CHERAW BOARD OF TRADE HAS ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Special to The Advertiser:

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Board of Trade was held on Friday night and new officers were elected for the year. The town is very fortunate in having as president Mr. Robert Chapman, who is president of the local cotton mills.

A great many constructive matters were discussed and reached definite shape. It was almost unanimously decided to erect a memorial building in memory of the boys who died in France. This building is to be three stories high with the lower floor a library, gymnasium and town offices. A theatre of a seating capacity of about one thousand will extend to the second floor. The third floor is to be for the secret orders of the town. This building is to cost between $40,000 and $75,000, depending on location.

The question of paving next came up and it was decided that the business part of town be paved at once and Mr. Guy E. White, from Atlanta, will talk to the Board of Trade at its next meeting in regard to this.

Two tobacco warehouses were assured for the tobacco season and about twelve hundred acres of tobacco is being planted with Cheraw as its market. Buyers will be secured from all the big tobacco companies and Cheraw will offer the best of inducements to the tobacco growers. Seed will be furnished free upon request to those who anticipate growing tobacco.

Another meeting of the Board of Trade will be held in a few days and will discuss other constructive measures.

Miss Lelia Huntley, the efficient postmaster of Cheraw, suffered a dislocated shoulder in an auto accident near Laney's on the Cheraw and Wadesboro road on last Sunday evening.

Mr. Ernest Harrall, who is connected with the Baltimore Street Railway Co., is on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. L. D. Harrall.

The Rev. A. H. McArn is enjoying his vacation at St. Petersburg, Fla. Mr. Dewey Burch has returned to Camp Jackson after a seven days furlough at home with his parents.

Mr. Biggs, who is with the M. W. Duvall Co., has recovered from a severe attack of the flu to the delight of his many friends.

Dr. Lucas of West Virginia, passed through Cheraw Monday on a visit to his parents at Chesterfield.

Mrs. F. G. Walker, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. James, has returned to Chase City, Va.

Judge Edward McIver, goes to Barnwell Monday to hold a week's term of the Court of General Sessions.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bullard will move to Charleston in a few days, where Mr. Bullard has accepted a position with a large brokerage house. Mr. T. P. Harrall left on Monday after a visit to his family.

Mr. Waterman Robinson, a prominent farmer of Spencerville, was in town on Saturday.

Mr. James Wilkes, of Patrick, paid a business trip to Cheraw this week.

State of South Carolina, County of Chesterfield.

Court of Common Pleas. A. M. Sompayrac, Plaintiff, vs. NOTICE OF SALE T. S. Sweat, et al, Defendants.

Pursuant to order of foreclosure and sale made and signed in the above entitled action on the 11th day of February, 1919, by Hon. Edward McIver, resident Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, I will sell, between the legal hours of sale, on the 1st Monday in March, 1919, the same being the 3d day of the said month, at public auction, before the doors of the Court House at Chesterfield, South Carolina, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described premises:

"All that certain piece, parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the State and County, aforesaid, containing one hundred and thirty-six (136) acres, more or less, known as the Slooping Pine Tract, which was conveyed to the said Annis P. Floyd by W. J. Hanna, Clerk of Court, by deed dated 23d of November, 1891, duly recorded."

"Also all of that certain tract, piece or parcel of land in the County and State aforesaid, containing four hundred and eighty-six (486) acres, known as the Sweat tract and is further described as bounded: North by land of Frank Wilkes; south by land of John Brown; west by land of Lock Brown and east by land of W. J. Johnson."

Purchaser or purchasers to pay for necessary papers and pay all taxes due upon said premises.

I. P. MANGUM, Clerk of Court for Chesterfield County, Acting as Master. Pollock & Pegues for Plaintiff.

MIDDENDORF

Death of Mr. John H. Rowe

After a lingering illness of nearly two months, Mr. John H. Rowe, popular and esteemed railroad conductor, died at his home in Middendorf, on Saturday, February 1st, and was buried Sunday afternoon at Hebron churchyard.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, the Rev. J. C. Carter, assisted by the Rev. J. D. Bailey, of the McBee Methodist church, and his body was laid to rest with Masonic honors.

Capt. Rowe was 38 years of age, and for many years had been in charge of the C. M. & C. before its amalgamation with the Seaboard, and which runs between Jefferson and McBee. The large number of friends who attended his funeral testified to the high and exalted place he held in the hearts of all who knew him.

His death is greatly mourned by old and young, but his good and upright career and true Christian ideals cannot end with death.

Surviving him at the old home place are his mother and father, three sisters, Miss Irene Rowe, Mrs. McManus, of Middendorf, and Mrs. Stricklin, of Hamlet, N.C., and two brothers, Gus and Mac Rowe, of Middendorf.
