Don't Suffer!

"I had been troubled, a little, for nearly 7 years," writes Mrs. L. Fincher, in a letter from Peavy, Ala., "but I was not taken down, until March, when I went to bed and had to have a doctor. He did all he could for me, but I got no better. I hurt all over, and I could not rest. At last, I tried Cardui, and soon I began to improve. Now I am in very good health, and able to do all my housework."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

You may wonder why Cardui is so successful, after other remedies have failed. The answer is that Cardui is successful, because it is composed of scientific ingredients, that act curatively on the womanly system. It is a medicine for women, and for women only. It builds, strengthens, and restores weak and ailing women, to health and happiness.

If you suffer like Mrs. Fincher did, take Cardui. It will surely do for you, what it did for her. At all druggists.

CHARLESTON'S FAIR PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Official Programme, Issued Yesterday, Shows Wonderful Variety of Amusement Features and Gives Some Idea of Valuable and Instructive Exhibits which will Mark Charleston County Fair.

(From The News and Courier, November 5, 1912.)

At the first stroke of 9 o'clock on the morning of November 18 officials of the Charleston Fair Association will open the gates of Palmetto Park for the fair and a half hour later Mayor John P. Grace will formally open Charleston County's first annual fair. From then until Saturday night there will be an unending round of pleasure and constant opportunity for instruction within the great grounds just outside the city limits and a programme of wonderful variety, announced by Secretary Rittenberg yesterday, will be carried out.

There are so many big features on the programme given to The News and Courier by Secretary Rittenberg yesterday that it is a difficult matter to single out any of them as being especially prominent. Band concerts, horse racing, vaudeville entertainment, out-door amusements, industrial, commercial and agricultural exhibits, exhibits of woman's work, horse, cattle and poultry shows, amateur field athletics, children's features, free amusement attractions, automobile show--these are some of the things that visitors to the fair grounds will have an opportunity to take in.

In order to be sure that everything is running smoothly, the board of directors of the Fair Association will meet at the fair grounds promptly at noon each day and discuss the progress of the great enterprise.

The fact that these attractions are being widely advertised in nearly every county of South Carolina through space in the newspapers, letters sent out by Charleston merchants, cards carried home from the State Fair and posters displayed by nearly every station agent in South Carolina, warrants the prediction, in the opinion of the fair officials, that the Charleston Fair will attract a greater number of outside visitors than any other thing that has been held in South Carolina, excepting the Exposition.

The programme for the first annual fair of the Charleston Fair Association is printed below:

Porto Rico's New Wonder.

From far away Porto Rico come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barcelona, writes "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Laurens Drug Co. and Palmetto Drug Co.

ANDERSON FARMER A SUICIDE.

Raymond Kay Gives Money Difficulties as Cause of Deed.

Anderson, November 7.—Raymond Kay, a farmer, 27 years old, committed suicide this morning at his home, six miles out of Anderson. He became depressed over his financial affairs and last night became exceedingly nervous.

Just before he was to start to the city this morning to try to arrange his affairs he went to his room and shot himself in the stomach with a shotgun. He lived about two hours, and talked freely, and told why he had committed the rash act.

The coroner went to the scene and decided that no inquest was necessary. Kay's body was buried this afternoon.

The boy's appetite is often the source of amazement. If you would have such an appetite take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only create a healthy appetite, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally. For sale by all dealers.
