MORE INFORMATION ABOUT OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL QUESTIONS

The International Press Bible Question Club is affording the opportunity and stimulus for everybody, either at home or in classes, to study the International Sunday School Lessons. The Adult Bible Class Movement has brought together thousands of men who study the Bible in classes every Sunday, but the I. P. B. Q. C. with its "Suggestive Questions," lays out for them a most fascinating lot of questions to discuss and at the same time affords the opportunity for the still larger number, who do not attend Sunday School, to profitably study the lessons at home.

We are glad to report that our effort to enlist the masses in Bible study is being appreciated by our best people; words of encouragement are being freely said in favor of the work we have undertaken. Pastors, Sunday School workers, and others, interested in Bible study, are giving us much encouragement. But this we expected; we did not, however, expect our "Suggestive Questions" would so interest non-churchgoers. This is an agreeable surprise, and it is very encouraging. From what we have learned, we shall not be surprised if non-churchgoers capture some of the best prizes.

We advise everybody to study these questions right along, so as to be ready to enter the contest with the lesson for Sunday December 10th. If you are not a subscriber to The Advertiser send in your subscription on the attached coupon.

the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Lesson for Sunday, Oct. 22nd, 1911. The Foundation of the Second Temple Laid. Ezra. iii:1-iv:5.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

WINNING LAURELS ABROAD.

Gifted Laurens County Woman Scoring a Success in Western College.

The many friends of Miss Lillian Putnam, who is a native of this county and who is so pleasantly remembered by a large circle of friends, will be glad to read what one of the papers of Lexington, Mo., said about her at the time of her first appearance in public there. Miss Putnam, it will be remembered, joined the faculty of Lexington Female College this year. Rev. C. Lewis Fowler, who is president of this college, in looking around for one to fill the professorship of Higher English, selected Miss Putnam from his native state so as to be sure of obtaining a teacher who was known to be equal to every requirement. About the reading which Miss Putnam gave, the Lexington News had the following to say:

The auditorium at Lexington College was packed Monday evening when Miss Lillian Putnam, reader, and Miss Ruth J. L. Robbins, pianist, gave Tennyson's touching romance, "Enoch Arden."

Both of these women are artists in their line and they held their audience throughout the evening. Perhaps no more complimentary thing could be said than that the response of the audience was as heartily and cheerfully given as it was possible for it to be.

Miss Putnam was good in the lighter parts and the heavier more pathetic parts alike. She shows that breadth and finish of training that makes a reader eagerly heard.

In answer to the applause at the close of the program Miss Putnam read Tennyson's last poem and the one he requested should be sung at his funeral and should be appended to all volumes of his poetry, "Crossing the Bar."

The News takes the liberty of extending to Miss Putnam and Miss Robbins and to Lexington College the thanks of the community for a delightful evening.

AVERT AWFUL TRAGEDY.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" coughs and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Laurens Drug Co. and Palmetto Drug Co.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas God in His infinite love and wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our co-worker and member, Sister Emma Madden, and whereas it was always a source of great pleasure for her to meet with us as long as she was physically able, Therefore be it resolved by the Women's Missionary Society of New Prospect:

First, That the removal of such a life from among us leaves a vacancy and shadow, that is realized by each member of this society.

Second, That the memory of her gentle life will ever be an inspiration to all of us who knew and loved her.

Third, That our sympathy be extended to her loved ones, that a page in our minute book be inscribed to her memory and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to her bereaved family, a copy to the Laurensville Herald and the Laurens Advertiser for publication.

The Return From the Captivity. Ezra. 1:1-11:11:64-70.

Golden Text—He retaineth not his anger forever, because he delighteth in mercy. Micah, vii:18.

(1.) Verses 1-2—Who was King Cyrus and what were his character and achievements?

(2.) Where were the Jews as a people at the opening of this lesson, and what were the circumstances which took them there?

(3.) How do you account for it that Cyrus, immediately when he began to reign over Babylon decided to release the Jewish captives and to rebuild the Temple at Jerusalem?

(4.) What reason can you assign for a king, not a Jew, having such a direct message from God?

(5.) If the religious history of every nation from the beginning of time could be fully known, should we have in essence a repetition of Bible history?

(6.) Verses 3-4—What class of people do we depend on chiefly, to build churches and support missionaries?

(7.) What motive does Cyrus appeal to, for building the Temple at Jerusalem?

(8.) What good is accomplished by the vast sums of money spent in building and supporting churches?

(9.) If all people are obligated to give money to support the cause of religion, what is the least they should give?

(10.) Verses 5-6—Are ministers today under obligation to take the lead by precept and example in religious enterprises, without waiting for any special spiritual leading?

(11.) When persons willingly help in God's cause, are they without exception, "them whose spirit God had raised?"

(12.) When we undertake giving or doing for the cause of God, why is it safe to conclude that God specially appointed us thereto?

(13.) Verses 7-11—What in brief, were the circumstances which brought the gold and silver vessels to Babylon from the first Temple at Jerusalem?

(14.) When a man gives lavishly of precious treasure to the cause of God is that always, or generally, a proof of his love for God?

(15.) Chap. II Verses 64-70—What number of people returned to Jerusalem, and what was the number originally carried away to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar? (See 2 Kings xxiv:14.)

(16.) What were the religious and financial conditions of the people when they were originally deported, and when they returned?

(17.) What general effort had their captivity had upon them?

(18.) Which ministers more to the character of the average man, prosperity or adversity? (This is one of
