TRAXLER WILL OPPOSE NICKOLLS IN RACE

Well Known Greenville Man Announces Candidacy for the National House. Opposed Candidacy of Nichols in 1916.

Greenville, May 10.—David B. Traxler, of Greenville, yesterday announced that he would be in the race for congress from this district this summer against Representative Samuel J. Nicholls, the incumbent. Although Mr. Traxler's statement was issued from Washington, he told a number of friends recently that he had made up his mind to toss his hat into the ring.

Mr. Traxler opposed Mr. Nicholls in 1916. He was formerly postmaster at Greenville and is now state executive committeeman of the Democratic party, having been elected to that position by the convention which met last Monday. He is one of the most popular young men in politics, having taken a very active part for several years.

His statement is as follows:

"After considering the matter for some time, I have decided to enter the race for congress in the Fourth South Carolina district and want my friends to know that I am in to the finish. My platform will be America first, last and always. I do not want the vote of a single German sympathizer. Education free to all by the United States government and anti-immigration since the Baltimore convention. I have been fighting for the principles as advocated by our president and at the St. Louis convention I worked for his renomination and this loyal support has made friends for me in Washington whom I appreciate. My campaign will be conducted on a high plane and national issues will be discussed. No mud-slinging will be tolerated. My purpose in entering this race is to give the people of the Fourth district an opportunity to hear discussed from every angle the administration's attitude regarding the conduct of the war; also to give the voters the chance to support a man whose loyalty to friends and country cannot be questioned. At an early date I shall announce my full platform and it will be one upon which all loyal Americans can stand without fear or shame."

Take a Sunshine Tablet for Thy Stoma'ch Sake.

There never was such a marvelous prescription for stomach distress and indigestion as Mi-o-na.

No doctor ever write a better one; it's so good that Laurens Drug Co. says money back if it doesn't relieve.

A woman in Maine calls Mi-o-na the sunshine prescription because she has seen so many sour, miserable, aggravating dyspeptics turned into happy, cheerful, sweet human beings in a few days by taking Mi-o-na.

The stomach is responsible for three-fourths of the nervousness and half the misery of the world. A woman can have a first-class stomach and yet be miserable if she has a husband who is a nervous dyspeptic.

If you have indigestion, belching or gas, heaviness after eating, drowsy sensation after eating, sour stomach or any miserable stomach disturbance the prescription called Mi-o-na will put you right, and bring sunshine into your life in a week.

A large box of Mi-o-na tablets costs only 50 cents at Laurens Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere. They are small and easy to swallow.

GEN. W. A. CLARKE HEADS S. C. CONFEDERATE VETERANS

Annual Reunion at Abbeville Last Week Greatly Enjoyed by the Old Veterans.

Abbeville, May 8.—Following the concert of the One Hundred and Fifteenth Infantry Band the business meeting of the South Carolina Division, United Confederate Veterans, opened in the opera house this morning with prayer by the Rev. G. W. Swope. The roll was called and 36 camps reported delegates present. M. M. Buford of Newberry offered a resolution bringing up the Tillman resolution, which refers to the refunding of the war tax imposed on the people of the South. Just about the close of the session, W. A. Clark of Columbia, offered a resolution indorsing the Wilson administration and the secretary was instructed to send a copy to President Wilson, to the secretary of war and to the secretary of the navy.

Resolutions were passed condemning the terrible cruelties of the Germans on the civil population in captured territory.

The McLaurin committee on pensions was continued. The pension board was reelected and consists of Carlton W. Sawyer, comptroller general; Capt. B. R. Flenniken, Gen. W. M. Weston, Col. W. H. Edwards and Col. R. J. Morris. Gen. B. H. Teague declined reelection as commander of the division and was elected honorary commander for life. Gen. W. A. Clark of Columbia, was unanimously elected major general to succeed General Teague as commander of the division. Col. J. Fuller Lyon was elected to command the First Brigade succeeding General Clark. Gen. C. A. Reed was reelected commander of the Second Brigadde.

After voting the following resolutions of thanks to the people of Abbeville the division adjourned:

"Resolved, That the thanks of the South Carolina division of Confederate veterans be and are hereby returned to the Chamber of Commerce and to the citizens of Abbeville for their generous hospitality and delightful entertainment extended to the old soldiers, to the committees which planned and so effectively carried into effect the excellent arrangement for the comfort and pleasure of the veterans, to the press for courtesies, to the ladies who graced our reunion at all times, to the Soldierly Boy Scouts, to the owners of automobiles whose kindly attention has been very helpful to the old men, to the railroad officials for reduced rates, to the band and to all others who have contributed to the pleasure that the reunion has been to each one of our command."

The people of Abbeville and the various organizations of the city have worked to make the reunion a pleasant one for the old soldiers, realizing that for some it will be the last. It was an inspiring sight to see in the parade today the grey haired men with their banners flying, marching behind the khaki clad band that will soon be in France.

The annual reunion ball was danced on the stage in the opera house, bringing to a close an enjoyable occasion.

The ball Wednesday night was the crowning event of the reunion for both old and young. The dancing was done on the stage of the opera house, which had been cleared for the occasion. The decorations were profuse, the Confederate and American flags being used. The Opera House was filled with interested spectators and the whole made a scene long to be remembered.

The first half of the evening was devoted to such dances as could be enjoyed by the veterans, the ball opening with the grand march and to the inspiring strains of the music the old men stepped out lively with their pretty sponsors, enjoying the pleasures of long ago. The Virginia reel, square dances and marches were danced, the young ladies vieing with each other in giving the veterans a good time. Could the North have taken a look ahead and seen these men marching with so much vim and vigor after fifty years, the government would have capitulated and peace been made at once.

After the square dances the veterans joined the crowd in the audience and enjoyed seeing the bright and pretty girls and handsome men waltz and trip the "steps" now so much in vogue. The contrast between the old and new was most interesting.

The music for the occasion was furnished by a fifteen piece band from Camp Sevier and the success of the occasion was due to the efficient management of Chairman Barnwell and his very excellent committee.

CHAUTAUQUAS

"An Integral Part of National Defense in War Times"---

PRESIDENT WILSON SAYS:

"Your speakers, going from community to community, meeting people in the friendly spirit engendered by years of intimate and understanding contact, have been effective messengers for the delivery and interpretation of democracy's meanings and imperative needs. The work that the Chautauqua is doing has not lost importance because of war, but rather has gained new opportunities for service.

VICE-PRESIDENT MARSHALL SAYS:

"I have great confidence that a large majority of people want to do right and, in their relations to the government, they will do right whenever put in possession of the facts.

"There is no place where more good can be done to the government and to the cause than upon the Chautauqua platform. The people who need information will be there, and, more and more as the years go by, persons who can get it are availing themselves of that avenue."

SECRETARY OF WAR BAKER SAYS:

"I am constantly facing the splendid results of the work done by the Chautauquas in this country in creating and sustaining a sound patriotic public feeling, and in carrying forward the great national enterprises which the government is necessarily bringing to the attention of our people; and I want you to know that as an officer of the government I not only appreciate the importance of the lecture platform as a means of communication and expansion, but also appreciate the work which you and your associates are doing as a contribution to our National cause."

Two years ago we might have done without the Chautauqua, but we cannot do it today.
