is the purpose to interchange traffic well nigh to the exclusion of all other connections.

The pending agreement may in a measure explain why Harriman was so ready to throw $2,000,000 into the syndicate which loaned Gould $8,000,000 to save some of his roads from bankruptcy.

HUGE LOVING CUP

Presented to Former Senator Foraker By the Negro Residents of Washington, D. C.

Washington, March 6.—Former Senator Foraker tonight was presented with a massive silver loving cup, the gift of the negro residents of Washington, in appreciation of his fight in the senate to have the battalion of the 25th infantry which was discharged "without honor" as a result of the "shooting up" of Brownsville, Texas, restored to the army.

The cup is nearly two feet in height and weighs 100 ounces. Engraved inside the bowl is the following quotation from one of the senator's speeches:

"They ask for justice, not because they are negroes, but because they are men."
