COUNTY CAMPAIGN
AT CROSS HILL

Dr. Miller in his Home Town was the General Favorite Receiving Flowers. Cross Hill, S. C., Aug. 10.—There was a good crowd here today to greet the candidates. Cross Hill people turned out pretty well. A good many ladies being present. There were a great many here from Mountville and Waterloo also. Mr. W. B. Fuller called the meeting to order and introduced the speakers. Candidates for county commissioners came first, then clerk of court, sheriff, auditor, and legislaturemen and senate last. A recess of one hour was taken for dinner. A barbecue dinner was served. Two candidates for the legislature spoke before dinner, the others after dinner. The candidates all had a respectful hearing and there were no interruptions. Candidates declared themselves for Jones or Bleas as at other meetings. All the candidates were here except Mr. Curry and Mr. Bailey. The crowd was in the best of humor and there was nothing to indicate a choice of candidate. Most of them received applause when they closed. Dr. Miller was in his home town and was deservedly a favorite. He received a beautiful bouquet of flowers. The meeting here today was one of the largest the candidates have met since the Laurens meeting. This correspondent has heard it estimated that Jones would lead here for governor by 2 to 1, some think 5 to 1. Dr. Miller will get practically all the votes here.

SUNDAY SCHOOL QUESTIONS.

(Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

The Ruler's Daughter. Mark v:21-43. Golden Text—And he took the damsel by the hand and said to unto her, Talitha cumi, which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee arise. Mark v:41.

(1.) Verse 21—What were the attractions in Jesus which drew the multitude to him?

(2.) Verse 22—When a great man is in trouble does he crave help and sympathy the same as common people? Give your reasons.

(3.) Verse 23—When our little children are sick and likely to pass into a land of conscious bliss how ought our feelings to be affected? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(4.) Most of the rulers of the Jews were antagonized to Jesus. It is possible that Jairus would have been but for his trouble, and in any event what is the general influence of a great sorrow upon a man's trust in Jesus?

(5.) Is such confident faith that Jairus had natural or supernatural, and why?

(6.) Verse 24—Jesus in those days responded to every call for help. What reason have we to know that he is now equally responsive to every call?

(7.) When we are in trouble what do we need to do to get adequate help from God?

(8.) Verses 25-28—What is the best thing for a woman who is afflicted with a chronic disease to do?

(9.) Did this woman have true faith or was her faith mixed with superstition? Give your reason.

(10.) Many truly good people who trust in God are also full of superstition. What effect does this weakness have upon God's dealings with them?

(11.) May sick people today have the same simple faith of bodily healing that this woman had and be healed? Give your reasons.

(12.) Verses 29-34—Was it the mere touch of Jesus garment that healed her or conscious effort on the part of Jesus? Why?

(13.) Was there, or not, and why, any more virtue in Jesus' garment in itself than in that of any other man?

(14.) How did Jesus know, with so many people jostling him, of the particular touch of this woman?

(15.) What is the ground for the belief that God is aware of every thought, word and act of every individual?

(16.) When we open up our hearts to God and make him our confidential friend what are always the results?

(17.) Verses 35-36—When matters are as black as night and our troubles seem beyond remedy why is it still safe to be of good courage and to have faith?

(18.) Verse 37—Why is it that there are only certain persons we can work with effectively, while others, equally good people, are a hindrance to us?

(19.) Verses 38-43—What can you say for or against profuse weeping and elaborate mourning emblems at the funerals of Christians?

One-won! One product and one purpose—that's why the FORD has won. All Fords are alike—except the bodies. We have focused our effort upon the making of one good car—and the consequent big production has battered the selling cost down to a minimum.

Seventy-five thousand new Fords go into service this season—proof of their unequalled merit. The price is $590 for the roadster, $690 for the five passenger car, and $700 for the delivery car—complete with all equipment, f. o. b. Detroit. Latest catalogue from Ford Motor Company, Michigan and Fourteenth Street—or direct from Detroit Factory.
