Splendid Reports of First Year's Work of Y.M.C.A. Made at Annual Convention

Serious minded men of affairs who believe in Christ and Him crucified assembled last evening at Masonic hall to attend the banquet of the Volusia County Young Men's Christian Association. It was an eventful meeting which portends much good for the future of America, as it had to do with the welfare of those upon whom this country must depend in the days to come. Young men and boys were there who testified to the uplifting influence of the Y. M. C. A. and declared that the work was in keeping with proper home environment. It was a representative gathering of men of character who think of generations to come and are concerned about the welfare of humanity. Not an idle thought was expressed and all present were moved by the spirit of Christian fellowship which actuated every speaker. In all it was a friendly gathering of about 75 men, who were the better for having attended and by so doing attested the powerful influence for good which the Y. M. C. A. wields.

From the time those assembled filed into the hall it was evident that the affair was going to be a success from the start, as the opening number was a real dinner served by the ladies of the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. Chicken and things were served in profusion, and every plate was passed back for a second helping. It is needless to say that the ladies were given an unanimous vote of thanks, both individually and collectively. Then came the fireworks and everyone settling back contented to listen and approve.

Prof. James Houston acted as toastmaster. His pleasant and witty remarks were to the point, and he spoke with an ease which was contagious. Several popular airs were interpreted by the Daytona High School orchestra.

Master Baird Rogers spoke of life at the county camp at Lake Winona. He spoke as a boy from a boy's standpoint, and made a deep impression when he declared that camp life developed character and friendships of a lasting nature.

Rev. C. H. Ferrin, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Deland, was the next speaker. He was with the boys at the state camp and told of the spirit of unselfishness that actuated those who attended.

Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers' Record, told of the problems confronting America today and declared that the hope of the future was in the proper raising of the youths of today and that every community must do its part. He praised the work of the Y. M. C. A. and favored enlarged plans for the ensuing year. He was roundly applauded.

A. E. Roberts, international secretary on county work for the Y. M. C. A., was the final speaker. He told of his travels and his experience during the world war, but declared that the perils of today are greater than ever if the boys are not given proper Christian training. He was gratified to know what had been done in Volusia county and in Florida because the boys of the country are the biggest asset we have.

The meeting was opened and closed with prayer. Directors for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Dr. Dean T. Smith, Prof. C. R. M. Sheppard, A. W. Shaw, W. J. Gardner, M. W. Ashton, R. H. Boyd, D. B. Tulen, E. H. Patton, C. T. Chatham, B. F. Esell, Rev. C. E. Wyatt, George Main, J. H. Menckley, H. L. Rood, Rev. H. S. Rightmire, C. A. Randall, Rev. J. M. Richmond, E. R. Conrad, Prof. J. F. Eastman, Blaine Dunn, J. W. Smock, R. A. Williams, E. H. Shoemaker and Prof. R. L. Gooding.

The report of the committee on resolutions was adopted as follows: First Resolved that we express our appreciation of the work done by the Volusia county committee, all local committees and the county secretary during the past year. We believe this important work is destined to accomplish great good in this county and we recommend its continuance.

Second, We offer a vote of thanks to the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. for their excellent service in connection with this banquet, also to the high school orchestra for their excellent music and the Masonic order for the use of their hall, and thank the press of the county for their assistance and able co-operation in the work of the County Y. M. C. A.

Third, We nominate the above named gentlemen to serve as members of the county committee of the Volusia County Y. M. C. A. and we recommend that the committee divide itself into three equal groups to serve one, two and three years respectively and to also elect its own officers at its first meeting.
