L. R. Gibbons, one of Concho's wide-awake business men, was in town Thursday and Friday.

It is hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. SNOWFLAKE GLEANINGS.

Mar. 27, 1900.

The Spring Zephyrs are making an effort to raise a little dust around us this morning, and to remind us of what has been customary in this particular trip of country, in years gone by; but, after all, it may only result in some precipitation, and another quiet and pleasant spell of weather.

Crops are doing well and the ground is in good condition for later crops. Water master, J. H. Willis has expended a large amount of labor on our city ditch and promises some water in town this week. The local reservoirs have been replenished the last 2 weeks, and every thing is progressing nicely. Gardening is somewhat retarded on account of the lack of water through the ditch grading, but several of our citizens have gone right ahead with such operations, claiming that the ground is sufficiently moist to sprout any and all kinds of seeds. Fruit trees are in blossom in the warm localities and the cotton woods are putting on a brighter appearance.

Several of our citizens are contemplating a visit to the Salt Lake Conference next week and no doubt a general good time will be had upon that occasion.

We have the measles, or something of that nature in town. Miss Prilla Frisby is the victim so far; and just how it may develop, will be a question that can be answered better a week hence.

Several small stock buyers are gathering up what is being offered for sale at fair prices. Shearing is in order with the flocks wintered on home ranges and another week will witness the familiar wool wagons en route to the R. R.

We have had a very successful school here this season; work on the academy building, has recommenced, and we feel quite encouraged. A. F.

Robbed the Grave:

A startling incident, of which, rM John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement, I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim," No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts., guaranteed, at St. Johns Drug Co.

DUAL MURDER.

On Monday the 26th inst. some one passing from St. Johns to Springerville observed five men standing near the carcass of a cow freshly killed. On reaching Springerville the traveler related what he had seen. Warrants for the arrest of the five men were sworn out; and a posse organized with Sheriff Beeler at the head, to arrest the lawbreakers. The posse didn't overtake the men until they reached St. Johns, where the alleged renegades were purchasing various supplies. For all of which they paid, much to the surprise of some of the merchants' While the outlaws were yet in town a part of the posse came in but made no attempt to make an arrest. The strangers went a short distance from town where they camped; next morning the posse aided by other men of this town sallied forth to bring in the men. But they opened fire on the posse at long range. A general fight ensued in which the alleged thieves had one horse and probably some of their men wounded, and were so closely pressed that they abandoned part of their bedding. But they soon outstripped the sheriff's posse leaving it in the rear. During the engagement the sheriff had sent a courier for reinforcements, which were promptly sent, but when they reached the scene both pursuers and pursued were out of sight. They took up the trail and overtook part of the posse, many of the first crowd, including the leader had returned on account of horse fag. These reinforcements and part of first crowd kept on the trail of the bad men. There were now eight men in pursuit and they thought that there were others ahead. Soon this party divided one half keeping the trail and the other made flank move but the latter not meeting friend nor foe they thought best to return; this left four inexperienced boys on the field alone, not having a leader even among themselves: they were Frank Lesueur, Gus Gibbons, Antonio Armijo and Frank Ruiz: after continuing some distance they came upon a sheep camp at which they learned that the bandits were just ahead; going on a mile or so, Frank Ruiz' pony got so tired that it could not keep up, so he called the other boys to stop, which they did, after discussing the proposition of turning back, all except Frank Lesueur favoring that move; the result of the conference was that Gus Gibbons consented to stay with Frank Lesueur and they two went alone on the trail, which was headed for R. D. Greer's ranch, the road to which leads in through a box canyon. The other two boys staid over night at the Cedro. Next day as the four boys were absent great uneasiness was manifested by the relatives and friends of the four missing boys. A relief party was organized and sent out to search for them. About noon Frank Ruiz and Antonio Armijo came in and told where they had left the other boys; then all began to fear the worst. About three o'clock a messenger brought the sad news that all had dreaded: both the boys were dead, Frank pierced by five balls and Gus by six. Their bodies were found on the steep slope leading into the canyon referred to above. They had been shot from ambush probably while leading their horses up the slope. Their pockets were turned inside out, their horses, saddles, guns, pistols, and even their hats were gone: the murderers having taken them.

Their bodies were brought in and an inquest held, and warrants issued for the arrest of the murderers. A large posse of experienced men went out on Friday, prepared to make a long chase and a bitter fight. It is the earnest hope of every one that these bloodthirsty criminals may be brought to a speedy justice.

The funeral exercises of the murdered boys were held at the Assembly Hall Thursday afternoon. Pres. Udall Bishop Anderson and Elder Freeman all delivered appropriate addresses, full of pathos and condolence.

E. S, P.

Note: It has later been asserted that the bodies of the dead boys were not found at the mouth of above mentioned canyon, but at a place about a mile south of that point on a very steep slope of a jagged edged mesa, The murderers had been hidden in the gullies along the top of this mesa.

Almost any old thing of a regiment well supplied with amunition, could make a "gallant charge against" an enemy without amunition. Think of the big boasts of the British, and ascertain if they or the Boers had plenty of war supplies in a recent battle.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Or Chronic Inflammation of the Kidneys is a very common ailment. Numbers of our best citizens have succumbed to its effects, even though under the most skillful medical treatment. Like all chronic diseases, the symptoms come on insidiously. If proper treatment is obtained in its early stages, Bright's Disease may be cured. HUDYAN will cure it if it is taken in time. HUDYAN will relieve you of all the symptoms. Do not delay too long. Don't wait until your case becomes incurable. You will then throw your money away on doctors and medicines.

Begin the use of HUDYAN now, while you may be cured.

THE EARLY SYMPTOMS ARE:

1. CHRONIC SICK OR NAUSEOUS HEADACHE—HUDYAN taken as directed will relieve the headache instantly.

2-3. PUFFINESS OF THE SKIN UNDER THE EYES, due to a collection of fluid—in other words, DROPSY. HUDYAN will cause the extra amount of fluid to be taken up by the blood and be eliminated by the Kidneys.

6. WEAKNESS OF THE HEART—One of the first symptoms and the one that eventually causes death. HUDYAN will strengthen the nerves and muscles of the heart and make it strong and regular in its beatings.

7-8. WEAKNESS AND PAIN IN THE REGION OF THE KIDNEYS—HUDYAN will cause the kidneys to perform their functions properly, thereby relieving the pain and weakness.

Get HUDYAN at once and take it regularly. Full and explicit directions go with each package. HUDYAN is sold by all druggists for 50c per package or 6 packages for $2.50.
