2nd. That, believing in the wisdom and love of Him, who never errs, we bow in submission to His will and with joy look to the time when we shall meet again.

"DEAD" WOMAN SUES HIM

Separated More Than Eight Years, Couple Meet in Court—Spouse Remarried and Had Family.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Separated from his first wife eight and one-half years ago, James Kynoch of A street, Kensington, believed she was dead until he found himself facing her in the Central police court, where she charged him with nonsupport. Several years ago, it developed, Kynoch married a second time and is now living with his second wife and child.

The peculiar situation was disclosed when Magistrate MacFarland asked the woman, "How long has it been since he gave anything for your support?"

"About ten years," replied Mrs. Kynoch.

"What!" exclaimed the magistrate, and thereupon the story was unfolded. Kynoch declared that his first wife left him about two weeks after their marriage, and although he searched diligently for her, all trace of her was lost. Believing her dead, he married another woman several years later.

Mrs. Kynoch's experience seemed to have been similar to that of her husband. She said that she left her husband and went to Wilmington, where she worked for several years, after which she came to this city, where she learned that her husband was living and married to a second wife. Thereupon she procured a warrant for his arrest. Mrs. Kynoch refused to have her husband arrested for bigamy, and said that she did not want to send him to jail. All she asked, she declared, was his support. Magistrate MacFarland held him in $500 ball for court.

SAVES HER BABY WITH ROPE

Descent Easy Enough, but the Return is One of Extreme Difficulty.

Sheridan, Wyo.—Standing for hours in cold water at the bottom of a deep cistern and racking brain and body to escape and save the life of her little two-year-old baby, for whose sake she had descended, was the experience of Mrs. A. W. Frazier, a rancher's wife, residing on Buffalo creek, 30 miles from Sheridan.

The story of the mother's heroism and devotion came to light when mother and child were brought to Sheridan for medical treatment.

While at home with her child, miles from the nearest neighbor, the baby fell into the cistern while at play.

The mother followed instantly, dropping to the bottom of the well by a rope fastened to the top, and finally succeeded in rescuing the child and herself by climbing the rope and hauling the child up after her.

BOY GIVEN THANKS FOR $1,200

Brooklyn Boy is Dismayed When His Honesty Receives No Substantial Reward From Loser.

Chicago.—Virtue may be its own reward, but the next time Charles Hertle, a messenger in the law offices of Ruger Brothers, No. 375 Fulton street, Brooklyn, finds a pocketbook loaded with yellow backs he probably will ask the anxious owner to pay a reward in advance.

Hertle picked up a woman's pocketbook in Fulton street and on opening it was astonished to find $1,200 in bills and some change. He was still looking at his find and figuring how to spend it when he saw the owner, a handsomely gowned woman, looking all around on the sidewalk.

The boy asked her if she had lost a pocketbook, received a description that tallied with the one he had found, turned it over and to his dismay the woman put the purse in her hand bag and turned away with a hurried:—"Oh, thank you."

SUICIDES ALARMING SWEDEN

Authorities Want Newspapers to Quit Printing Reports of Persons Killing Themselves.

Copenhagen, Denmark.—So alarmingly is self-destruction on the increase in Scandinavia, that an anti-suicide movement is being advocated for Denmark.

The promoters urge, to begin with, that the newspapers should refrain from publishing sensational details about suicides.

After that they propose to agitate for restrictive regulations to make it more difficult to obtain firearms and poisons. Such legislative action is, however, regarded as quite secondary in importance to the checking of publicity, for hanging is by far the most usual suicide in Denmark and the details published from time to time provoke a widespread ebullition of suicidal mania.

Highest Waves.

The highest waves ever met with in the ocean are said to be those off the Cape of Good Hope. Under the influence of a northwesterly gale they have been known to exceed 40 feet in height.
