A. M. Burnam, noted auctioneer and broom corn buyer of some fame, held a sale of personal property at his farm today. He will move to Beaver to reside permanently. Mr. Burnam had contemplated moving to Wichita but when the time drew near to go, he couldn't leave old Beaver no he decided to locate here. A wise decision. Beaver has Wichita "skinned" as a place to live, anyway.

Mrs. Stncy Wells and daughter, Miss Mabel, arrived here Sunday for a few days visit with Mr. Wells and with friends and incidentally, to cast their ballots in the general election. They returned to Enid to cast their ballots in the general election. They returned to Enid Wednesday, where they are making their home where Miss Mabel is attending school. George Cafky drove over to Woodward to meet them upon their arrival.

Mrs. H. A. Walters of Guymon. Sister of County Agent Hanley, was called here Tuesday by the sudden death of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Hanley. She will remain for a few days at the Hanley home.

Miss Hazel McFarland, who has been attending business collee at Wichita, Kansas, the past month returned to her home here the first of the week and has resumed her work at Tracy's general store. She will not return to the city to complete her course.

Mrs. H. G. Butler, wife of the The big sale of lands and town Methodist minister here, returned lots, which have been advertised the past week from Wichita, Kanfor taxes in this paper the past sas, at which place she had been three weeks, is being held at the of that city. We are glad to recommencing Mouday.

Mrs. M. L. Davis and Mrs. L. A. Jessee of Supply, old friends and neighbors of County Agent and Mrs. Hanley, were here yesterday to attend the funeral of the little Hanley child. They arrived Tuesday night returning to their homes today.

W. H. Palmer, clerk in the Carter Tracy Hardware store, returned the first of the week from Florence Monday evening surprising her with a farewell party. They presented L. M. Larsen and wife. Miss Correct Miss Cor
