THE PALMETTO REGIMENT.—The vote of the Golden Light Infantry, in the election for colonel of the Palmetto Regiment, held on Wednesday morning, stood as follows: Captain R. N.
Richbourg, 37; Captain J. O. Marshall, 3. We have heard no returns from the other companies.

How to Measure an Acre.—The following table may prove of value to some of our farmers in laying off tasks for their hands:

There are 160 square rods in an acre, and there are 302 square yards in one rod. This gives 4,840 square yards in one acre.

5 yds wide by 368 yds long is 1 acre.
10 yds wide by 184 yds long is 1 acre.
20 yds wide by 92 yds long is 1 acre.
30 yds wide by 61 yds long is 1 acre.
40 yds wide by 46 yds long is 1 acre.
50 yds wide by 36 yds long is 1 acre.
60 yds wide by 27 yds long is 1 acre.

Again, allowing 9 square feet to the rod, 2724 square feet to the rod, 43, 560 square feet to the acre, and we have another table:

110 feet by 369 feet, 1 acre.
120 feet by 363 feet, 1 acre.
220 feet by 198 feet, 1 acre.
240 feet by 181 feet, 1 acre.
440 feet by 90 feet, 1 acre.

—Leave your orders with Caldwell & Lauderdale for standard Fertilizers, Wando and Saluda Guanos, Acid, Kainit, &c.

DEATH OF LOUIS LECONTE.—The telegram brings the news of the death of Louis LeConte, Esq., formerly of Columbia, and well known in Winns-boro. Three years ago, finding his health failing, and following the advice of friends, he removed to Denver, Colorado, hoping that the fine climate would benefit him. He engaged in the practice of his profession for a short while, but was compelled to abandon it, and then went to South Pueblo. Here, on Monday last, he breathed his last; in the thirty-fourth year of his age. Mr. LeConte was universally esteemed. As a lawyer he had already achieved distinction. He took an active part in the proceedings which resulted in the establishment of the lawful government of the State in 1876-77. He was afterwards assistant attorney-general under General James Comer, and did good service in the prosecution of Carpenter, Cardozo and others of the Radical criminals. In 1879, he was retained in the case of F. Elder & Co. vs. The U. C. & A.
Railroad Company, and his argument before the Supreme Court was remarked as an exceptionally able and exhaustive production. Mr. LeConte's untimely death will be deeply mourned by numbers of admirers all over South Carolina.

ITEMS FROM FEASTERVILLE.

—Mad hog reported at Mr. T. P.
Carll's.

—The traveling public is indebted to the little-spirited enterprise of J. B. Crosby & Co., for establishing a ferry across the mouth of Tiger river.
Won't these gentlemen kindly try their skill on that refractory flat at Strother?
If so, let them be decreed a monument of everlasting brass, of which we tender our due proportion!

—Mr. B. C. Busby, just returned from Pomaria, in the southeastern portion of Newberry county, reports as quite encouraging the agricultural prospects of that section. Pomaria, found in Horace, and meaning "apple orchards," is indebted for its beautiful name to the classic taste of the late famous William Sumner of Winnsboro.

—To the memory of Willie, oldest son of William J. and Hattie Shelton, who died of yellow fever, Monday, February 12. Willie, we understand, was a bright, active little lad; but then "Death seeks a shining mark."
"shall I live again but the yellow leaf, Have naught but the golden glow."
The Lord hath need for the floweret gay, And He found him in the shed."

We are all but gardeners. If, then, the Master coming should pluck a beautiful flower for His tender bosom, why should we grieve?
"Peace! come away; the song of woe Is after all an earthly song."
Peace! come away; we do Him wrong To grieve so wildly; let us go.

—Having hitherto piped for the delectation of the oldsters we now beg to tender our condolences to the younger people with the following problems:

1. A wishes to purchase 110 animals and fowls worth $110. The cows are $20 each; hogs, $5; sheep, $2; lambs, $1.25; turkeys, 70 cents; geese, 50 cents; ducks, 40 cents; chickens 25 cents. How many of each shall he purchase?

2. A and B together purchased a tract of land for $400; of which each pays $200. There being some difference in quality, A agrees to take the better portion to the value of his $200, and pay fifty cents per acre more than B for his. What shall each pay per acre? and how many acres shall each purchase?

Solutions addressed to D. B. Busby, Feasterville, S. C., will receive polite attention; and the names of those successful will be published at the end of the month. Come, young friends, try your skill.

That notorious flat at Strother is still at the bottom of the river. One of our citizens, passing into Newberry a few days since, after a ride of thirtyteen miles to cross at that point, had to make a detour of several miles to complete his journey. Few of us, it is true, have ever had occasion to use that ferry in forty years; but, now, since it has

"Gone glimmering 'midst the dream of things that were,"
"we rack its value," each man, woman and child of us having the most lively, unavailable presentiments of standing in immediate and constant need of it.
What are we to do? To swim, we are not able; and to wade—we are ashamed.
Let it be resolved what we shall do—get out a chrome "The Babies cry for it," after the manner of Castoria manufacturers, and each and every one, to the full ability of his vocal apparatus, continue yelling to the loud-resounding echoes of the road commissioner's resurrecting horn until that flat, a small sight of which it is now thought would prove a very healing balsam to the rheumatic eyes of traveling people, is yanked bodily from its oozy bed, anointed with St. Jacob's Oil for its many great infirmities, and sent speeding on its errand in the interest of the traveling public. Can't some financial genius amongst us—some G. B.—invent the "ways and means" for a bridge at that point? The banks, river-bed and approaches all seem favorable. The chrono would no doubt assist him too. Among the Andes, travelers cross in baskets swung to ropes across the streams; in Asiatic countries the same sit astride the shoulders of the wading ferryman; Bacon Munchausen invented a large cannon to shoot him across; whilst Sindbad, the renowned sailor, accomplished his locomotion over troublesome obstacles by tying himself to the leg of a Roc, a species of moony bird found in the East. It is true, these are the methods of a rather advanced civilization; nevertheless, in this great emergency, we beg to suggest their introduction for the benefit of the traveling public.

THE OUTRICK MILL.

Formal Opening of the Spring Campaign of Federal Persecution.

[Correspondence of the News and Courier.] COLUMBIA, February 27.—The usual Republican campaign of persecution has begun, and from this time forth the Administration will prosecute its annual war on South Carolina. Attorney-General Brewster has to-day three active agents at work in the State: District Attorney Melton, Assistant District Attorney Willard, formerly a Chief Justice of South Carolina, and Assistant District Attorney William Penn Snyder, an apt pupil of his virulent master. Melton is supervising the thing, the Willard and Snyder are doing the dirty work, which is in this instance spying, inciting complaints and initiating prosecutions.

Yesterday J. W. Aughtery and J. H.
Martin, supposed to be white Green-backers of Fairfield county, appeared before United States Commissioner John Bauskett, in this city, and swore out warrants against James Herron, John Murray Kirkland, Samuel Stafford Curry, Thomas McGill, Jr., James McGill, Joseph McMeekin, Joel Mc-Meekin, Nicholas Peay and Thomas Aiken for violating at the last election Section 5,440 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, by conspiring to commit an offence against the United States in refusing to assist Deputy Marshals Aughtery and Martin when called upon to do so. Deputy Marshal Aughtery also swore out a warrant against James Herron for assaulting him at the polls. All the parties live near Monticello, Fairfield county.

These ten warrants are now in the hands of Commissioner Bauskett. The accused persons will of course present themselves for an examination, which will probably be had this week. Commissioner Bauskett has been directed by the attorney-general to hear testimony on both sides if the accused so desire. For this graciousness of Brew-ster's they will doubtless be duly thankful. More warrants will be sworn out on equally frivolous charges. As predicted last night, Melton, Willard and Snyder are beginning to do their open work. They have been waiting for some time. Willard and Snyder are now in Columbia.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Not Too Suddenly.

Norman's Neutralizing Cordial does not act as an antacid, alone, checking, by suddenly, but reduces inflammation and acidity of the secretory membranes of the bowels, thereby bringing them to healthy action.

Offered Fifty Cents Extra.

Mr. J. W. Harvey, Long Creek, S. C., says: I have been selling Norman's Neutralizing Cordial the last three years. It gives universal satisfaction, and its sales are increasing. A gentleman from Georgia offered me 50 cents over the regular retail price for a dozen bottles if I would get them for him immediately.

CANARY SEED.

Also Mixed Bird Seed, just received and for sale at the Drug Store.

PIANOS & ORGANS

On the One Price System.

ONE UNIFORM PRICE TO ALL, AND THAT THE LOWEST KNOWN.

The usual system of selling Pianos and Organs is for the dealer to charge any price he may get for them without regard to either a fair profit or the customer's interest.
But we are pleased to say that this has been our method of selling.

For the benefit of purchasers and to secure them the full value of their money, we established at the outset of our business, twelve years since,

THE ONE PRICE SYSTEM, and to this we attribute our immense and prosperous trade. Selling on this square basis, renders imperative that the price be the very lowest one that can be given.

We are pledged to this. We always have done it, and we always will do it. It is our great and only principle. No other Piano and Organ House deals on this principle.

Our prices, in plain figures, are placed on every instrument. A child can buy as low as a man. All other "low" prices have "high" prices and give discounts.

The "One Price" system saves time in trading, and is the only satisfactory way to buy and sell; for, on the high price and discount system, even though the customer buys, he is not sure that he has bottom prices.

ADVICE TO PIANO AND ORGAN BUYERS.

Buy quick. Why? Because an advance in price is almost certain. Pianos and Organs are on a boom. The demand exceeds the supply. All the factories are behind orders. Dealers with cash in hand cannot get instruments as fast as wanted.
Prices of material and labor are everywhere rising. The present low prices of Pianos and Organs cannot continue, and will not again be in the next few years. Those who buy now will save money. Large contracts have been made with manufacturers will enable us to guarantee present prices until January 1st, 1883. A fact that we can promise nothing delays are dangerous. Magnificent stock now on hand. Seven Grand Makers. Over 200 different styles now in our warehouses.
Pianos, Pianos, Pianos. Beautiful Organs and Accordion. Easiest Instalment Terms. Sent on trial. Every instrument that any responsible House can offer. Competition with the world. Don't fail to send for our Catalogues and full Price Lists, 1883.
