

Dining Out.

Perfectly Awful.

Mrs. Muchwed—Nothing in the world could induce me to live in Russia.

Mrs. Neighbors—It certainly isn't a desirable country to live in.

Mrs. Muchwed—I should say not. Why, I was reading in a paper this morning that in Russia no one is permitted to marry more than five times. Such atrocious tyranny is perfectly awful.

Used to Knocks.

"At any rate," remarked the patriotic citizen, "when a cadet comes out of the American naval academy he can't be beaten."

"I don't doubt it," chuckled the man with the mustard whiskers. "He is beaten so much while he is in there I guess he is hardened enough to stand anything."

"What do you mean by this?" roared the irate editor to the blase reporter, "I told you to go out and get me a good feature story and you bring me this dry old debate."

"It ought to be a good feature story," drawled the delinquent. "If you look over it you will find it full of 'ayes' and 'noes.'"—Baltimore American.

$36.00 per M. Lewis' "Single Binder" straight 5c cigar, costs the dealer some more than other 5c cigars, but the higher price enables this factory to use higher grade tobacco. Lewis' Factory, Peoria, Ill.

Determination.

"I believe that in an election the best man should win," said Senator Sorghum.

"That is a proper and patriotic sentiment."

"Yes, sir. And I have my own ideas about who the best man is, and I'm going to see that he does win, no matter how many votes are cast against him."—Washington Star.

Easier Work.

"Don't you ever get tired writing short stories?" asked the inquisitive person.

"Yes, indeed!" replied the literary hack. "What do you do for a rest, then?"
"Write novels."

Changes of Time.

He had read a marriage notice mentioning the age of the groom as 17 and that of the bride as 16 years.

"Yes," he mused, "times are changing. When I was young childish amusements were much simpler."

Not So Wonderful.

Meyer—It was certainly a miracle. I barely escaped with my life.

Gyer—Huh! I fail to see anything miraculous about that. Now, if you had escaped without your life the story would be far more interesting.

He Had Been There.

"Did you ever feel as if all the world was against you?" queried the pessimist.

"Yes, once," replied the optimist. "When I was a boy I fell a distance of ten feet out of an apple tree."

Up to Nature.

First Artist—Get any ideas, old man?

Second Artist—Well, I guess, yes. Got a bang-up sketch of a cyclone in action.

"What in thunder can you do with a cyclone?"

"Do with it? What do you suppose? I'm going to use it for the hair in my new portrait of the American girl."—Puck.

An Amendment Accepted.

"Sometimes I think my typewriter knows more than I do," remarked the New York orator. "I was dictating a speech to her this morning and I said 'The ballot is sacred.'"

"A very proper sentiment."

"But she changed it. She mixed the letters of the last word a little and changed it to 'scared.'"—Washington Star.

Do It Now.

Customer—Why don't you tack up this 'Do It Now' motto? It's been lying around on the counter for a month."

Grocer—Wa-al, I'm a-goin' ter tack it up sometime—if I ever git to it.—Judge.

His Bluff Was Good.

"But," protested the millionaire father, "you are hardly the man I would wish for a son-in-law."

"I'm not looking for a job as son-in-law, if any one should ask you," rejoined the poor but seemingly honest young man. "I propose to do the hustle act for Mayme and myself."

Whereupon the father was taken off his guard and neglected to call the young man's bluff.

Determination.

"I believe that in an election the best man should win," said Senator Sorghum.

"That is a proper and patriotic sentiment."

"Yes, sir. And I have my own ideas about who the best man is, and I'm going to see that he does win, no matter how many votes are cast against him."—Washington Star.

Imposition.

Bifkins—The current number of Blank's magazine is almost wholly a reprint of last month's issue.

Mifkins—You don't say!

Bifkins—Fact. There are but three new advertisements in the whole ninety-six pages.

Quieting Suspicion.

"Mr. Blank seemed rather uneasy when I told him you were going to apply for the position of typewriter."

"He was, but I soon got him over his alarm."

"What did you say to him?"

"Told him I had no matrimonial designs whatever; that I merely wanted to be assister to him."—Baltimore American.

Greek Meeting Greek.

"You say here," began the city editor, severely, "that 'silence fell.' Did you hear it fall?"

The reporter was not abashed by the sarcasm.

"No," he said, "I didn't exactly hear it fall, but I heard them breaking it a little later."

THERE is a Reason—

Why the Good People of America buy Cascarets as Fast as the Clock Ticks.

Every second some one, somewhere, is Buying a little Ten-Cent Box of Cascarets.

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6—60 times to the Minute, 60 Minutes to the Hour, 3600 Boxes an Hour, 36,000 Boxes a Day of Ten Hours, 1,080,000 Boxes a Month, and then some. Think of it—220,000 People take a Cascaret tablet each day. Millions use Cascarets when necessary.

The Judgment of Millions of Bright Americans is Infalible. They have been Buying and Taking Cascarets at that rate for over Six years.

It is not an Experiment, not an Accident or Incident, but a sound, Honest Business, based on Time-Tried-and-Tested Merit, never found wanting.

There is a Reason.

Cascarets are the implacable foe of All Disease Germs; the incomparable cleanser, purifier and strengthener of the entire Digestive Canal.

They Act like Exercise on the Bowel-Muscles, make them strong and active—able to Help Themselves do their work—keep themselves clean.

They are Purely Vegetable, absolutely Harmless, always Reliable and Efficient.

A Question of Phrasology.

"It is hoped that in the course of time this malady called grip will disappear," said the physician.

"It won't disappear," answered the skeptic. "Fashion will merely change and people will go back to the custom of saying they have bad colds."—Washington Star.

a true, faithful, loyal servant of Mankind.

Over Five Millions of Dollars have been Spent to make the merits of Cascarets known, and every cent of it would be lost, did not sound merit claim and hold the constant, continued friendship, Patronage and Endorsement of well-pleased people year after year.

There is also a Reason—

Why there are Parasites who attach themselves to the Healthy Body of Cascaret's success—Imitators, Counterfeiters, Substitutors.

They are Trade Thieves who would rob Cascarets of the "Good Will" of the people, and sneak unearned profits, earned and paid for by Cascarets.

A Dishonest Purpose means a Dishonest Product and a Disregard of the Purchasers' Health or Welfare.

Beware of the Slick Salesman and his ancient "Just as Good" story that common sense refutes.

Cascarets are made only by the Sterling Remedy Company, and the famous little Ten Cent "Vest Pocket" box is here shown. They are never sold in bulk.

Feared the Worst.

The sad-faced man was awaiting his trial on the charge of bigamy.

"Keep up your courage," said his attorney. "I'll see that you get justice."

"That," replied the victim of his own foolishness, "is just what I'm afraid of."
