

MARRIED ON THE TRAIN.

Ceremony Witnessed by Many Who Chanced to be at Station.

Many people who chanced to be at the railway station on Wednesday when the 2 o'clock train came in had the pleasure of witnessing a marriage on the Charleston bound train. The contracting parties were Mr. W. Conroy Hughes of Ware Shoals and Miss Mary Riddle of Owings Station. Mr. Hughes together with the Rev. J. T. Taylor of Ware Shoals, who performed the ceremony, came in on the train from Greenwood, arriving about five minutes before the arrival of the Spartanburg train, which bore the bride-elect. Miss Riddle, who has been visiting her sister in Spartanburg, came from that city in company with her sister and two friends. They were met by Mr. Hughes and together they repaired to train No. 33 and, standing in the aisle of the car, in the presence of many interested onlookers they were made husband and wife. The couple went directly to Charleston, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mr. Hughes is a rural mail carrier at Ware Shoals and Miss Riddle is the daughter of Mr. J. J. Riddle, one of the largest farmers of the county.

Increased Freight Receipts.

While such items are not given out for publication, it was by chance that a very interesting remark was heard on the streets a few days ago; one that is quite significant, especially in these imagined "hard times." It is said that the freight receipts for the month of October at the Laurens depot were $14,000 in excess of the receipts for October of last year; and while this does not necessarily mean that the merchants of the city are selling more goods, it does mean that they are buying more, and that in itself is a significant fact.

New Pastor at Watts Mills.

Brother J. A. Brock, who has been attending school in Williamston and serving Warrior Creek church, Laurens Association, has been called to the Watts Mills church, Laurens Association, and expects to move his family to Laurens in January, and devote his full time to these two churches.—Baptist Courier.

Farmers' Union Notice.

The Laurens local farmers' Union held an enthusiastic meeting on Saturday afternoon the 6th. There was strong feeling against the Union, and that there should be a county meeting something during the month to consider the question of fertilizers and for other purposes.

The business part of this Union was instructed to go to Columbia next Wednesday to attend a meeting of representatives of the Union from the various sections of the State that will convene for conference upon matters of interest to the Union.

All members are urged to come out on next Saturday at 3 p. m., at the usual meeting place.
