

MEMORIAL ERECTED TO SOLDIER'S HONOR

Musgrove Mills Chapter,
D. A. R., Hold Exercises
REVOLUTIONARY HERO

With Appropriate Ceremonies, Stone
Slab is Placed at Grave of Joe Griffin at Hopewell.

Clinton, Oct. 4.—Last Wednesday the members of the Musgrove Mills chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, with a number of invited guests gathered at Hopewell graveyard in lower Laurens county to do honor to the memory of a gallant revolutionary soldier, Joe Griffin. The occasion of the gathering was the erection of a memorial stone furnished by the national organization. These stones, by the way, are furnished by the Daughters of the Revolution for the grave of any revolutionary soldier, and it is urged that any such grave in this county not marked be reported to the chapter here or at Laurens. The exercises last Wednesday were simple but impressive. Mrs. John C. Davis as regent of the chapter presided. The Rev. J. E. Mahaffey delivered an excellent address. Mrs. Mattie East Bell, a great-granddaughter of Joe Griffin, gave a talk which delighted all present expressing the gratification this honor afforded the family. Mrs. Bell was present at the deathbed of her great-grandfather and was able to tell a number of interesting anecdotes about him. A number of his direct descendants were present and noteworthy among them was Mrs. Fannie Monroe of Goldville, who has the honor of being one of the few living "real daughters of the revolution" in America. Mrs. Monroe is a most remarkable woman and seems good for many years of life yet. There were some notable housekeepers present and they spread a bountiful old-time picnic dinner in the grove after the memorial exercises were concluded.

The Daughters of the Revolution are planning to do a good work in Clinton. They have arranged a course of study of revolutionary history and a series of social meetings for the current year, and a number of new members have been attracted by this. The local chapter will be represented at the King's mountain celebration by Mrs. John C. Davis, Mrs. J. L. Phillips, and perhaps other members.

The members of the Stephen D. Lee chapter U. D. C. are also active and energetic. At a meeting last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. Z. Wright the annual election of officers was held. Mrs. W. B. Owens was made president; Mrs. J. I. Copeland, first vice-president; Mrs. Butler H. Boyd, second vice-president; Mrs. W. H. Shands, secretary; Mrs. A. E. Spencer, treasurer.

The Civic league will hold its regular meeting next Friday afternoon. This organization is now "parking" the public square, getting it ready for the Confederate monument.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society gave a 'possum and turkey dinner and oyster supper in the city hall last Thursday which was entirely successful, the profits being between seventy and seventy-five dollars.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society is making extensive preparations for the bazaar which will be held this year on the tenth and eleventh of November. The proceeds this year will be devoted to the pipe organ fund. Miss Corinne Bailey was hostess last Friday afternoon at a meeting of the fancy work committee. This committee is hard at work and will meet again this afternoon with Mrs. George Phillips and Mrs. Audie. They are accumulating a variety of pretty articles suitable for Christmas gifts.
