

FOR PRESIDENT Winfield Scott Hancock OF PENNSYLVANIA VICE-PRESIDENT. W. H. ENGLISH OF INDIANA

OUR STANDARD BEARERS.

GOVERNOR: GEN. JOHNSON HARGOOD.

Lieutenant-Governor. GEN. J. D. KENNEDY.

Secretary of State. COL. R. M. SIMS.

Comptroller General. JAMES C. COFF.

Attorney General. LEROY F. YOUNG.

Sup't. of Education. CAPT. HUGH S. THOMPSON.

Adj't. and Inspector General. A. M. MANIGAUDE.

Treasurer. COL. J. P. RICHARDSON.

FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1880.

TO THE COLORED PEOPLE.

Again the Democratic party has opened the door of the party to the colored people, and invited them to come in and help to build up the country and better their own condition.

The Executive Committee on Saturday passed a resolution inviting them to organize clubs immediately, to send delegates to the Convention, and to take part in making up the ticket in accordance with their number enrolled.

What more could be done, and what could be fairer? They will thus have the same rights in the Convention, in proportion to their numbers, as the white Democrats. They will thus have a voice in choosing our public servants, and in conducting the affairs of government.

The County Convention will be held on the 25th of August, and by forming their clubs at once, and sending delegates, they will be entitled to all the privileges of the Convention. Will they accept the proffer, or will they continue their sullen and fruitless opposition?

The Radical party cannot succeed. It is doomed to defeat. Ignorance and vice cannot control in this land of light. Continuance in this blind course of folly and prejudice only deepens the antagonism between the races, and prevents that harmony which is so essential to our prosperity as a people.

The offer is now made by which the colored people can have a hand in shaping their own destiny. If they refuse it, the consequences rest upon their own shoulders.

The interests of white and black are identical, and there is no reason why they cannot work together in harmony.

THE SOLICITORSHIP.

On next Tuesday, the Democratic nomination for Solicitor will be made. The "News and Courier" says:

"The hearty endorsement given by the County Convention to Mr. W. St. Julien Jervey, the present Circuit Solicitor, we take it, virtually insures to him a renomination for that office, as there is no other candidate in the field from Charleston County, and Charleston County will send more than four-fifths of the delegates composing the Judicial Convention."

But the Convention should remember that there is another candidate in the field who should not be ignored, simply because he does not hail from Charleston. We refer to Col. W. J. DeTreville of Orangeburg, a lawyer of acknowledged ability, whose claims on this score are fully equal to those of his opponent; and, other things being equal, we think the fact that Charleston has filled this office so long, should turn the scales in favor of Col. DeTreville. We understand that the Charleston delegates are not pledged, so we hope they will give the matter a fair consideration, and not be influenced by the locality of the candidate.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

It was our pleasure on Wednesday, through the courtesy of a friend who furnished the conveyance, to visit the rice crop of Mr. C. J. Stroman on Dean Swamp. This crop is cultivated entirely by water, which is a new departure in agriculture in this section, being, from all accounts, the first attempt of the kind made in Orangeburg County, and promises, if successful, which seems now beyond a doubt, to work a revolution in this line, at least, of agriculture. It is, for this reason, a matter of public interest, and we have therefore visited the fields for the purpose of giving the readers of the Times some account of what is going on in their midst, and encouraging the spirit of enterprise among our farmers.

The rice fields we speak of are situated on the west side of Dean Swamp, extending from the public road, about a mile in length along the side of the creek, and averaging in width about 300 yards. We are told that the land, before it was reclaimed, would produce nothing. Mr. Stroman saw no reason why rice could not be cultivated here in the same way as on our coast lands. His ideas were thought by some to be visionary, but he determined to make the experiment. Last year, or year before last, he constructed the dams and docks, and planted about one third of the area now under cultivation; and the result was a complete success. Encouraged by this, he increased the area, until he now has about 150 acres in a splendid state of cultivation, and at a comparatively small cost for working and attention.

The original and entire cost of the dams, flood gates, docks &c. amounts to $1500, which of course goes under the head of permanent improvements.

The crop now in the field is good, upon the lowest calculation, for 6000 bushels of rice, which at $1.25 per bushel will bring $7500. Deduct the cost of working, $700, and one fifth of the cost of permanent improvements $300, making total expenses $800, and there is left a clear gain of $6700, or nearly $45. per acre.

This seems to us to be more than can be made per acre on any other crop, and when it is considered how many thousands of acres of land along our creeks and river bottoms can be thus utilized, we see the importance of the departure.

Mr. Stroman gets the water to cultivate his crop from his mill pond on Dean Swamp, which is led by a main canal, along the higher part of the rice field. From this main canal, and dam, perpendicular dams are made across to the dam on the creek, the whole ground being thus cut up into small squares of different elevations which are all watered from the main canal without any trouble, and the rice kept in water to any depth that may be desired. The water is changed or let off at any time by means of waste gates at the creek. The system is simple and perfect, and the cultivation easier and less expensive than other crops.

Mr. Stroman deserves a great deal of credit for his enterprise and pluck, and we hope that his experiment may result in much good to our county. He has also prepared 200 acres in an other place at a considerable outlay, which he expects to plant another year. The only question is, whether the extensive cultivation of this article on the part of our farmers will affect to any extent the health of the country. Remove this objection and we see no obstacle to the success of the new departure, and the result therefrom, of increased wealth to this locality.

OUR RIVERS.

We hope our representatives in Congress will push the matter of appropriation for the survey and improvement of our rivers. Great benefits can be brought to us by the expenditure of a little money upon our rivers, and while the money is going for other states and other objects less worthy, let our representatives look to the material interests of our section. The Edisto and Santee Rivers especially can be greatly benefited by the improvement of their navigation capacities. And, in this work, Charleston should also feel a deep interest. The timber along the Edisto, and the cotton along the Santee are waiting for easy transportation to market. In nothing can our Congressmen more directly benefit their constituency than by pressing and increasing the appropriation for these objects. Let them do their duty.

THE RADICAL CORPSE.

An attempt was made at Blackville to resuscitate the corpse of Radicalism on Tuesday. The speakers were the old hacks, Whipp, Smalls, Brayton, Taft and Collins. In point of numbers and enthusiasm the meeting was a failure. The speeches, he it said to their credit, were of a milder tone than usual. The whites made no interference in the meeting whatever, and free speech was the order of the day. A big dinner was expected, but the poor fellows, many of whom had walked twenty miles, had to go home and fall back on Democratic rations.

THE PRIMARY SYSTEM.

The "News and Courier" of last Monday in discussing the merits and demerits of the "primary" and "convention" systems of nominations says:

"There is much to be said on both sides of this question, but, if properly conducted, under wise restrictions, the primaries seem to us to be the fairest way of ascertaining the popular will and contributing to the real strength of the party and the security and welfare of the State."

The subject was considered in Orangeburg some years ago, and whether the decision was reached upon the merits of the question, or upon the popularity of the advocates on one side or the other, or not, the "primary system" was rejected by the people, and the "convention" seems to be our fixed mode of nomination.

EVERYBODY NOMINATED.

FORK OF EDISTO, July 29, 1880.

Editor Times:

As the Convention for choosing men to fill the many County offices, and for members to the Legislature, is near at hand, and it seems there are a great many candidates, especially fitted to fill the different offices, and a great many others like myself, fully competent, but minus the funds to pay for their cards being published, will you please allow me to nominate every man in the County between the ages of 21 and 60 years a candidate? Give all a chance for honor or profit. Then I think the fairest plan to be this: the candidate who gets the most votes to take first, the next highest, second choice, and so on, till all the offices are filled, except State Senator. That office I propose to set aside for Gen. J. F. Izlar, provided he can sit on the seat that has been occupied by the present or former occupants. If the cant, we will furnish him with a new chair. I know that the above plan will leave old fellows, like myself, out in the cold, that ought to have office to help us to support our families. However, I suppose we will have to take the last lot, that the auctioneers call more or less, and more than likely, it will be less. If any one can think of a better or fairer plan that will give more general satisfaction, please let him name it, and I will think about it between now and the Convention.

Mr. Editor, the late rains have improved our crops very much, though corn was rather old, when the rain came. Now I will sign this, as most of the nominating party sign themselves, MANY VOTERS.

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

A County Democratic Convention, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the State Legislature and for County officers, and for such other business as may be brought before it, will be held at Orangeburg, on the fourth Wednesday in August, 1880. The various Democratic clubs will send delegates thereto as follows: One delegate for each club, and one for every 25 enrolled members,—fractions of 25 not to be counted.

Our colored fellow citizens, who are desirous of the continuance of good government, are earnestly invited to organize clubs, and send delegates to the Convention in order that they may be represented by candidates of their choice on the ticket to be nominated.

By order of the Executive Committee.

J. L. HELDTMAN, Secretary.

For Sheriff.

Editor Times: The many friends of Capt. H. H. Salley announce him as a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the action of the Democratic Convention.

MANY VOTERS.

For Senator.

Editor Orangeburg Times: The many friends of Maj. T. B. WHALEY hereby announce him as a Candidate for Senator at the ensuing election, subject to the action of the Democratic Convention. A practical business man, and successful farmer, the interests of Orangeburg will be safe in his hands.

MANY FARMERS.

For Representative.

Mr. Editor: Please announce Morgan L. Gleston as a Candidate for a member of the General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic Convention.

MANY VOTERS.

For Sheriff.

Mr. Bascom A. Shuler is hereby announced by his many friends as a Candidate for Sheriff. He is a grandson of Col. David Shuler of old St. Matthews who filled this office before the war, and a son of Maj. Warren Shuler who lost his life in defence of his country. A hard working young Democrat from one of the largest Clubs in the County, and having the confidence of both races, he will give strength to the Democratic ticket.

WORKER.

For Sheriff.

I hereby announce myself a Candidate for the office of Sheriff, and will submit to the results of the County Democratic Convention.

Very Respectfully, J. W. MOSELEY.

May 19th 1880.

For Clerk of Court.

Mr. Jos. F. ROHNSON is hereby announced, by his many friends as a Candidate for the office of Clerk of Court, and his claims are submitted to the County Democratic Convention, by the result of which he will abide. Should he receive at the hands of the people this office, it will be but what they intended to confer in 1878, and again in 1876. Let him not be deprived of what in 1868 was taken from him by force, and in 1876 by corruption and fraud. We believe him to be the choice of the people and know him to be honest, zealous and efficient.

DEMOCRATS.

The Working People's Candidate.

Mr. Harpin Riggs is announced as a Candidate for the office of Clerk of the Court for Orangeburg County. He has been tried in office and has never found wanting in his duty.

THE WORKING PEOPLE.

For Probate Judge.

We take pleasure in presenting the name of B. P. IZLAR, Esq., for the office of Judge of Probate, subject to the action of the Democratic nominating Convention. He was a faithful Confederate Soldier, is now a humble citizen who has never held or sought office, and is in every way qualified by education and business experience for the discharge of the duties of the office for which he is named by MANY DEMOCRATS.

For Judge of Probate.

Please announce Mr. Charles B. Glover as a candidate for the above office. It is useless to say anything in his favor, as his ability is already displayed by the manner in which he has discharged the duties of that position during his term of service. We further urge our claim in his behalf on the ground, that the incumbent of that office ought to have considerable experience in the practice of law, as the office is not ministerial, but is beyond a doubt, judicial. Any persons, desiring to satisfy themselves on this point, can do so by referring to the Constitution of our State, "Article 4, Judicial Department, Sec. 20." Also Revised Statutes, pages 572 to 578, "Title 4, Probate Court," and to the "Rules of Court." In nominating Mr. Glover through your columns, we pledge him and ourselves, to abide by the decision of the Democratic County nominating Convention.

MANY VOTERS.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.
