Two bicycle accidents occurred at almost the same moment on Beach street Saturday afternoon, two wheelmen coming in collision directly in front of the Daily News office and a boy getting a fall, a block further north, through the breaking of the forks of his bicycle as he turned quickly to avoid an automobile. A broken rear wheel resulted from the collision.

The gossips are wrong, as they usually are, in matters pertaining to a family jar. The poem in pastel so cleverly writ, was as far from a woman as poet or kit. 'Twas the bright scintillation that came from afar to mortals benighted, by a wandering star. Then why name a woman, a comet or cat if man is a man for a that and a that. In some social circles a family spat could never be properly laid to the cat. While worse still to censure a woman or comet, unless you would stir up a bee in your bonnet. So shoulder the blame and stand to the game, and say some were hit by the whimsical skit.

FRIENDS MEET IN DAYTONA AFTER LAPSE OF FIFTY YEARS.

The almost general migratory habit of the American people today, results quite often in the meeting at tourist places like Daytona of friends and relatives who have not seen one another for years.

An instance of this kind occurred a short time since, when S. H. Gove's brother, C. E. Gove, and wife were visiting here from Nahant, Mass.

One day while Mr. Gove was killing time at the City Hall, he became engaged in conversation with a gentleman from Springfield, Mass., who gave his name as Charles Ladd. When Mr. Gove said that he was from Nahant, Mr. Ladd said he was born and raised at Nahant and further questioning elicited the fact that they had been companions and often fished together at that place fifty years ago.

Another instance occurred recently from which the particulars are lacking, but which was probably the reunion of relatives, who had not seen each other for years. Two old gentlemen met upon Beach street and after an exclamation of surprise, embraced and kissed and then locked arms and started away together.

Snead & Weitz have managed to bring this company here for a short opera season during the height of the tourist season and with the calibre of the company known, it is expected that record breaking houses will greet the artists. Tickets for the engagement are now on sale and already there has been a big demand from the hotels. "The Bohemian Girl," "Martha," "Olivette," "Maritana," and "I Inafore," are some of the operas that will be sung by the Manhattans during this engagement.
