MOUND CITY.

April 13.

Easter's dawn was bright and beautiful and the church bells pealed forth the announcement that "Christ is Risen". All the church services were well attended. Sunrise prayer meetings, early masses and all early services being among the best. The several churches were beautifully and artistically decorated in those best of tokens of God's bountiful Love for Man, flowers. The cross held a most conspicuous place in the decorations as well as in the heart, touching sermons to which large congregations were most attentive. The story of the Christ-child at Christmas thrills the heart of every Christian but the story of Christ, the child grown to manhood's estate, given as a sacrifice and his blood as an atonement for the whole world, lifts the long sleeping soul toward heaven and death no longer holds a sting nor grave the victory. Special music, prepared by the choirs of the various churches was most beautifully rendered. The Easter Sunday school lesson reached the hearts of many children. The call for financial aid for missions met with the following response: St. Peter's Episcopal Sunday school $10.84. Pilgrim Congregational Sunday school collection $11.25, and Grace Methodist Episcopal church $8.49 and Sunday school $19.45. The funeral of Barney Hood, the well known young man whose tragic death at Olmsted Saturday night made profound and sad impression upon all who knew him, was one of the most largely attended which has occurred in that section of the country for the past several years. The sudden end of a life which had been so brief, caused the sadness to grow deeper into the hearts of his old associates and friends of he and his highly respected family and as the remains were lowered to their last resting place on earth in the twilight of his Easter Day the sympathy of all those present as well as many friends who were unable to attend went out to those bereaved of a loving son and brother. The Independent Order of Old Fellow and the Daughters of Rebekah in which lodges the deceased held membership attended en masse and the solemn funeral rites of the I. O. O. F. were read by one of Barney's best friends, Dr. Hall Whiteaker of this city. Rev. Otis Hogue of Vienna, pastor of the United Brethren church in which church the funeral was conducted, assisted at the services. The surviving members of the family are Mr. and Mrs. G. W. THE WORLD OF SPORT

CILLINS AND THE INDIAN.

Colliers and Montour are again matched to meet on the mat here, the date set being Wednesday, April 21, one week from today. This time the Indian will not fail to make his appearance, as he has deposited a sum of money with local parties to be forfeited should he fail to keep the date.

When Collins met the Indian here some weeks ago the match was the hottest the Cairo favorite has had this season, except, possibly, his first bout with Demetral and it is expected by several gamblers that Collins is likely to meet defeat next Wednesday night. Collins' offer to meet Prudal made at the arena house following his match with McMahon Monday night is likely to bear fruit in the near future.

The preliminary events for next Wednesday's program are in process of arrangement and will be announced later. They will consist of some good glove contests, with possibly Seward and Hight meeting again.

R. J. Siegelman, a local wrestler, whose challenge is out to all comers, is now doing some training on a farm near Olmsted. Siegelman desires especially to meet Holderby, who has appeared before the local wrestling fans on two or three occasions. Siegelman should undoubtedly give Holderby a hard match.

GOTCH AND THE TURK. Chicago, Ill., April 13.—At Dextor Park pavilion tomorrow night Frank Gotch, world's wrestling champion will defend his title against Yusoff Mahmud, the Bulgarian giant who has defeated all comers since his arrival in America. The contest should prove one of the most exciting and sensational of its kind that has ever taken place in this country.

Gotch, who won the championship from Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion" about a year ago, is favored to be the better of the contest. The early Bulgarian, however, has a number of admirers, who are ready to back him heavily. The men will struggle to a finish, the winner of two falls out of three to get the decision.

AMERICAN LEAGUE. At Washington. R H E Washington 9 6 4 New York 5 7 3 Batteries—Hughes, Groom and Street; Lake and Kitchow.

At Philadelphia. R H E Philadelphia 2 9 1 Boston 4 9 2 Batteries—Coombs, Thomas and Lapp; Cheek and Spencer.

HOLDERBY HEARD FROM. Ben Holderby, the local middle weight wrestler was seen by the Bulletin's sporting editor, and the former stated that he had read Hackney's challenge published in the Bulletin and wished to accept the challenge. "I will meet Hackney at any date he may name, the sooner the better, and I believe I can throw him two falls out of three." If the match is made between these two men it will be pulled off before the R. A. Club at the club's hall on Twenty-fourth and Sycamore streets. At the same time two sparring matches and two battle royals will be pulled off.

Holderby said that he thinks he was not given a square deal by Kitchow by whom he was defeated recently. Holderby claims he was not in his best form at the time and also that when he tried to get a return match, Kitchow would not agree to meet him again. Holderby says that because of this, he will reclaim the middleweight championship of Cairo, believing that he was entitled to a return match with Kitchow.
