

The Making and Keeping of Friends

One of the elements of friendship is steadfastness—and how can one have that characteristic when one has no STEADY PLACE FOR LIVING?

Your children will not be able to make lasting friends if you keep moving them around from place to place. You and your wife can at best make "acquaintances" during your "rental period of one place."

As long as you live at the whim of a land-lord; as long as you show by not owning a "HOME" that it is not the BIG THING IN YOUR LIFE; just so long will REAL, STEADFAST FRIENDSHIP be extremely difficult to accomplish.

Do You Own Your Own Home?

If not why not plan now to build. You will find not only a step to happiness but a step to prosperity.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and causing nature in doing its work. HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLAR BULL IS DEAD

King Segis Pontiac Alcantar, the famous Holstein-Friesian bull valued at $50,000, is dead. He was owned by John H. Arfmann of Fairmount farm in New York.

King Segis was born in New York November, 1910. The next year Mr. Arfmann's father bought him for $10,000, then the highest price ever paid for a bull in this state, it was said. In 1913 Mr. Arfmann sold a half interest in the bull. Six months later the New Zealand government offered $100,000 for King Segis, but the offer was refused. The bull earned $50,000 to $75,000 a year, it was said.

King Segis was sired by King Segis Pontiac. His dam was Alcantar. He stood about five feet high and weighed 2,600 pounds. He had hundreds of sons and daughters, many of them prize winners. He was exhibited at a cattle show in Madison Square garden, New York, in 1915, and swept the board of prizes.

NOTHING ELSE

A pretty Philadelphia girl at a Newport dance was the topic of discussion in many circles, or at least her dress was, for it was as scant and filmy as one could possibly conceive.

Very décolleté in front, it was spaced in the back with a broad V reaching to her waist. To be sure there were slight wisps that served as shoulder straps, and the cutest bit of a train, but thru the gauze that went for a skirt one could discern as she whirled about the floor, that there were ruby studs on her garters.

"Claudia's a dear girl," remarked the hostess to George Gould, "but all her interests are wrapped up in clothes."

"Well, I'm sure nothing else is," retorted Gould.
