Gave Up Hope

"I suffered five years, with awful pains, due to womanly troubles," writes Mrs. M. D. McPherson, from Chadbourne, N. C. "They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, and I had an awful hurting in my side; also a headache and a backache.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, but Cardui relieved me."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and making weak women strong and well. During this time, thousands of women have written, like Mrs. McPherson, to tell of the really surprising results they obtained by the use of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

Cardui strengthens, builds, restores, and relieves or prevents unnecessary pain and suffering from womanly troubles. If you are a woman, begin taking Cardui, today.

Mrs. W. H. Thomas has been quite sick the past week but is now improved.

S. E. Eckles and R. G. Dunlop were up from Clear Lake Tuesday transacting business in the county seat.

Judge R. H. Loofbourrow left Monday for Boise City where he convened District Court Tuesday.

Rev. L. L. Shaw and family left Tuesday for Raton, New Mexico, on a business trip and for a short visit with relatives.

AND

Mrs. S. B. Weir and daughter, Miss Ruth, arrived last week from Oberlin, Kansas, on a visit to the Quinn, Russell, McCall and Fickel families.

Miss Marie Beck returned yesterday to her home at Pratt, Kansas, after a week's visit with friends on the North Flats. She spent Tuesday with Miss Edith Loofbourrow in Beaver.

Mrs. Mae Trekel arrived Wednesday of last week from Milan, Kansas, and will visit with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Maple, and other relatives for a time.

CLARK

Miss Lena Wright returned last week from a visit with friends at Goodwell. Miss Marguerite Walters returned with her. Both ladies will instruct in the County Normal.

Prof. H. C. Fellows, county superintendent-elect, and wife arrived in Beaver last week and will now remain permanently. Prof. Fellows takes his office in July. He will be an instructor in the County Normal this month.

A fine rain fell in this section Sunday night. It was much needed and will do a world of good. The fall was much heavier in the country south and north. While a greater precipitation would have been acceptable yet the moisture we did get will help crops along wonderfully.

ABSTRACT

H. C. Gray was in from Riverside Monday. He was carrying his arm in a sling as a result of a serious injury he received Wednesday last in placing a pump in a well. The pump fell striking him on the left hand breaking two bones and badly lacerating the flesh. The injury was improving nicely when he was in.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. George and daughter, Miss Rose, were here the past week. They drove down from Liberal to meet their daughters Misses Maude and Edna who were returning from Milford, Texas, where they have been attending college. The young ladies returned via Forgan. The Georges' were guests of County Judge Healy and wife while in Beaver.

BEAVER

W. H. Haskell, father of County Commissioner A. A. Haskell, came in Thursday of last week for a visit with his son. Mr. Haskell lives at Winchester, Kansas. His town is near Oskaloosa, Kansas, where Capt. H. Mott and family, former Beaverites, now reside. He tells us that our old friends are well and prosperous all of which we are glad to note.

COUNTY

Frank Laughlin, president of the Bank of Beaver City, left Sunday for Hamilton, Ohio, where he goes in charge of the bank safe which went through the fire and it was necessary to take it to the factory to have it opened. This is a big expense to the bank for the safe had to go by express and the rate was more than $100.00. It will have to be replaced by a new one which means another big item. It was of the burglar-proof type and cost $1,200.00.

Decoration Day Observed.

The annual observance of Decoration Day, in commemoration of the memory of the heroes of 1861-'65, was appropriately observed by the people of Beaver and surrounding country Friday. The usual exercises were conducted and a large number of patriotic citizens joined in paying respect and tribute to our honored dead.

In the forenoon the procession was formed and advanced to the cemetery for the decoration of graves. The G. A. R. held their exercises at the graves after which the wreaths and bouquets were tenderly laid upon the last resting places of both the wearers of the blue and the wearers of the gray, by the Flower Girls, who were prettily attired in white and presented a beautiful appearance. In the decorating march the Old Soldiers were preceded by a band of little folks who strewed flowers in their pathway, as a token of love and veneration to the living while homage was paid to the dead.

There were plenty of flowers on hand and the entire service was beautifully and impressively carried out.

In the afternoon a literary program was given at the Christian church. It was fully up to the usual standard of excellence and entirely in accord with Beaver's characteristic method of doing things. Rev. L. L. Shaw delivered the address of the day and he made a splendid talk which was a pleasure to hear. The ring of true patriotism in every word he uttered was fully appreciated by the Old Boys. Editor W. F. P. Munsey, of the LaKemp Mirror, made an impromptu talk which was full of good thoughts and stirred the blood of his listeners. Editor Munsey is a forceful speaker and a true patriot. Miss Enid Miller entertained the crowd with one of her choice readings, which she knows so well how to render pleasingly. The exercises closed with short talks by the Old Soldiers. Music for the occasion was rendered by the Beaver Band and Court House Glee Club. It was stirring and such as would instill hope and love of country in the hearts of all.

Thus another milestone has been reached by the Grand Army of the Republic and the ranks grow thinner and thinner as the years advance. Soon, ah, too soon, the last one will have answered final roll-call, taps will sound and the bent forms and faltering steps will cease their daily vigils in the "land of the free and home of the brave" and be ushered into the presence of the Great Commander. God grant that they may be "mustered out" before that just tribunal and receive their "honorable discharge" which will entitle them to a home throughout eternity where wars are no more and the smoke of battle is displaced by the brilliancy of His dazzling beauty.

What It Would Cost to Re-build.

An estimate has been made on the cost of re-building the block just burned. If the owners of the twelve lots would unite in an effort at concerted action to make it a fireproof block.

Suppose that a uniform depth of 80 feet and that basements 8 feet high should be agreed upon. This would require an excavation of 80x300x8 feet—7111 cubic yards, at 10c—$711.11.

Basement foundation cement walls, 2 feet thick; 13 walls, 80 feet long—1040 feet. 2 walls 300 feet long—600—1640 feet; 2 feet thick—3280; 8 feet high—26240 cubic feet.

Main story cement walls, 1 ft. thick; 13 walls, 80 feet long—1040; 1 wall, 300 feet long—300—1340 cubic feet. 15 feet high—20100 cubic feet. A total of 46,340 cubic feet at 15c—$6951.00.

A total for the twelve buildings of $7,662.10. Or an average cost per building of $638.51.

The cost of completing each store would be the front, floor and roof, and thus each building would have large, ample cellage for storing goods and a fire wall would extend above the roof between each store and being thus protected insurance could be had at 1 per cent or less. The walls would carry another story when desired. Each owner could cement his basement or not as he chose.

A universal style of front could be selected and all twelve could be let out and the cost of the entire building ought not to exceed $1,000.00 per lot.

With such an improvement as the above we would rise Phoenix-like from our ashes with as handsome a block of business buildings as can be found in Western Oklahoma.

Can we unite in concerted action?

Additional Losses.

In making a report of the fire losses last week the HERALD inadvertently overlooked the loss of Dad Mansfield, who had all his pool room fixtures and tables destroyed and suffered a loss of about $600.00. The Beaver Mercantile Company also had a loss of their plate glass windows which is estimated at $300.00.

Nabs a Bootlegger.

Sheriff Johnny Jones ran in another bootlegger at Forgan Thursday. He caught Wm. Hardin with the wet goods after a lively chase in which Hardin tried to give him the slip but Johnny-on-the-spot, as usual, was too much for him and he now has headquarters at the county jail, awaiting trial.

Chamberlain--Gracy.

A pretty marriage ceremony was performed at the Court House Tuesday afternoon when Justice H. D. Meese joined in the holy bonds of wedlock Miss Rena Gracy and Gordon Chamberlain, both of the neighborhood south of Beaver.

These young people have many friends who wish them much joy and a long and happy wedded life. The HERALD joins in all good wishes and extends congratulations.

Blosser Will Revoked.

The contest suit brought by Mrs. Elizabeth Hibbs to annul the will in the Solomon Blosser estate was heard before County Judge Geo. H. Healy last week and resulted in a decision for the plaintiff. The will was revoked and F. A. Sharon, executor, given five days in which to render his report and ten days in which to make final settlement. The case was appealed to the District Court.
