Ah Lee's restaurant, opposite the TRIBUNE office, is in good running order, and is receiving a fair share of business.

Miss Reid will move into Mrs. Bates' residence on Central avenue today, and will occupy it during the remainder of the school session.

Johnny Brady came over from Tucson Tuesday, slightly under the weather, and will spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Brady.

Sheriff D. R. Williamson and Deputy Geo. E. Porter brought three U. S. prisoners down from Globe Tuesday, and lodged them in the Florence jail.

A. Orfila, a bright young lawyer from Tucson, was a visitor in town this week. He will come to Florence later and make a speech for the Democratic ticket.

Out of 229 votes in Tombstone only 28 of them went for Doran last election. Col. Brodie who is running on the same goldbug platform will know what to expect.—[Prospector.]

The work of grading on the Prescott & Southeastern railroad has been completed and the machinery and tools used in its accomplishment will be brought to Phoenix shortly.

Elwood Hadley, the Indian agent, came up from Sacaton Wednesday and returned the following day. Under his efficient management everything on the reservation is moving along smoothly.

The Phoenix Herald has a laudatory editorial about one Thomas E. Barker, who is said to be running for the legislature in Pinal county. Wonder if it doesn't refer to our old friend Tom Baker.

Do the people of this county wish to countenance and uphold the school book steal that is proving so burdensome since the schools have opened? If so, vote the Republican ticket.—[Graham Guardian.]

There will be a round-up on Monday, November 7, commencing at Francisco Ayalla's, from there to Sacaton, and thence to Florence.

Pepe Sanchez, Captain.

Louis Schloss, at artist of some local note, is painting a large picture on the wall of Palsano's saloon, on Bailey street. It represents Carver's fleet coming out of Santiago harbor and being attacked by Schley's squadron. It is an effective piece of work.

Mrs. Nick White has four nicely furnished rooms for rent at her residence one block west of the TRIBUNE office. Everything new, neat and clean. Rooms will be rented by the day, week or month. Terms reasonable. — 08 3m

Capt. W. H. McKittrick has ordered at his own expense a national flag for the Wilcox public school. Capt. McKittrick raised the flag over Santiago and rightly believes it should float over every American school house.

Sheriff Truman and Deputy Bartleson left Tuesday for Yuma with Emilio Portillo, sentenced to thirty years imprisonment for killing his wife, and Juan Pajara and Seario Madriz, each sentenced to the penitentiary one year for burglary.

Chas. D. Reppy, editor of the FLORENCE TRIBUNE, is the Democratic nominee for the legislative council in Pinal county. He is a silver man, and two years ago represented his county ably and honestly in the assembly.—[Phoenix Enterprise.]

Both statehood and home rule were turned down by the last Republican house of representatives, as neither measure was allowed to pass the committee rooms. The Republicans do not want statehood, for that means government by the people.—[Phoenix Enterprise.]

A meeting of the Red Cross Society of Florence will be held at the residence of H. D. Cassidy on Monday evening, Oct. 17. An attendance by all the members is requested, as there is important business to transact, including an election of officers.

Miss Lella Davies and Mrs. Whitlow came in from San Bernardino, Cal., last Sunday, accompanied by Will and Chas. Whitlow. The former, who is an accomplished young lady, will spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. M. W. Harter, and will prove quite an addition to the Florence society.

Chas. A. Whitlow, who had the misfortune to be crippled up by running a rusty nail in his foot, has had a hard siege of it, but is now getting along all right. He is one of the Democratic candidates for constable of this precinct, and notwithstanding his lameness will run fast enough to be elected by a large majority.

The Heermans Stationery company Tucson, carries the largest and most complete stock of books, stationery, etc., in the Territory. Under the management of Mr. Paul Heerman, the well-known newspaper correspondent, it has become a very popular institution throughout Arizona. Mail orders promptly attended to.

Sr. Ventura Lorons and Srta. Maria Lorons, his daughter, arrived in Florence last Saturday from Altar, Sonora, and expect to make this place their future home. The young lady is an accomplished musician, and has a sweet voice which has been highly cultivated. It is to be hoped the Florence public may have many opportunities of hearing her sing during the coming winter.

The voter has no more important duty to perform than that of registering. If the voter's name is not upon the registration books he cannot vote. It is a matter that all should look to, and yet it is one that is quite apt to be neglected. New voters and old voters should see to it that they are properly registered, and not leave it to campaign committees to see that they are. Registration closes Oct. 17.

Opinion of an Eminent Jurist.

Ballot reform in New York was necessary, says an eminent jurist, because mere politicians by trade, who had no interest in government or politics except to enrich and aggrandize themselves, sought perpetual control. There are other excellent reforms besides that of the ballot. Conspicuous among them is the reform in a disordered physical system by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which counteracts tendencies to serious disease bred by a deficiency of vital stamina, irregularity of the bowels, stomach, liver or kidneys, and inquietude of the nerves. This sterling medicine, which has for near half a century won popular favor, not only for its excellent qualities in a remedial capacity, but also for its serviceable properties as a medicinal stimulant.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

ABOUT THE VERDE.

The Great Copper Mine Was Once Condemned.

[From the Phoenix Republican.]

Senator Alexander Benham of Los Angeles spent yesterday in Phoenix renewing old acquaintances. The Senator was seen by a Republican reporter at the Ford last night just before his departure for Tucson, and he talked interestingly of his travels in Arizona in the days of the Tombstone excitement.

"I came to Arizona first in 1884," said the Senator. "My first visit to the territory was with John Farish, whom I had engaged to examine for me what is now the United Verde mine. We spent some time there together, and Mr. Farish made a careful examination of the mine and the adjacent mineral country. He condemned the United Verde, and I relied upon his judgment and did not purchase the property, although I had the money with which to pay for it. If I had known as much of mining then as I do now the United Verde would have been mine. I have since become familiar with the property through many long visits with Mr. W. A. Clark, the owner, at his home in Montana. He is very proud of the property. I hear mining men speak of the 'ledge' of the Verde. There is no ledge there, and there never was one. On the surface there were a large number of small strata which lead from the surface to the great deposit in the heart of the mountain. These stringers were sent out merely to invite the prospector's pick. You hear the ledge of the Verde variously estimated at from 250 to 500 feet in width. There is, as a matter of fact, no end to the great deposit or zone up to the present development of the mine. The expression, 'there is a mountain of it,' which you often hear in the hills, can be applied to the Verde with impunity. It is without question the biggest mine in the world. If it were more favorably located it would to-day be a greater copper producer than the Calumet and Hecla."

"Mr. Clark says the Verde will become the greatest producer in the world. As fast as he can build ground with slag he will add new smelting facilities. What has become of John Farish? He travels on the coast and in Colorado and Nevada, and has the reputation of being a very competent mining expert."

Senator Benham was in Tombstone in the early days. He believes that Tombstone will become an important camp again some day. "You heard," said he, "of the project to open up the deep workings on the Comstock lode? Well, the Tombstone mines will be opened up in the same way. There seems to be no end to the possibilities in deep mining. Tombstone will be a better camp some day than it ever was."

When asked his opinion about the recent discoveries in Arizona in the desert regions, he said: "There will be new strikes in these desert hills frequently. Arizona is but a part of the great mineral zone which traverses the western side of this continent. There are many lodes yet hidden which the action of time with its erosive winds and floods will denude. Any person traveling in the desert regions can see that the formation of the mountains and hills are susceptible to this tendency on the part of the elements. The blind leads will have to give up their gold some day. This accounts for the discoveries we hear of in the desert hills, to my mind."

On Friday evening, Oct. 21st, the W. C. T. U. will give a social and supper at Keating's Hall, to which all are invited. At 6 p. m. a substantial conundrum supper will be served, the proceeds from which will go to help establish a free reading room in Florence. The ladies desire to thank all who have so generously helped them in their efforts to secure funds for their reading room, and ask that the good work be continued by a full attendance on Friday evening.
