PREMIUMS AND PRIZE LIST OF THE LAURENS COUNTY FAIR, OCT. 17TH.

About Four Hundred Dollars in Prizes Have Been Offered for Entries of Every Kind. Rules and Regulations Given With Other Needed Information.

After giving almost their entire time to arranging the program and premium list of the county fair, Messrs. Byrd, Watts and Power yesterday were able to hand it over in a completed state yesterday. The following are the officers, rules, entries and prizes:

OFFICERS.
W. D. Byrd,
President Pro Tem,
H. K. Aiken,
Vice Presidents.
E. W. Martin, W. C. Wharton,
R. G. Harris, J. H. Miller,
W. R. Cheek, Geo. A. Copeland,
Eugene E. Simpson, Jno. M. Copeland,
W. D. Glenn,
Secretary and Treasurer,
C. A. Power,
General Superintendent,
J. D. W. Watts,
Manager Corn Club,
G. L. Pitts,
Executive Committee.

All of the above Officers constitute the Executive Committee.

RULES, ETC.
Section 1. The exhibition will be open to the public on Friday, October 17, for one day only. The gates will be opened at 9 o'clock, and will be closed at 5 p. m.

Sec. 2. Premium lists, entry blanks and all information will be cheerfully furnished upon application to the Secretary at Laurens, S. C.

Sec. 3. Visitors will find on the grounds, everything necessary for their comfort and convenience. Restaurants and lunch stands will supply meals and refreshments at all hours during the day.

Sec. 4. No admission fee will be charged to enter fair grounds.

Sec. 5. All officers will be designated by appropriate badges.

Sec. 6. It is desired that all entries be made on or before Thursday, October 17. Send entries to "Secretary Laurens County Fair, Laurens, S. C."

Sec. 7. Entries should be made on the regular blanks provided for that purpose, which will be furnished by the Secretary upon application.

Sec. 8. The exhibition of articles not enumerated in the regular schedule of premiums is invited and they will be assigned to the proper departments and displayed to visitors.

Sec. 9. Exhibitors of live stock must report to the Superintendents in the morning at 9 o'clock for information. Stock must be in the show ring promptly after being called. Any exhibitor failing to comply with this rule will be degraded.

Judges.
Section 1. Expert judges will be employed in the Horse, Cattle, Sheep, Swine and Poultry Departments.

Sec. 2. Judges will apply to the Superintendent of the department for information concerning the articles on which they are going to pass, and for all needful conveniences for making their reports.

Sec. 3. No appeals are provided for. Judges will therefore see the necessity for making their awards, in the first instance, with the greatest possible care and justice.

Sec. 4. Reports of awards must be signed by each judge in his own handwriting and handed to the Secretary. Reports must be made promptly to enable the Secretary to enter same on his books in time to render a statement.

Sec. 5. In case a superintendent of a department is an exhibitor in that department the judge or judges shall be appointed by the standing committee on Organization and Work.

Sec. 6. Awards will be designated by the tying of ribbons as follows: First premium, a blue ribbon; second premium, a red ribbon; third premium, a white ribbon.

Duties of Superintendents.
The General Superintendent (as aid of the President) will have control of the grounds and may remove all persons violating any of the regulations of the fair, or disturbing its good order and decorum. He shall have power to order and enforce any change in any department, and to order a change of arrangement of exhibits in any department.

Losses.
While every precaution will be taken for the safe-keeping of all articles by an efficient corps of police and watchmen, the society will in no case be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.

Live Stock.
Every animal coming on the grounds does so at owner's risk, and the owners are charged with the care of all animals while on the grounds, and must not permit any to run loose. Each animal must be reasonably tractable or it will not be permitted to stay on the grounds. All horses, colts and cattle must be thoroughly halter-broke, that they may be safely managed at all times.

If You Eat You Need Digestit The New Relief for Indigestion

It has been stated that more than eighty million people in the United States are victims of some form of indigestion. The American people do not take time enough to eat. The result is stomach distress, gas, belching, indigestion and dyspepsia. Digestit is the new relief—it has been found a certain, quick and permanent remedy. Thousands of people have found relief from its use. Their own statements on file in our office are proof. You can try it for yourself without any risk—if it fails to give you absolute satisfaction your money will be returned. Brown's Digestit is a little tablet easy to swallow and absolutely harmless. It relieves indigestion almost instantly, stops food fermentation, prevents distress after eating and cures dyspepsia. You need it even though you are not sick—it aids digestion and gives you all the nourishment. Laurens Drug Co., Laurens, S. C.
