

The Herald and News

A. C. JONES, EDITOR.

Newberry, S. C.

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 2, 1887.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Augusta Chronicle's Charleston edition was a splendid exhibition of enterprise and vim.

A few fines of $1,000 will go far toward making prohibition a success in Atlanta.

Alabama proposes to make gambling a felony. South Carolina might do the same without taking a step backward.

The publisher and editor of the Centenary announce a temporary suspension, for lack of funds, with a circulation of eight thousand. We expect there are a good many subscribers in Newberry who owe for their county paper.

We are indebted to Lieut. G. B. Lythgoe and others of the Abbeville Rifles for a handsomely printed invitation to a "military hop" in the Court House at Abbeville, S. C., on Thursday evening, March 8th. We wish them a pleasant time.

Mr. Edward Atkinson's view of the economic situation as published in the New York Times is encouraging to us in the midst of the strikes that are going on at the North. We believe that American labor is suffering for want of protection against continued pauper emigration.

Charleston, Columbia, Chester, Winnsboro, Greenville, Spartanburg, Orangeburg, Lexington, Sumter, Laurens, Greenwood, Aiken, Marion and Florence all have the advantage of Sunday mail trains. Are any better than these? If not why should we be deprived of these advantages.

The City Council of Columbia are in part, much exercised over the remarks made by some of the country papers including the HERALD AND NEWS, about the licensing of a cock pit in that city and suggests that we look after things at home. We will do this and at the same time when we see the authorities of our capital city doing that which will put a blot upon the name of the fairest city in the South, we shall lift up our voice against it. We feel that we too have a part in the welfare of Columbia.

Lum Smith, the editor of the Herald, published at Philadelphia, Pa., announced in an advance supplement "that the publication of the Herald will be discontinued, and that the war on frauds is over." The mission of the Herald is to expose frauds, and he found it a thankless undertaking and has given it up to engage in the practice of law, preferring this to spending all of his income in a thankless cause. We sympathize with him, but have found that the public make more noise about frauds than they give aid to those who try to expose them.

The address of Capt. F. W. Dawson, who was the orator of the occasion of the eighth annual re-union of the association of the Maryland line, delivered in Baltimore, Md., at the Academy of Music, on the evening of the 22nd ult., was a fitting eulogy of our Southern women during the war. The address shows that much time was given to the subject, and is a paper that will be highly appreciated by the country at large. To those of our Southern women who have passed over the river it is a beautiful tribute of their fidelity to those who were engaged in defense of their homes. To those who are now in the evening of life it places a crown of diamonds upon their foreheads as the reward of an appreciative and loving people, to comfort them for the sacrifices made and sustained during that eventful period.

THE PETIT LARCENY DECISION.

The opinion delivered by Chief Justice Simpson as to the jurisdiction of Trial Justices in cases of petit larceny has changed the entire order of proceedings in cases of this character. The Trial Justice being nothing more than a committing magistrate, the result will be that the sessions docket will be filled with these small matters and the time of the court and jury consumed in hearing them. This we consider unfortunate, and a law should be enacted to remedy this difficulty. We believe that the entire Trial Justice system should be overhauled, and instead of increasing their powers, remove from their jurisdiction all causes which require a jury, including petit larceny, and that county courts be established to hear and determine such cases, the judge of said courts to be elected by the Legislature or appointed by the Supreme Court.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for March.

The great subject of the day for the American people, is the exposed condition of our great seaports, in a dozen of which, one-fourth of the wealth and resources of the whole nation is accumulated. Destruction of a great port would spread ruin to all parts of the country. Mr. Joseph Nimmo, Jr., in his article, "Our Unprotected Seacoast," gives a lesson that all should read. Leaving the seashore, the Popular Monthly for March next takes us with Christian Reid for a guide, to "A Fairyland of Science," the rich and picturesque mountain land of North Carolina. To know how Russia is carrying civilization into the heart of Asia, we can see in a careful and interesting article on "The Transcaspian Railway." Mrs. Pierce devotes some enthusiastic pages to the life and home of a great-hearted and talented woman, Helen Hunt Jackson. (II. II.) Holder, the naturalist, tells of "Stone Forests," and articles on "Gardens," on "Vesta and the Vestals," on "Linnæus, and Upsala University," and on "Sir Philip Sidney," with very clever stories, like "Austrian Towns," "A Very Peculiar Boy," "Collier's 'Strange Revelation,'" "Har Father's Secretary," "The Statute and the Lamp," give matters interesting and attractive, as the more serious articles are interesting and instructive. The whole combine to make a number, which, in the matter and number, variety, and excellence of the engravings, are a model of a Popular Monthly.

The March Eclectic gives the place of honor to an extraordinary article called "The Land of Darkness," presumably by Mrs. Oliphant, though anonymous. It is a most powerful and descriptive study of the place of punishment in the after-life. It is worthy of the genius of the author of "Old Lady Mary." Mr. Gladstone reviews the progress made by England in the last century in an article suggested by Lord Tennyson's last great poem, in an optimistic strain. Andrew Lang criticises M. Renan in a study which will be highly interesting to Stuart C. Cumberland's "A Thought-Reader's Experiences," a discussion of a topic just now one of the nine days' wonders of the age. One of the most vigorous and searching contributions to the Irish question yet published is that by Parker Smith entitled "The Causes of the Union with Ireland." Helen McKelvie gives us a very vigorous protest in favor of her sex and its intellectual claims in "The Lower Education of Women," and Mrs. E. Lynn Linton is represented by a clear and readable paper on "Womanhood in Old Greece." Other articles of interest are "Paganism in Old England," by J. Theodore Bent, a characteristically bright and scholarly paper by Max Müller, and an exceedingly suggestive, though somewhat pessimistic article, called "An Alexandrian Age." The entire contents of the number will, we think, be found of great attraction. Published by E. R. Pelton, 25 Bond street, New York. Terms, $5.00 per year; single numbers, 45 cents; trial subscription for 3 months, $1. Eclectic and any $4.00 magazine, $3.00.

The Prosperity Trial Justice.

Editor Herald and News: In your issue of February 23d, under heading of "Prosperity," M. L. W. tries to make some curt remarks at O'Neal Democratic Club because we recommended to the Governor Mr. E. P. Cromer for Trial Justice, stating in our recommendation that he was "head and shoulders above the present aspirants." Now for this we have no apologies to make, though we did not know that Mr. Booser was an aspirant, and did not intend it for him. M. L. W. asks why we do not "ask his excellency to arise and explain why their recommendation was ignored." O'Neal, coming to the front and expressing herself, must have tramped on M. L. W.'s toes, and we think she was just a little too premature with regard to his excellency. Mr. Louis P. Chazal, the Private Secretary of the Governor was sorry he could not consider our letter, as he had already appointed Mr. Booser.

EXCELSIOR NOTES.

Some of our early gardeners have been sowing the seed. Our farmers are busy with their plows, harrows, and other implements.

STONISHING SUCCESS.

It is the duty of every person who has Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in the United States and Canada. 1-26-la-cow.

PROSPERITY.

Last Saturday night our town was visited by a severe rain and wind storm. A number of fences were blown down, but no serious damage is reported. Wise & Birge have added greatly to the beauty of their hotel by a neat painting and other improvements. On account of Miss Mamie Whites having not fully recovered from recent illness, Capt. U. B. Whites is teaching at Locust Grove this week. As he is a pedagogue of "ye olden time," we know he feels at home in the schoolroom.

On Wednesday, the 29th ult., the hoarse occasion by the families of Capt. U. B. Whites and Mr. J. E. Schumpert were found to be on. The earthquake shook some of the brick out of the chimney and thus the first originated. Very little damage was done. The recent decision of the Supreme Court in the case of the State vs. Jenkins will soon fill the county jails to overflowing. Harvests for the sheriffs, but woe to the taxpayers.

Mr. Edward Carswell gave one of his happy lectures in Wigwam Chapel last week. His lecture was in the interest of temperance. His subject was, Personal Influence. His characters were strongly and beautifully drawn, and his mimicry was unimitable. On account of the inclement weather the audience was not very large. However, the interest manifested compensated for the deficiency in numbers. At the close of the meeting a division of the Sons of Temperance was organized with 30 members. The following officers were elected: A. S. Schaefer, W. P.; Rev. C. A. Marks, C. W. P.; D. M. Langford, R. S.; Miss L. E. McCall, A. R. S.; C. P. Boyd, F. S.; Miss Sallie Wise, Treas.; Rev. A. W. Ataway, Chaplain; G. A. Norman, C.; Miss Lillian Linder, A. C.; C. H. Cannon, I. S.; J. E. Schumpert, O. S.; D. N. Shoely, Deputy.

On Sunday, the 27th ult., Rev. C. A. Marks, the beloved pastor of Grace, Evangelical Lutheran church of this place, and of St. Lutherin, about three miles east of the town, finished his first year's work. The following is a synopsis of his work: Sermons, 96; Wednesday night lectures, 40; Missionary address, 1, outside our societies; Temperance address, 1, besides many talks; Sunday-school address, 1, to other schools than ours; Sunday-school talks, 12, to our schools; funerals preached, 6; infant baptisms, 18; communicants, members received—Grace, 36; Pilgrim, 9; Money raised and expended during the year—personage, $810.44, various church expenses (Charleston, $26), $178.78, Augusta Mission, $5, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society for three-fourths of the year, $51, Sunday-school Missionary Society, $35, Sunday-school literature, $31, amount in treasury at beginning of year, $140.93, total, $1,562.13. "And yet there is much land to be possessed." May he long be spared to guide and direct his flock. M. L. W.

MT. TABOR.

Blistering March is here. Overseer Shirley has his portion of the road now ready for the overseer's critical eye.

Measles having abated, students are again returning to school.

We are sure the teachers of Nos. 9 and 10 will show to the County Teachers' Association that they are its warmest friends and supporters. We shall all remember the first Saturday in April.

Some of our farmers may not be straight Tillman men, yet they realize the advantages accruing to them from the movement. There seems to be this obstacle to the way—some few in their ranks do not consider seriously the moral force of an obligation. This invariably creates confusion and distrust.

State Executive Committee Y. M. C. A.

The State Executive Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association met in the Y. M. C. A. Hall in this city yesterday at noon on call of President McBride.

Newberry was definitely settled upon as the place and April 14 to 17 as the time for the holding of the State Convention.

A thorough discussion of the matters in question was had at the convention—rolled: 1. The matter of the railroad fares in Newberry, Columbia, and E. 2. The matter of the committee of the Y. M. C. A. of Columbia; 3. The matter of the distribution of the Y. M. C. A. of Columbia; 4. The matter of the Y. M. C. A. of Columbia; 5. The matter of the Y. M. C. A. of Columbia; 6. The matter of the Y.
