

HUNT ASKS AID OF MAINE GOVERNOR IN STATE RIGHTS FIGHT

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 5 (AP)—Governor G. W. P. Hunt in a letter to Governor William T. Gardiner of Maine has sought that executive's aid in Arizona's fight against what he terms "encroachment by the federal government on state affairs."

"I have long admired the position Maine has taken in regards to the right to control her own water power, Hunt said, "but am very doubtful if your state can maintain that position if it relies on a single-handed resistance of the encroachment of federal activities in what should be state affairs."

The chief executive discussed the Boulder Dam bill in his letter to Gardiner, and enclosed a copy of a resolution passed by the western governor's conference at Portland, Ore., concerning the matter.

"There is growing opposition in the west to federal control of mining, forest and grazing lands," the governor said, "to the extension of park and Indian reservations and the efforts of the federal bureaus to control the water and power of western streams."

"The government is not only making reservations out of the public domain, but it purchasing or making exchanges for private lands for the same purpose. This letter action is as dangerous to the east as to the west, because if it is constitutional a wealthy nation can destroy a state by purchasing and withdrawing land from state city and county taxation."—Winslow Daily Mail.

HUNT URGES ARIZONA TO OBSERVE DECEMBER 6TH AS A BIBLE SUNDAY

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 2—Governor Geo. W. P. Hunt urges the observance of Universal Bible Sunday on next Sunday, Dec. 6, by the churches of Arizona.

The American Bible Society, an interdenominational agency engaged in the circulating of the Scriptures, and which last year put into distribution over twelve million volumes of Scripture in two hundred and eighty-five languages, has promoted Universal Sunday for over a decade.

In commending Universal Bible Sunday Governor Hunt says: "Any movement that will encourage the more general reading of the Holy Bible is praise-worthy. It is a great moral teacher."

"Throughout my public career I have taken a deep interest in prison problems and in the reformation of those who fall within the toils of the law. In an experience of seven terms as chief executive of the State of Arizona paying close attention to reformation of criminals, I have observed very few cases wherein regular and consistent students of the Holy Bible become inmates of our state reformatories and penal institutions."

ONLY A DOG

Just a homely cur. Give him a kick in the ribs, and shy club at him he's only a dog.

But investigation will disclose that somewhere there is a boy perchance a man to whom the cur belongs, and for whom they have the kindest feelings.

Somewhere there is a boy who will tell you that it is his dog, or a man with whom you can pick a fight no quicker than to kick his dog.

What does this mean? Just this—a boy has lost much of the possibilities of life if conditions will not permit him to own a dog. It matters not what the breed, training, color or disposition. The matter of ownership enters into the boys nature. And why not, let all else turn against the boy, and his dog remains faithful to him, ready if needs be to risk his own life for its master. Can you explain why it is that a boy takes to a dog, and a dog to a boy? We cannot, but there is a tie between the two that fills a place in life.

It seems to be the popular thing to look upon a dog as an imposter. Of course, when neglected, he becomes a nuisance, but this is the fault of the owner, usually, and not the dog, and there is something wrong with a man who cannot in a measure respond to the devotion of a dog to his master.

Here is the startling fact that we are leading up to which is worthy of consideration before you outlaw the dog. A recent survey of criminals in a large penitentiary disclosed that less than one per cent of the inmates had a pet when he was a boy. If that is the basis to work from, a pet is a necessity for a child.—Exchange.
