The compilation of the work of the territorial board of equalization was finished yesterday. The statement presents many interesting facts, among which is an increase in the total valuation of the territory of $1,272,946.70. The valuation by counties is as follows: Apache, $1,072,088.91; Cochise, $3,301,683.35; Coconino, $2,016,380.30; Gila, $1,262,062; Graham, $2,625,665; Maricopa, $9,494,691.11; Mohave, $1,071,790.55; Navajo, $1,213,864.08; Pima, $3,579,229.30; Pinal, $1,790,700.78; Santa Cruz, $1,032,801.50; Yavapai, $4,432,431.59; Yuma, $985,217.38; total, $33,782,465.00.—[Prospector.]

If the Gazette is any judge of the outcome of Maricopa county we will say now, a few days before the primaries that Mark Smith will carry Maricopa county by an enormous majority. Of course Tom Smith, "Majah" Tom, and Tom Furish will deny this but just watch the result and see at the outcome who is the best judge. The deplorable condition in which these time servers have put Col. Wilson is not any fault of the delegate; it is simply another and serious warning for a man to be saved from his friends.—[Gazette.]

All the liars are not dead. The Mobile News says an artist in that city painted a dog so natural that the animal had hydrophobia during the hot weather. He's the same man who painted a copy of a beer bottle with such skill that the cork flew out just as he was finishing it. And after he was married he painted a picture of his first baby so life-like that it cried, and his wife spanked it before she discovered the mistake.

Governor Roosevelt made a mistake like one of those that caused Blaine's defeat when he characterized all democrats, without exception, as lawless, dishonest and cowardly. Of course the Governor does not believe this, but was merely talking for rhetorical effect. Nevertheless, his words will unquestionably cost him and his chief dearly, alienating possible democratic accessions to the republican ranks.—[Jerome Reporter.]

A party of Americans employed in the construction of the Mexican Central railroad near Tlajomalo, on the Pacific coast extension, recently unearthed a big collection of prehistoric relics and an earthen jar, containing $15,000 in old Spanish gold. The wealth was divided among the discoverers.—[Gazette.]

The weather these days is equal to the best brand supplied by California. The Phoenix people on the coast and in the mountains needn't waste any sympathy on the stay at homes.—[Republican.]

The Benson artesian well is at present down six hundred feet and within the past week the flow of water has increased greatly, now averaging 25 or 30 gallons per minute.—[Star.]

A Minister's Good Work. "I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," say Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured." For sale at Brockway's Pharmacy.

William P. Dunham. [From Gold, Cripple Creek, Col.] Less than two years ago when it first became known that Wm. P. Dunham of Los Angeles, intended to wage war against the Independence T. & M. company for the Hull City placer few regarded the matter seriously. Some of the newspapers—a very few by the way—heard Dunham's story and deeming it feasible published items telling of the promised fight. These items were laughed at; they were preposterous; the publishers had been imposed upon. To-day Wm. P. Dunham is manager for the Independence Consolidated company. He has full charge of the affairs of the big mine and he and his associates have control of the stock of the new company. This tells the story. It tells in part one of the most remarkable stories in the annals of mining history of the state.

Those who know Dunham are not surprised at anything, however big, he may accomplish. A glance at his picture published in this issue will at once show him to be what he is—a fighter. Aggressiveness is stamped all over his countenance. Nor is this the extent of his qualifications. He has shown in the fight he has just won that he has the capacity of handling large affairs in a thorough and masterly manner. The skill with which he managed to unite the various interests opposed to the Independence company, gather the large amount of testimony, and then centering all in one supreme effort, was able, so to speak, to storm the enemy's front so hotly that capitulation was inevitable, shows that Dunham is a man of more than ordinary ability.

W. P. Dunham has been mining now for some ten years. Like many others now rich he went busted first, only to retrieve his losses and to profit handsomely by subsequent operations. He came to Colorado early in the 90's, and it was at Creed that he exhausted what funds he had. He was an early arrival in the Cripple Creek district and today proudly boasts having only about $200 when he struck the great gold fields. He had, however, other stock in hand that has stood many others in better stead in this camp than a large sum of money. Dunham had faith in the future of the now great camp. He located here, convinced that there was fortune for those who searched diligently and intelligently for the hidden treasures of Mother Earth. Dunham secured a half interest in the Scottish Chiefs, one of the lodes now comprised within the area of the Hull City placer. From the day that he bought this interest he has fought hard and long to retain it, and only now has he succeeded in proving that his fight was a righteous one and that he was in the ring to win. After all, Mr. Dunham has fought for what he claimed and believed rightfully belonged to him, and he has done what anyone else would have done, provided of course, they possessed the necessary qualifications.

The accomplishment of Wm. P. Dunham places him at once in the front rank of the mining men of Colorado. He is yet a young man, and Gold bespeaks for him perhaps even greater things in the future. The two hundred dollars of 1892 has increased many fold since. Mr. Dunham has made a snug fortune by his recent accomplishment. He is already interested largely in Arizona, California, Mexico and other mining sections. He will be again heard of in mining circles, and as the article has before stated—do not be surprised at any accomplishment, however great, of Wm. P. Dunham.

J. B. Keene, the successful Wall street speculator, has been interviewed in London. He expresses the opinion that Bryan will be elected president, and says in the course of a few years all the great governments of the world will adopt bi-metalism and remonetize silver.—[Prospector.]

Death of a Carrier Pigeon. A carrier pigeon met with an untimely end in midlake off Racine recently, and its message will never be delivered. As the Byron Whitaker steamed up Lake Michigan Capt. Lewis Elliott noticed a pigeon which seemed to be tired out trying to reach the vessel. The bird was surrounded by a flock of seagulls, which seemed to be bent on keeping it from reaching the boat. Finally the bird succeeded in getting away from its tormentors, and came toward the Whitaker with great speed. It alighted on the top of the smoke-stack, was instantly overcome by the heat and fell inside. So interested was Capt. Elliott in his visitor that he had the breeching of the boiler removed, but the bird was dead before it was reached. A message tied to its right leg had been burned off. On the left leg was a silver ring with the marks "G 558."—Chicago Evening News.

As to the form of introduction, the simpler it is the better. The double introduction has entirely gone out of fashion. Do not say: "Let me make you acquainted with," but say, merely: "Miss Brown, let me present Mr. Gray to you." If two persons who are introduced are interested in some one art or science it is well to mention this fact, but in making introductions it is inadvisable to label people. Do not introduce a woman as "our distinguished poetess," nor a man as "the greatest hero of our recent political battles." Both statements may be true, but it is embarrassing to both parties to an introduction to hear these personal eulogiums.—Leah Laneford, in Woman's Home Companion.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.
