The guests of The Ridgewood were entertained Wednesday evening with a progressive 500 party. Four handsome prizes were awarded to those holding highest score and the remaining players each received a prize from a grab bag which afforded great amusement and all enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Miss Belle Mc Cord, a season guest at The Despland, gave a delightful party Friday evening to a party of ten, guests at The Despland. The two prizes were awarded to Mrs. Slatmeyer, of Cleveland, and L. M. Waite, respectively. Refreshments were served at the hotel after the game.

A card party on Tuesday evening was a pleasant social function of the week enjoyed at The Austin. Eight tables were set, and after the game light refreshments were served. The three ladies' prizes were won by Mesdames Willie, Geo. Rappole, Mabbetty. The gentlemen's prizes were won by Messrs. Rappole, Moore and Allen.

Yesterday was a busy one for the guests of the Prince George. In view of the poor weather the orchestra gave an extra concert in addition to the regular offerings. In the afternoon a bridge and euchre was held. Mrs. A. W. Kirk won the first prize at the bridge tables with Mrs. A. W. Gabeler second; gentlemen's first prize went to Mr. Hamnett. Mrs. Prescott was the winner at euchre with Mrs. DuBrue second. The final of the gentlemen's pool tournament was played off, D. E. The Power of Snails.

One day by way of experiment I harnessed two common garden snails to a toy gun carriage to see if they could pull it along, says a writer in a London magazine. Although the gun carriage was a heavy leaden one, the snails pulled it so easily that I loaded the body of the carriage with small shot. The snails, however, were more than equal to the task. Anxious to test their powers still further, I attached a toy cannon (made of lead and brass) behind the gun carriage, but the snails and their additional load moved on once again with the same apparent ease. Out of curiosity I decided to weigh the cannon, gun carriage and shot and to my great surprise found the total weight to be almost one pound. I venture to think this a very good load for two snails to manage.
