Blue Grass Echoes.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Moyer was on the sick list last week but is now improving.

The S. W. Kansas Conference, to which Blue Grass class belongs, convened at Lyons, Kansas, March 12. Owing to Bro. Neff's illness he was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brean, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Woodward and daughter, Lulu and Miss Metta M. Woodward visited at the F. A. Stevens home last Sunday.

Fay Oakley, teacher of the Blue Grass school, who has been confined to his room the past two weeks with the mumps was sufficiently recovered to return to his own home Saturday evening. If he continues to improve school will open Monday, March 19th. So far none of the pupils have contracted the disease.

Messrs. A. V. Fuller, Frank Eades, and Alfred Petty were hauling corn from Laverne this week.

C. W. Adams has been hauling cement for the construction work on the township bridge near the Melone place.

Some rivalry has sprung up recently between the people near Madison and those on the north crossing over the location of the proposed bridge over the Kiowa.

Miss Myrie and Beryl Adams visited at the C. W. Adams home March 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Boren and little daughter went to Balke Tuesday. From there, Olin and Tom Roach and Tom Boren of Riverside, will take a trip to New Mexico where they hope to find the garden spot of the west. If they find a suitable location will probably locate. Several other parties have recently returned from New Mexico, and all are well pleased with the prospects out here.

F. A. Stevens is the most talked of man in this neighborhood (among the ladies.) As his wife, who was still ill, had not had the mumps and his eldest daughter, Velora, was the only one exposed, a neighbor very kindly invited her to their home while she enjoyed that pleasure. The other little daughter being still disabled from her recent injury received in the accident left Mr. Stevens chief cook and bottle washer, but he was equal to the emergency and furthermore proved his ability as a cook by not only exhibiting a row of pies but gave his guests a sample of his cookery and all pronounced it excellent. The appreciation expressed by the ladies has brought forth several other contestants for honors.

Alfred Petty returned last week from Selden, Kansas, where he visited relatives. On the way there he attended the Tractor show at Dodge City, Kansas.

The Mimes Quick entertained friends from near Speersmore, March 11.

A. L. Petty of Blue Grass, and N. Davis of Laverne, attended the stock show at Wichita, Kansas, last week.
