CHRIST HAS RISEN.

S. A. Coldwell.

"Christ has risen," the angels say.

Christ has risen, has risen to-day,
He burst the bonds of Joseph's tomb,
And brushed away its murky gloom.

Christ has risen, and now he stands
Before the Lord, with outstretched hands,
In intercession, for every soul,
To bring us to our heavenly goal.

Christ has risen, and he will be
Near to those by him set free;
To help, and comfort, uphold, sustain.
Through him we'll conquer, with him we'll reign.

Christ has risen, he who died.
Go tell the story far and wide.
He lives! He lives! He lives to-day!
Let every voice join in this lay.
