THE SOCIAL SIDE OF MOUNTVILLE LIFE

Teachers Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Simmons—Coming up for the Oratorical Contest.

Mountville, April 18.—Last Wednesday evening the teachers of Mountville were very pleasantly and delightfully entertained at tea by Mr. and Mrs. John M. Simmons. The teachers present were: Misses Nellie Miller, Mary Martin, Marie Stokes, and Mr. W. P. Culbertson. Other guests were also present as follows: Misses Julia and Annie Fellers, Grace Cook, Carry Goodman, Mrs. Ellen Culbertson and Mrs. Mary Cluck. The occasion was one full of pleasure for the weary teachers and all present enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent. Mrs. Simmons proved herself an excellent hostess while Mr. Simmons showed no lack of the characteristics which make a genuine host.

Mr. J. Wade Culbertson and daughter, Eula of the Poplar Springs section spent a portion of last week with relatives here. Wade is one of our famous bridge builders and while here Friday he was awarded the contract for building a new bridge on Little river at Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Haltiwanger of Columbia are here on a week's visit to the former's sister, Mrs. J. L. Fellers.

Mr. Frank Boyd, who went to Florida several months ago, returned Saturday. He is just up from a spell of sickness and did not care to risk a longer stay in a malarial climate.

Quite a number of our people expect to attend the Declaimers' contest next Friday evening. Mr. Robert Thornton will represent Mountville in the contest.

A fine rain fell here Saturday night and farmers are more hopeful. Everybody rejoices that the five weeks drought is at an end. Planting will now be pushed to the finish.

Auto-graphs.

"What's horse sense, pa?"
"Horse sense, my son, is what makes a horse shy at an automobile."
"But they speak of men having horse sense, pa?"
"Sure. Don't some men shy at automobiles?"

Since I have a motor car
We're never asunder;
Half the time I'm in it—
And half the time under.

Some cars sound a siren strain,
Some cars loudly toot,
Some cars whistle warnings plain,
And some moan like a flute—
But others, silent as the grave,
Sneak up and spread you o'er the pave.

Manufacturer: And so you would like to be an automobile salesman? Do you possess imagination, eloquence and persistence enough to fit you for such a position?

Applicant: Sir, I used to be a piano salesman.
He was engaged.

One of the first steam carriages made in 1770 by Nicholas Joseph Cugnot, is still preserved in Paris.

In England 24 years ago a steam automobile was used which had the singularly appropriate name of "The Autopsy."

"Does your automobile earn its upkeep?"
"I suppose so. I know I don't."

The word "automobile" is from the Greek "autos," self, and the Latin word "mobilis," movable.

"Are you going to get a new hood for your car?"
"Can't get to buy a new hood for my wife"—Exchange.

WEDDING AT CLINTON TOMORROW.

Miss Mary Little to Become Bride of Mr. Mack Hipp.

Clinton, April 18.—Much interest has been aroused by the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Hunter Little, daughter of Mr. T. H. Little, to Mr. Mack H. Hipp of Abbeville. The marriage will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents Thursday morning at 11 o'clock and will be witnessed by a small gathering of relatives and intimate friends. They will leave at once for Abbeville.

Miss Little has been for a number of years chief operator of the telephone exchange and has been most efficient. She has many warm friends who regret that she will make her home elsewhere. Mr. Hipp is a successful merchant in Abbeville.

Among the evidences of the bride's popularity have been several showers, teas, and dinners. Mrs. J. I. Copeland invited a number of her friends to a hose shower last Wednesday on which occasion some lovely footwear was added to her trousseau. Mrs. Whitman Smith was hostess on Monday afternoon at a delightful "miscellaneous shower." Misses Mollie Davidson and Lou Illa McMillan joined in inviting some of their friends to a kitchen shower Saturday afternoon.
