OF WHAT THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION WILL CONSIST.

In the Constitutional Convention there will be 20 stockmen, 14 merchants, 7 farmers, 6 general business men, and also 4 saloon keepers, 3 physicians, 3 bankers, 3 editors, 3 territorial officials, 2 county officials, and only 1 representative for the college presidents, mining men, lumbermen and railroad conductors. One-half the republican delegates are Spanish-Americans and of the democratic delegates not one. In age the delegates range from 24 to 72 years, but the middle-aged men will predominate, although a number of old soldiers will be seated, such men as T. B. Catron, H. B. Ferguson and T. D. Burns, who are in the sixties. The convention will have one supreme court judge, the supreme court clerk and the assistant superintendent of public instruction.—Tolam Tribune.

WILL FURNISH SEED TO FARMERS

A move is on foot to secure seed wheat for all farmers who desire to plant wheat this fall and do not have the money to buy the seed. Secretary Withers of the Chamber of Commerce has been in correspondence with the Santa Fe Ry. Co., in regard to the matter, to be carried out on the same plan as the Rock Island used in the early years in Oklahoma.

The plan is for the Santa Fe to loan each farmer who desires to plant wheat an amount up to forty bushels, the distribution to be under the immediate charge of the agricultural demon trator of the road. Each farmer who gets the seed wheat must be reliable and trustworthy. All who want to get this seed see Mr. Withers at once and tell him how many acres you wish to plant, and get further particulars regarding the distribution. If you want seed wheat attend to this matter at once. Confer with Mr. Withers.—Texico Trumpet.

The Lash of a Fiend

Would have been as welcome to A. Cooper of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It was most troublesome at night," he writes "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hayfever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. A trial convinces. 10c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. It's positively guaranteed by all Druggists.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The enrollment reached 40 this week.

The sabbath school has donated their picture charts to decorate the school room, which is very much appreciated.

We appointed Saturday, 24, to do the decorating.

We would like to insist on the advantage of students starting as early as possible, so they will not get behind.

There is a compulsory School-law in N. M., for all students from 7 to 14 years old. It is given below.

COMPULSORY SCHOOL LAW.

The compulsory school law of New Mexico, compels parents, guardians or other persons having the control, care or direction of children, when such children do not attend some private or denominational school, to send such children under their control to the public school during the entire time such school is in session in each scholastic year in their respective school communities, except that such children referred to in this act shall not be less than seven years nor more than fourteen years of age, or of such physical disability as to unfit them for school duties, which disabilities shall be certified to by some regular practicing physician. This section shall not apply to children who live more than three miles from a public school. The clerk of the school board shall give public notice of this law which notice shall contain the substance of the act, written or printed by posting same in some conspicuous place at three points within the district. A failure on the part of parents or guardians to comply with the law brings a punishment on the offender, of a fine of not less than $5, nor more than $25, or by imprisonment for not more than ten days in any county jail.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. S. F. CULBERSON,
County Superintendent of Schools of Roosevelt County, New Mexico.

James Alberty, the dramatist, descending the steps of his club, when a stranger addressed him thus; "I beg your pardon, but is there a gentleman in this club with one eye of the name of X—?" Alberty answered the question at once by another: "Stop a moment. What's the name of his other eye?"—Ex

MISS THE LIGHT AND NOISE

Reasons Why Some Townspeople Are Unable to Live Comfortably in the Country.

The necessity which some people feel for noisy surroundings was mentioned by a famous specialist in giving a medical explanation of the case of little Horace Collins, the heroic messenger boy, says the London Daily Mail. The lad, although able to gratify every wish as the guest of Lord Lansdowne at Bowood house, has a mastering longing for the bustle and light of the London streets.

"It is a very clear case of nostalgia," said the doctor. "A person suffering like that has lost two everyday friends, as it were—noise and light. It is entirely due to the nerves. Our nervous system gets into a pronounced groove in accordance with the everyday condition under which we live. A sudden change in living throws the nervous system out of gear. Both light and noise are nervous stimuli to people who live amid noise and light. Take away the comradeship of noise and light, and the nervous system loses two stimulants necessary to its well being and suffers in consequence."

"With the boy Collins the fact that he does not see policemen troubles him, because policemen to him have become an important part of the natural scheme of things."

"A very similar case occurred with a London housekeeper of mine. She was sent away to the country, and simply could not endure to live there. She missed the companionship of noise so much that she had to be brought back to town again quickly, for her health was beginning to suffer."

Nothing to Say.

According to a delightful story "Shelley, recounted in the International Journal of Ethics by Rev. Bradley Gorman, the splendid mental equipment of the poet did not include humor.

In his characteristically impassioned way, Shelley was deeply interested in the problem of immortality. One day he met a nursemaid wheeling a very young child in a perambulator.

"Here is a little soul," he reflected "recently come to earth, out of the great unknown preceding human life. Perhaps he can tell me something about the great unknown after human life. The two realms may be one and the same."

He accosted the infant twice, but of course gained no response, only a blank infantile stare.

"Alas! alas!" sighed Shelley. "How very reticent these little creatures are!"

Sport.

A man out Rockport way has a little tame fox that is led about by a chain. He proposes in the near future to have a "hunt." He will invite "sportsmen" from Cleveland to come out with their dogs, then he will turn loose the little tame fox and send the dogs after him. It is expected that the dogs will catch the little tame fox and tear him to pieces.

The hunt was scheduled to come off some time ago. But the invited guests with their trained hunting dogs failed to arrive, and the dogs of the neighborhood—just ordinary dogs—were pressed into service. For some reason or other these uneducated canines failed to enter into the spirit of the occasion, and could not be induced to take the trail. The little tame fox was accordingly again cooped up in his cage to await a more propitious and sporty slaughtering.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Value of Cheerful Voice.

A well-trained voice has a value in every line of work—stenography, telephone operator, canvasser, masseuse, and in many other lines of work. One of the best masseuses in Chicago, who has more customers than she can take, is as well known for her pleasant, cheerful voice as for her good work.

True advancement is only possible through self-sacrifice.

Spot for Lady Godiva.

"Talk about vanity!" exclaimed the woman who keeps her eyes open. "I passed a big new building the other day—big enough to be a school or a theater—and what do you suppose it was to be devoted to? Hair—hair! Puffs and braids and swirls and switches and curls and rats and things for women to pin on their heads and make believe belong to them. A building full of hair!"
