MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Last Sunday, May 24th, was the day set apart for church services in memory of the soldiers of the Union, who gave their all—including their lives—that personal liberty and the Flag of Freedom should not be destroyed and blotted from the face of the earth forever. In every city, town and village people gathered to do honor to the men who died on the battle field, in hospitals and prison pens during that terrible war, and to hear again some part of the history of the deeds done by the heroes who now sleep so quietly and well on the battle fields in the south, and in the cemeteries all over the North and the South.

Memorial services in Beaver were held in the Presbyterian Church, which was crowded with an appreciative audience. Rev. Jaffrey, the Pastor, gave a splendid talk, full of historical and biographical information.

The choir and congregation sang some patriotic songs, and the choir gave some choice selections of memorial music. A quartette composed of Mrs. W. T. Quinn, Miss Edith Miles, W. T. Quinn and Elmer Fickel sang an anthem, "The Golden Gate," which was highly appreciated.

As the years go by it is to be expected that people will be less interested in Memorial Day. The great majority of those who were over twenty years old when the War of the Rebellion began, have crossed the Silent River. The history of that great conflict is only history to those who have grown to manhood and womanhood since 1860, and passes with them as "a tale that is told." Nearly fifty years have passed since the last act of the great drama was played at Appomattox. Only a few more years will circle round the green earth until the last man who took part in that four years of blood and death will have passed from life. And then Memorial Day will become a memory in fact, and the soldiers of the Rebellion will take their place, alongside the soldiers of the Revolutionary War, and will have become only a memory indeed.

8TH GRADE COMMENCEMENT.

Beaver 8th grade Commencement was held at the High School Auditorium May 19, 1914.

Those who received diplomas were Leo Seal, Clarence Tackett, Ross Wright, Irwin Moore, Basil Peckham, William Meese, Z-kie Rush, Ezra Evans, Lois Quinn, Bernice White, Enid Miller, Winnie Evans, Jessie Lusk, Gladys Haskell and Lawrence Walker of the Beaver school, and Frank Hoggsett, Lottie Hancock and Alma Brown of other districts who wished to receive their diplomas from Beaver.

Enid Miller represented the 8th grade class by a reading. Enid is an excellent reader and is known throughout No-Man's-land for her educational powers. For a child of her age Enid ranks as a first class reader.

Julia Maddox of the Senior Class of 1914 welcomed the 8th grade class into the High School. Her speech was short but very appropriate.

W. T. Quinn, one of the members of the Board of Education delivered the diplomas to the class and urged each to stay in school until the full four years course is completed. He made a good talk which was thoroughly enjoyed.

The graduates left the stage for a sent in front, and a play entitled "Timothy Delano's Courtship" was given by some of the High School students. The play was full of fun and each played the part of a star.

Cast of Characters.

Timothy Delano	Ezra Evans
Rick	Harold Loofbourrow
Allice	Esther Kile
Aunt Tabitha	Eva Green
Hillegarde	Mable Green

Music for the evening was furnished by the Girls Quartette, Lee Hulse and the Orchestra. The music was appropriate and well rendered and we thank them graciously for all help given to the Beaver school, and ask their support in the future.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

Rev. L. L. Shaw of the Christian Church delivered the sermon to the graduates of the Beaver High school May 17.

Rev. Shaw was at his best and delivered an able sermon, giving good advice and encouragement to the members of the class, who are just beginning their life work. He spoke highly of the school and encouraged the patrons to stand by the institution which makes noble men and women of the boys and girls. He urged mental as well as spiritual development and said that too much time and money could not be spent in any greater cause than in educating the youth of the nation.

SECOND ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT.

The Second Annual Commencement was held at the Beaver High School, May 22, 1914. It was one of the best ever held in Western Oklahoma.

The occasion was one of joy to the pupils of the school and the citizens of Beaver. The auditorium was decorated with Senior colors and house plants. The music furnished by the orchestra was excellent and the special musical numbers were heartily enjoyed.

Charles Miles delivered the Valedictory to his class and held his audience until each listened for the "Bugle Call." Charles had a good oration and deserves special mention for the manner in which he delivered it and for his excellent work the past two years. Miss Julia Maddox in her bright, cheerful way gave the Salutatory. Her subject, "Shine Your Heels," was catchy and was handled by Miss Julia with ease and grace. Her greeting to the parents and patrons was earnest and carried with it a touch of pathos. Julia is a hard working, pains-taking student and deserves all the praise given her. The class history by George Kile was a record of natural happenings at school and George read the record in a manner which interested his hearers and made them long for the dear old school days. Even the gray-headed listeners enjoyed the escapades of the young Americans of the Beaver high school class of 1914. Leon Hayden pictured the future of the class so well that none will forget, and no doubt in 1924 some of his prophecy will have come to pass and the class of 1914 will be filling the prominent places left vacant by those who have been called to higher stations. Leon is an honest, energetic boy and holds a place of high rank in the Beaver high school. Lewis Moore delivered the class poem well. His voice was clear and his articulation good. The little poem was just suited to Lewis and could not have been given by any other person in a more pleasing manner. Lewis has been in and he will be greatly missed next year. Misses Ethel Smith, Eula and Nellie McKillips furnished instrumental music for the evening and much praise must be given each. The girls have ever been willing to help with music and they will be much needed in the years to come. Their music is of high grade and well rendered. Messrs. Hulse and Dean sang a duet which was highly enjoyed by the audience. The boys have good voices and are always ready to render any service possible. Diplomas were delivered by Supt. Fellow. His speech was fitting and his manner pleasing. The graduates were given good thoughts which will be a help to them in after years. The Juniors, as all Juniors, played a trick upon the Seniors, placing the class of 1915 above that of 1914. It was clever and the audience enjoyed the trick and the yells as much as did the Juniors. This commencement will long be remembered in the Beaver schools for it was a success in every sense of the word.

Lee Gossney is re-papering and painting the Myrtle Bogue property this week. Clyde Gregg has rented the place and will take possession immediately.

J. F. Sturdevant, of Greasola, Okla., has been in Beaver for the past few days. Mr. Sturdevant is casting about for a location in which to establish a drug store.

W. H. Robertson has returned from a weeks sojourn on his farm in Colorado. Mrs. Robertson and son William motored to Liberal in their new Ford to meet him.

Miss Mayme Skinner of Balke, visited with her friend Miss Ethel Smith, a few days this week. She left Saturday for Alva, where she will attend the summer school at that place.

A jolly fishing party consisting of W. T. Quinn, Lynnn Russell, Elmer Fickel and their families spent a pleasant day Tuesday out on Six Mile. They report a splendid time and plenty of fish.

The L. T. L's held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon. About thirty of the younger generation were present. Grandma Savage was present and became an honorary member of the organization.

Jim Ware and wife, who have been making their home in Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Beaver last Saturday and visited several days with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bulick and other relatives. They expect to locate here permanently, and will make their home with their Aunt, Miss Ida Ware, who has a fine farm on the North Flats.

Rev. L. L. Shaw preached in the Christian Church at Gate last Saturday evening and Sunday morning. He delivered the Baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the Friends Academy Sunday evening.

Tom Drum of the Kiowa, was a Beaver visitor this week. Mr. Drum is a fine violinist, and he, together with the Beaver Orchestra, spent a most pleasant time Wednesday evening at the home of Frank Drum.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Russell drove over to Gate in the latter's new Ford last Sunday and attended services at that place both morning and evening. Bro. Shaw returned home with them.

Joe Shepherd, at one time a resident of Beaver, and who still owns a fine farm southwest of town, came in Tuesday from Idaho, where he has been for the past several years. He is here on a short business and pleasure trip.

County Superintendent and Mrs. Fellows went over to Forgan last evening and took the train this morning enroute to Gate where he will deliver the Commencement address to the graduates of the Friend's Academy tonight.

Misses Maude O. Thomas and Virginia Wickham left Tuesday morning for Clinton and Oklahoma City. Miss Wickham has been connected with the Beaver High School for the past two years. She will enter the State University at Norman this fall. Miss Thomas will return to Beaver Saturday.

Mrs. G. A. Heartly was called to Balke one day last week to the death bed of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Kimmel, who passed away on Saturday, May 23. The deceased was 24 years old and leaves a husband and two children, one aged 3 years and one only three days old, father, mother, four sisters and one brother. Interment was made in the Balke cemetery Sunday afternoon.

H. W. Long, adjuster for the Standard Insurance Company, was here Monday and together with the local representative, W. G. Fields, investigated the hail loss of Miss Lena Wright's wheat which was destroyed some two weeks ago. A most satisfactory settlement was effected and Miss Wright is one Beaver county farmer (or farmstress) who approves of hail insurance for growing crops. Miss Wright is particularly fortunate inasmuch as she had only taken out a policy a very few days previous to the hail storm. In fact, the wheat was destroyed the day following the receipt of her policy. With the present fine prospect for a crop, we fail to see where farmers can afford to chance it without insurance for, it looks now like hail was about the only thing that could destroy it.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

Whereas, God in His divine wisdom has seen fit to remove from the midst of his friends and family W. B. Wyand, the beloved father of our sister, Mary E. Quinn.

Be It Resolved, That we, in behalf of the Martha Aid Society, extend to her the sincere sympathy of each member thereof, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in THE BEAVER HERALD and a copy sent to Mrs. Quinn.

Through the dark and stormy night
Faith beholds a radiant light
Up the blackness streaking
Knowing God's own way is best
In a patient hope we rest
For the full day's breaking.

W. C. T. U. ITEMS.

Abbie B. Hillerman, state president, phoned from Woodward Monday that she had organized a union there with thirty-two members. She also said she was very sorry not to be able to fill her other appointments because of high water but would return later to organize Woodward county union and come here then. We had our Institute program ready for the printer but postponed it till we hear our president's definite date to be with us.

The W. C. T. U. at the Christian church on Tuesday as announced was an occasion of interest. Beautiful poems on flowers were read and commented upon. Plans were given to observe the birthday of the founder of this department, Jennie Cassady. All members and L. T. L's are to meet at our library June 9th at 5 p. m. to complete the work. The State, National and World's reports were read showing that thousands of dollars have been spent and numberless individuals and homes been cheered by the mission of love.

No need now to ask "Where is the public library?" The nicely painted sign calls for our thanks to Mr. Top Thomas whose skillful hand executed the work.

Most of the children who spoke in the first contest and some others are preparing for another. Look for the date soon.

We kindly ask those who have temperance songs or song books to report to the W. C. T. U. president. The Presbyterian church June 19th at 8 o'clock p. m. Subject—"Co-operation with Missionary Societies."

The L. T. L's held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon as usual. They had a large number out and enjoyed a most interesting meeting.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys
if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.
