A Negro Comes Back to Prison After Thirty Years.

On Tuesday Police Officer Nebens of Fort Mill brought to the penitentiary here a negro named Hollis Truesdale, who was convicted in 1872 in Lancaster county of breaking into a store at Fort Lawn and was sentenced to 18 months in the State penitentiary. He served four months and then escaped. The owner of the store saw Truesdale, recognized him, and had him arrested. Since his escape 30 years ago the negro has been living at Fort Mill and bears a good reputation.—The State.

SENATOR TILLMAN SAYS IT IS "FOOLISH."

Takes Absolutely no Head in Gubernatorial Contest.

Special to The State.

Trenton, July 29.—There appeared in the Atlanta Constitution yesterday a telegram from Charleston saying that in the gubernatorial race factional lines were being drawn and that Senator Tillman was using his influence in behalf of Talbert and J. H. Tillman, as against Hyward, "whose candidacy," the dispatch said, "was not sanctioned by Senator Tillman."

Today your correspondent called on Senator Tillman at his home here in regard to the story in The Constitution. When he read the article, the senator remarked: "It is a piece of newspaper work that is made when no news can be found. It is the most absurd thing I ever heard that Heyward should get a sanction to run for governor. Any man is free to enter the race and I have nothing to do with it. It is the biggest piece of foolishness I ever heard of."

The senator went on to say that the old lines of demarcation of Tillman and anti-Tillman had been obliterated. Men were supporting him now, who used to be antagonistic. Continuing he said: "I have gained more friends than I have lost and in this campaign no candidate will be voted for or against by either of the old factions. I am only drawing lines when I see a Republican disguised as a Democrat who has the impudence to enter the Democratic primary."

Continuing the senator said he had nothing to say or do with any of the candidates in their respective races. This was positive and final.
