

The People's Journal.

THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1902.

Local and Personal.

July fourth will be a great day at Liberty.

C. H. Carpenter is announced for the Senate this week.

Dr. W. F. Austin will be in Pickens July 8th and 9th.

Born unto Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ragsdale on the 29th ult., a son.

Mountain parties are being arranged for trips of several days.

The friends of Mrs. James Hinnitt will be glad to learn that she is convalescing.

I. H. McCalla, of Lowndesville, Abbeville county, announces for Congress this week.

If you want to enter a bid for the construction of the new jail, read the advertisement herein and file the bid in due season.

The Summer term of Court will convene at Pickens the second Monday in July, the same being the fourteenth.

Several young people were entertained at a most pleasant social, Friday night last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Richey.

Dry winds during the past four days are not so favorable to vegetation. Some crops already give evidence of need of moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. White and son, Walter, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Scan, of Anderson, are visiting at the home of Mrs. N. E. Thornley.

Col. Henry T. Thompson and Mr. Lancaster, representing the New York Life Insurance Company, were in Pickens a few days last week.

Miss Fannie Hagood after a pleasant visit of two weeks at the summer home of Miss Anita Ambler returned to her home at Greenwood Saturday.

Pickens can accommodate a goodly number of summer visitors. Only let them let their wishes be known and their wants will be supplied.

Mrs. M. F. Hester is in Atlanta visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gresham. Mr. Hester went down to Atlanta also but returned after a short stay.

Mrs. G. W. Earle who has been quite sick for the past three weeks is rapidly improving and her friends hope to see her soon fully restored to accustomed health.

The Liberty Township Singing Association will meet with Union Baptist church on next Sunday July 6th. Everybody is invited to come and bring their song books and well-filled baskets.

W. F. Evatt, Sec.

We have received a communication from Table Mountain to which no name is signed, and can therefore not publish same under rules. We urge all correspondents please to sign their names to articles sent for publication.

Miss Sallie Hester who has been quite sick at the home of her uncle, W. A. Mauldin, at Easley is reported much improved. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hester of Stoneburg, Tex. have arrived in response to a telegram and are now with her.

The good people, the good democrats of Pickens, as elsewhere, will be expected to take care of the visiting candidates this year when they come around on their tours of the state. Citizens will be duly approached on this subject and it is expected that entertainment be provided for the candidates during their brief stay with us.

Geo. R. Koester who was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for South Carolina by the President but who failed of confirmation, announces that he will make no further fight to retain his office but will quietly step out at the end of the fiscal year. This appointment appears to be one of the mistakes made by Roosevelt which he recognizes and regrets. Meach Jenkins gets the job.

The Pleasant Grove Debating Society is on a boom. They meet every Saturday night at 7:30. The subject for July 5th is Resolved: "Whether England is Rising or Falling." Affirmative: H. M. Fortner, J. F. Rigdon, John Cox, Negative: A. B. Fortner, S. J. Loper, D. L. Barker. Any Society that wants to try us a pull writ to Secretary, A. B. Fortner, Mayfield, S. C.

Hon. Wm. N. Graydon, of Abbeville, was in Pickens during the past week. Mr. Graydon is a candidate for Congress from the third district, as his announcement this week will show. For the past four years he has been representing Abbeville county in the State Senate where his ability was recognized. He fearlessly advocated such measures as he deemed for the best interests of his people, and has the confidence of his own people and of people wherever he is known.

BROOKHITS FOR TWENTY YEARS.

Mrs. Minerva Smith, of Danville, Ill., writes: "I had bronchitis for twenty years and never got relief until I used Foley's Honey and Tar which is a sure cure." Bolt & Webb Pickens Chapman & Callahan Liberty.

A New Firm Organized.

These gentlemen have bought the entire stock of drugs, toilet articles and many other articles carried in a first-class drug store, and will continue to operate the business. The character and reputation of Drs. Bolt & Webb make a sufficient guarantee to the public that they will carry on a business worthy of the patronage and support of the general public.

Mauldin-Eaton.

On Wednesday evening, June 25th, at 9:40 o'clock, Capt. Ivy M. Mauldin, of Pickens, and Miss Vera Eaton, of Central, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. O. M. Abney officiating in the presence of only a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Mrs. Mauldin is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Ross Eaton, of Central, and is a young woman of accomplishments and numbers her friends by the score. Mr. Mauldin is a young lawyer, practicing at the Pickens Bar, and at present is one of the representatives from Pickens county in the General Assembly. They will make their home near Pickens.

The Summer School.

The Summer School for Pickens county has been in session since Monday the 16th ult. with Prof. H. B. Dominick, of Easley, as principal who teaches Arithmetic, Algebra and Geography and Prof. J. K. Owens, as Assistant, who teaches Grammar and Literature.

The Teacher-pupils are doing hard work having four recitations per day with Round-table talks on Tuesday and Friday evenings. These Teacher-pupils have no time for play, their hours are well occupied and generally all seem intensely interested in their work. Examinations are being talked of already.

Following is a list of the Teacher-pupils enrolled:

Misses Conyers Allen, Mame Ballentine, Cora L. Bowen, Margery Bowie, Hannah Bright, Janie Bright, Mary Chastain, Nita Clayton, Hester Cureton, Josie Earle, Milhe A. Foster, Ada Gillespie, Essie Gillespie, Lillie Gilstrap, Nora Gilstrap, Florence Hendricks, Ida Hendricks, Lenora Hendricks, Em C. Johnson, Mary Kirksey, Nannie Kirksey, Mary Lesley, Virginia Ligon, Lola Major, May McManahan, Olivia McHugh, Jennie M. McWhorter, Corinne E. Newton, Olive Boggs Newton, May Robinson, Nannie Roper, Hattie E. Wilson, Cecil Hester, Mrs. K. L. Curston, Mrs. S. T. McHugh, and Mrs. Essie E. Hughes.

Messrs. W. J. Berry, W. J. Chastain, W. T. Earle, J. M. En-triken, Elbert Fendley, John O. Field, B. F. Freeman, L. D. Gillespie, Christie Robinson, J. F. Williams, and Rev. C. L. McCain.

Observations of a Looker-on.

Something attractive must be at Pickens now, out of the usual order as we have visitors that are seldom seen here. Perhaps it is the Summer School.

Pickens county has some very attractive teachers attending the Summer School.

There are a good many interesting people to be seen about town, and they do not all bear the marks of the pedagogy.

Dr. James O. Rosemond of Brushy Creek, Anderson county, was in Pickens on the 28th ult. He was doubtless attracted to Pickens by some pretty young lady, since Pickens is out of his usual beat.

The days are extremely warm but the nights are pleasant enough. I guess as some of our young men spend half the nights out of town carrying their ladies to preaching and home again they get the pleasant part of the weather and are altogether getting the best of both weather and the pleasures incident to the Summer School.

Looker-on.

Ivy, an infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stansell, of Ambler, died on the 14th inst. and was buried the following day at Oolenoy Baptist church. The child was aged 9 months.

Calus Hall, son of W. Hall, is quite sick. That long looked for shower came along on the 12th inst. and was welcomed by all.

The Sunday School at Oolenoy is progressing. The older people ought to be more interested for this is a work for all. We were disappointed, through the inclemency of the weather, in our singing at Oolenoy.

Most of the people like to travel good roads, but they are being disappointed now. Gullies and holes in the place of good roads this way pinch candidates but it is true, J. D. S.

Stewart.

There is much sickness in this community.

Little J. Frank Mitchell, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mitchell, died at the home of his mother on the 17th inst., aged twelve years, eight months and seventeen days. God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to call the little one home. It is sad to part with loved ones. His presence is missed, his seat is vacant in their home, but his seat is not vacant in the heavens above. The angels saw fit to take him in their arms. Sweet little darling, light of the home, looking for some one beckoning came bright as the sunbeam, pure as the dew, anxiously looking mother for you.

He is not dead but asleep. He has gone to his home in glory where there is no more sickness, no more sorrow, no more death, May God bless his mother.

A FRIEND.

Woodsdale.

While I sit by my window this balmy afternoon and look abroad upon the fields and see the waving corn and hear the many voices as they echo over the hills. I know there are many hearts that throb with thankfulness to the Great Giver of all gifts on account of the recent rains and the fair prospects for the future crops.

The golden wheat harvest was very short.

It seems that everything has put on new life since the rains. At every glance we see where nature displays beauty and grandeur. The tall oaks, with their wide spreading foliage, adorn the hills like a beautiful crown, draperies waving like banners unfurled to the breeze, the birds answer back in music to those loving tones of nature, all make men feel happy, giving us joy and promoting love and gratitude to the One who fashioned this green earth, a gift of fragrant flowers and vines as emblems of peace and security. It seems that nature has done her best to see in what dazzling beauty she could deck the world.

Why should not our earth be a paradise when filled with such objects fitted to entertain and refresh so delightfully.

What a paradise was here upon earth when Solomon reigned in Jerusalem and sang of the Rose of Sharon, and what a heaven will be here when life that sitteth on the throne shall appear, for in his day shall the righteous flourish and peace abound so long as the moon endureth.

Lenhardt.

After eight weeks of dry weather our hearts were made glad by the welcome rain which came last Sunday. Corn had turned yellow, cotton had almost stopped growing but now everything looks promising.

R. F. Lenhardt has the champion cotton in this section.

Mrs. B. D. Lenhardt had roasting ears on the 20th inst., and your scribe has been enjoying beets and beans since June 10th.

Mr. Elbert Perry has bought a new reaper. Mr. Perry is one of our most successful farmers and grows large quantities of sweet potatoes, beans and cabbage which bring ready cash. He also has one of the finest fruit farms in Pickens county, where he grows large quantities of peaches, pears, apples, cherries and quinces. It is always a fine treat to visit his beautiful home where you can always find plenty of welcome and something nice to eat and good clever people to chat with.

Wheat is harvested and mostly under shelter, but we would feel better if we had only made a full crop.

Miss Nannie Roper will teach the Lenhardt school again this summer.

Mr. Oler Chapman, of Mica, visited his brother Saturday and Sunday. He says crops are in fine condition in his community.

Our Sunday school is coming on nicely. We are talking of a big picnic sometime later in the summer about which we will tell you more later.

The roller mill about which I wrote some time ago is going to be a cotton mill. The work is getting on nicely of getting out rock. It is said that work will commence about August 1st to build the mill, then we will be in sight of three cotton mills within four miles of each other.

Claud, the 10 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Chapman had the misfortune to get his leg broken on the 11th inst., the limb was set by Drs. Wyatt and Russell. He is getting on nicely at this writing.

War Tax off This Week.

The revenue repeal act, which removes all that is left of the war tax, goes into effect on the first of July, the beginning of the fiscal year. On that date the internal revenue laws will return to the point at which they were at the beginning of the Spanish-American war.

At the commencement of hostilities, congress, in the endeavor to increase the revenues of the government commensurate with the increased expenses caused by the enormous outlay in conducting the war, raised the tax on all things already taxed and taxed things that had been from the time of the removal of the same after the great civil war.

One year ago the tax on beer was reduced from $2 a barrel, with a discount of 7 1-2 per cent making it $1.85 per barrel with no discount. On the first of July the tax will be $1 a barrel.

The stamp tax on checks, bills of lading, express receipts, telegraph messages and warehouse receipts was repealed last year. There was left a small fraction of the stamp taxes on broker's contracts, drafts and bills of exchange all these are now wiped out.

Similar action has been taken in regard to cigars, which are put back substantially to the old rates. On manufactured tobacco the tax will be reduced from 9 6 10 to 6 cents per pound.—Daily Mail.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and retold by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory result. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by G. W. Earle Druggist.
