

The Orangeburg Times LOCAL

More street lamps are to be put up.

Read pedigree of W. M. Sain's stallion in his new advertisement.

Spring goods at T. Kohn's. Goat once and be supplied.

Mr. J. S. Rove has purchased a lot for a settlement on the Five Notch Road near Mr. G. S. Ruffin.

A source of boys' food on last Wednesday evening was highly enjoyed by the young folks.

The public schools in our town have just closed having been running successfully for nearly five months.

The High School of Charleston is about to have a gymnasium for the boys.

Y. M. C. A. A special meeting of this association is called for this afternoon at the room at 5 o'clock. A full attendance desired.

Mr. R. E. Way, of the Fork, has a lot of carefully selected cotton seed which he will sell at 20 cents per bushel.

Quantities of shad are now being taken from the Hills, and our town has been well supplied during the week.

W. M. Cain has a lot of ponies and horses on hand, which he is selling off at cost. Now is your time to buy.

Rev. W. J. Snider passed through our town on Monday on his way to Charleston to be supplied for his flourishing street Mission.

Lars' comment on a good crowd, cry, plant, wear and hang at home, John's this week, call at once and several families in this city.

It is rumored that an opposition Rachel's Club has been formed and that the election of a new President in the fall will be a struggle.

Taken control of the meeting voted $100 to the Ladies for the purchase of a watch. This is a step in the right direction and we are sure that the members will do the best.

The marriage of Mr. J. M. Dunner will be pleased to learn that he is out at his business, looking remarkably well, considering the severe illness through which he has passed.

Read the new advertisement of Mr. T. Kohn in today's issue. His new Spring stock has arrived and the people are enjoying his fashionable emporium for bargains.

See new card of Y. Deschietto, the watchmaker, in another column. He has returned to our town and opened at his store, where he hopes to serve his old customers again.

The testimony in the contested case between Hon. M. P. O'Connor and H. W. M. Mackey, commenced in Orangeburg this week, on the part of Mr. O'Connor.

The Southern Press Association meets in Augusta on next Wednesday. We hope that there will be a full attendance and that good results may be accomplished.

We hear on going to press, of a considerable tornado in the Fork uprooting trees and throwing down fences, and doing other damage. We have not yet heard the full particulars.

Col. F. M. Farrow has bought out the interest of Mr. Daniels, his publisher, in the Orangeburg Herald and now undertakes the entire business himself as editor and proprietor.

We were glad to greet Rev. A. P. Norris on Saturday, who is on a visit to his relatives in our town. He preached one of his able sermons in the Baptist Church on Sunday evening.

The storm that passed over our town on Tuesday afternoon was portentous in appearance on its approach, and caused a general shutting of store doors and scampering for refuge.

Mr. L. H. Wannamaker, chief clerk of Mr. J. F. Robinson, has been ill at his home for several days, but we were glad to see him out on Monday, and we hope for his speedy recovery.

A light has been put up by Council in front of the Lutheran Church, which is a great benefit to the editor as he homeward turns his weary steps.

Can't we afford yet to have a neat and substantial fence around the Court House, and a park made of the square?

Messrs. P. G. Cannon and T. D. Wolfe returned from a piscatorial expedition to Pinner's Mill on Tuesday bringing back with them fifty pounds of fish.

We hear various complaints about cows being allowed to roam at large on the streets, and we understand that a petition is being prepared to be presented to Council relative to the passage of an ordinance requiring owners to keep their stock up.

A treat sheet! The wonderful musical prodigy "Little Tom" is coming to Orangeburg next week. His reputation is well wide, and a big crowd will be out. Full particulars, too late for this issue, will appear next week. The exhibition is to be at Wag's Hall on Saturday night.

A gentleman living on the State road, but far from the Five Notch, applied to the editor for a notice of his new book, "The History of the State of South Carolina," which he has just published.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

Mrs. R. H. Danner, one of the most distinguished citizens of Orangeburg, died at her residence on Monday last. Her death is a great loss to our community. She was a member of the Methodist Church and a devoted wife and mother.

We regret to hear that Mr. A. C. Dibble has resigned the office of Third Justice to which he was recently appointed by Gov. Huger. Mr. Dibble is a conscientious citizen and a faithful officer, and his resignation is a great loss to the community.

Mr. Michael Grant, an aged and highly respectable citizen of St. Matthews, died on Wednesday. He was in the 80th year of his age and a member of the Methodist Church. His death is a great loss to his family and the community.

- The following officers were elected on Monday night by Orangeburg Division No. 24 Sons of Temperance to serve for the ensuing quarter: W. H. - F. S. Dibble, W. A. - Miss Mary Albertotti, R. N. - J. C. Albertotti, A. R. S. - S. E. Owen, F. S. - E. Hunsdale, Frank - J. C. Edwards, Chap. - J. A. Williams, Com. - Miss Lillie Williams, A. Com. - Miss Lillie Bull, O. S. - E. B. Williams, I. S. - J. B. Kelley.

The Rev. J. L. B. Curry, D. D. general agent of the Perky Band, in response to the urgent request of the State superintendent of education, will be in Columbia next week and accompanied by Col. Thompson will visit Charleston, Orangeburg, and other points of the State to make personal observation of the workings of our public school system. Mr. Curry is a gentleman of the finest culture and oratorical ability, and we hope, when he comes, that our citizens will give him a public hearing on the subject of education, in which he is so deeply interested.

We hear of trees and fences being torn up by the wind and storm.

Go to Henry Kohn's for spring goods.

The communication from A. J. F. crowded out this week, will appear next week.

A little son of Mr. L. R. Tucker was considerably hurt during the storm on Tuesday afternoon by the falling of a fence.

Town Council at the meeting last week elected Mr. F. A. Schooley first Assistant Fire Master, and a variety of the contract for building the brick drain from Louis' to Harry's corner to Capt. Bell.

Spring goods at Henry Kohn's of every variety. These goods have been carefully selected by Mr. Kohn who has just returned from the North. Come and see what you can buy.

We hear on going to press of a possible lecture at Orangeburg by the Rev. Mr. M. A. Thompson, a gentleman well known to a student on Tuesday night, the only of the series of lectures in the parish of St. Louis, which is being given at the Episcopal Church, period through the winter.

A party of young ladies left on Friday evening for the Fork on their way to the hills, and they will be back in a few days. They are expected to be well and happy.

We regret to learn of the death in our town of a young man of the name of Wick who had recently moved up from the country. He was a member of the church and a good citizen.

Our friends were delighted at the exhibition of a new variety of the Fork on last Friday evening. A number of professionals from Columbia were in attendance and gave us a high opinion of the quality of the goods.

Under the auspices of Orangeburg Division No. 24, Sons of Temperance, the Hon. D. C. Crawford of Columbia will deliver a lecture on Temperance on Monday evening, April 24th, and a lecture on "Education" on Tuesday evening, April 25th, at Wag's Hall. The lectures on Monday evening will be free, and on Tuesday evening an admission fee of 25 cents for adults, and 10 cents for children will be charged.

The following officers were elected by their presence at one of these lectures: Foreman - M. A. S. and Fred J. Williams, Ways - H. S. and G. S. and given in Orangeburg Hall, near Blotter, in St. Matthews last Friday evening for the benefit of the L. S. S. band of this community, which proved a complete success. Mrs. J. S. Thompson, the efficient teacher of a flourishing school in the neighborhood, was the moving spirit of the whole affair, her scholars taking the most prominent part in the exercises, consisting of musical numbers, and recitation in dramatic form. The proceeds were also put to good use by the pleasure of the entertainment by excellent playing. A large number of the ladies gave cheerfully, and we are glad to say that we have heard from several of ourselves as highly pleased. We congratulate Mrs. Thompson, and all the other participants, whose names we have not been able to gather, for the success of their efforts. Long life to the band, and much cheer to the community for these evidences of life and progress.

The blowing on Tuesday night and Wednesday was right severe. We have no doubt damage was done to fences and otherwise.

Dr. J. G. Wannamaker has just received the finest stock of cigars, cigarettes, snuffs, and chewing tobaccos ever offered in Orangeburg. The Dr. never keeps anything but the best of goods in his line and we take pleasure in calling attention to these goods. Go to see and try them.

D. E. Brock has returned with the finest lot of clothing ever offered in this market.

If you want a extra fine pair of trousers, go to D. E. Brock, and we guarantee you a pair of extra quality.

Don't forget to carry your cotton sweaters to D. E. Brock & Co. They pay the best prices and pay the cash.

D. E. Brock & Co. cannot find anything better than this week. They will have a special offer of the best quality of goods, and will sell them at a low price, and we guarantee you a pair of extra quality.

Don't forget to carry your cotton sweaters to D. E. Brock & Co. They pay the best prices and pay the cash.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

We are glad to hear that the new school building at the Fork is well advanced and that the completion is not far off.

Special Attractions IN SPRING GOODS AT J. I. Sorrentrup's SPECIALTIES! SPECIALTIES! Notions! Dry Goods!! Shoes!!! Groceries!!!!

The largest and best selected stock of Ladies, Misses and Children's DRESSING MATERIALS ever brought to this market from 25 cents to $1.50 a yard, and we guarantee you a pair of extra quality.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, and other household articles.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, and other household articles.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, and other household articles.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, and other household articles.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, and other household articles.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, and other household articles.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, and other household articles.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, and other household articles.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, and other household articles.

Sheriff's Sales.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA COUNTY OF ORANGEBURG. In the Court of Common Pleas. By virtue of Sundry Executions issued out of the said Court, and to me directed, I will sell at Orangeburg Court House, on the first Monday in April, the following Real Estate: 1. A tract of land in said County and State, containing two hundred and fifty acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands known as Wannamaker tract, on the East by lands of John Wesley Hunter, and West by lands of John P. Spigner. Levied on as the property of C. A. Bradham at the suit of A. C. Norton, Agent. Terms—Cash. Purchasers to pay for papers.

2. All that tract of land in said County, containing thirteen acres, more or less, and bounded on the North and East by lands of J. B. Felter, on the South by Five Chop Road, and West by Frances Shuler. Levied on as the property of C. A. Bradham at the suit of A. C. Norton, Agent. Terms—Cash. Purchasers to pay for papers.

3. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.

4. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.

5. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.

6. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.

7. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.

8. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.

9. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.

10. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.

11. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.

12. All that tract of land in said County, containing one hundred and twenty-five (25) acres, more or less, and bounded on the North by lands of Abraham Gardner, on the East by T. P. Stroman, on the South by John C. Alford, and on the West by land of T. P. Stroman. Levied on as the property of A. P. Stroman at the suit of James R. Pruster, survivor. Terms—Cash and purchase to pay for papers.