The two little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joyce have demanded her attention for the past two weeks. One was the first to encounter the measles and she recovered in time to enjoy dinner with the family, celebrating her sixth birthday on the nineteenth instant. Then the older daughter, Mary Francis, was ill, but reported today about over with it.

John R. Joyce attended the baccalaureate services at Roswell Sunday delivered by Rev. Mr. Pratt, of this place and pastor of Grace church, to the N. M. I. cadets. John R. made the trip with Reverend Pratt and visited his aunts while there, going Saturday and returning last night.

Lee Keller, W. H. Harroun and W. T. Kirkpatrick were in town last night from the Harroun farm.

CRAWFORD AIRDOME

Joe Welch, of Uoving, is in town today.

Mr. Muzzy's physician reports him doing nicely today.

William Hove is recovering nicely from a severe case of the measles.

Harold Robb, son of J. M. Robb, the former picture show boy, is in town visiting his old chums, coming up to see his father who ranches and farms down the valley on some business deal.

Tom Gray from his ranch beyond the Texas line is in town today greeting old friends and looking after business.

B. E. Prosser, from Lovington, is in the metropolis today loading out with the necessities to conduct his trade on the plains.

Joe W. Reeves, a brother of Tom Reeves, came in from Oklahoma City the first of the week and expects to spend the summer with his brother and family on the ranch.

EDERLY'S BILL BOARD.
The new airdome contains several fine bill boards all designed and painted by the manager, Mr. Jake Linn, but none compare to his conception of what was coming to his friend Charley Ederly, the owner of the J. and E. cigar which is one of the most elegant signs ever erected in Carlsbad, twenty feet and can be read from any angle for as far as it can be seen.

Mrs. M. C. Pearce, who taught school at Knowles this term, accompanied by her son, William, arrived in our city yesterday via the plains mail line. Mrs. Pearce's son, Jerry, saw more than a year's service at the border and is a member of Company B. at this time. Her son, William, is here to answer the nation's call. The plains country has furnished more than its quota of staunch recruits for the colors and still they come.

Carl Livingston returned home last night on the northbound train from Pecos. Carl has been on a ten days visit to his wife who is under treatment at Temple, Texas. He reports his wife improving nicely and a very pleasant trip generally.

John Lowenbruck and daughter, Gertrude, returned home from El Paso last night on account of their train being delayed. Mr. Lowenbruck said they had a very tedious and bum trip.

Our old friend, A. J. Crawford, sold 1926 extra lambs on the Chicago market while a guest in the Windy City at prices, so he informed us, that were highly satisfactory. In fact he said while tears bedimed his eyes that he might return some of the money to the purchasers of his lambs at some future time if the spirit were to move him sufficiently.

MAJOR BUJAC HAS MUCH SUCCESS IN ENLISTING MEN.

Maj. E. P. Bujac, who came home Sunday, reports that last Friday he was at Fort Sumner, and enlisted twenty-five men in the 1st N. M. Infantry, and that they were all of the best class of American citizens and among the heaviest cattle owners and business men representing over a million dollars in wealth. He also enlisted eight Spanish-Americans who will be sent to Spanish-American companies—E and L, which are being formed at Albuquerque. He also enlisted thirty-three men at Clovis, Texas and Melrose and six at Elida.

ROOK PARTY.

An unusual pleasant affair was the rook party given Thursday evening by Miss Mabel Hartshorn and Mrs. Markman at the home of the former, honoring the young ladies and gents class of the Methodist Sunday school. The rooms were made doubly attractive by large bouquets of bright red roses. Four tables were placed here and there for the players. After the exciting round of games the players were treated to the American dish of delicious ice cream and lovely cake.

J. T. Harrison has been down the valley with Lowell Warren where he was doing some planting and farming on a small scale. The two boys came home Saturday and spent Sunday. Lowell went back today, but J. T. is here.

E. J. Todd received a car of Overlands today and is busy unloading the five fine cars, one of which is the new model four passenger roadster which is a beauty.

Messrs. Randolph and Price, two of the Peoples Mercantile Company's representatives, made a trip to Lovington Saturday in the interest of the firm and returned Sunday. When asked if the wind blew out that way, they said: "I believe it did." Aside from that and rough roads they had a very pleasant trip.

Richard and Carl Donaldson, of Loving, two of A. Donaldson's boys, were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Forehand and family came in from the ranch Saturday and spent the night in town and attended services at the Christian church in the morning, and were accompanied on the return trip by Rev. F. M. Sellards and family. Rev. Mr. Sellards preached at the Lower Black River school house in the afternoon to a good congregation.

Mrs. W. C. Graham and little daughter, Bernice, of Amarillo, Texas, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sprong, and her sister, Mrs. Reeves, at the ranch for ten or fifteen days, left last night for her home. Mrs. Graham thinks they escaped a cold snap there the last few days, especially Sunday.

E. L. Winchester from El Paso passed through our city this morning on a business trip to Roswell, and other points along the Santa Fe.

George Williams returned yesterday evening from the lower valley and Pecos, Texas, where no doubt he was investigating a cattle deal.

Do your swearing at the Current office. Notary always in.

PLEASANT DANCE.

Misses Lorene Powell and Ada Fowler were hostesses last evening at a very pleasant informal dance and candy making. Six couples went early and got the nuts ready while they chatted and repaired to the pleasant dining room where they made candy and did it justice. Then, not feeling inclined to go home so early, they started the Victrola and all danced until midnight. Those enjoying the evening were the Misses Mary Fletcher, in whose honor the affair was planned, Delia Gist, Thelma Hyatt, Ada Fowler, Lorene Powell, and Messrs. Charles Witt, Cal Merchant, Oscar Ussury, J. R. Bembry and others.
