FEDERATION OF WHEELMEN.

Permanent Organization of the California Association of Cyling Clubs.

The California Association of Cycling Clubs, which is confidently expected to do much for the promotion of bicycle-riding on the Pacific Coast, was permanently organized last night in the parlors of the Bay

City Wheelmen, on Van Ness avenue. Delegates from the following clubs were present: San Francisco Bieycle Club, Bay City Wheelmen, Alameda Bicycle and Athletic Club, Capital City Cyclers, Acme Athletic and Bicycle Club, Pacific Road Club.

California Cycle Club, Oriental Cycle Club,

Alameda County Wheelmen and Golden

Gate Club. Other organizations sent letters regretting their inability to send delegates, but approving the objects of the meeting. All clubs represented or heard from by mail were declared charter members of the federation.

When the institution repens the 1st of next October it will have ready for occupancy one dormitory, with a capacity for 200 students, the general recitation building, which contains more than fifty recitation rooms, and the lecture hall. The Beatrice apartment house will be used temporarily for a ladies' dormitory. It has accommodations for 100 of the "co-eds."

Temporary quarters have been rented on the latter five hours a week. Each subject runs for six weeks, the theory being that a student can accomplish more by concentrating his attention on two subjects for a short time than by dividing his attention among four or five for a much longer time. Another of the basic principles followed in mapping out the courses of study in the various departments is in making the work various departments is in making the work elective as far as possible. During the first two years the course is elective, and during the last two the subjects are elective. It is intended to give the student a great amount of freedom in the way of specialization during the last two years. In fact, the tendency of the system is toward the encouragement of specialization. Temporary quarters have been rented on Fifty-fifth street for the scientific departments, and temporary quarters for the library and a young men's dormitory are yet to be secured.

The convention of the California Association of Democratic Clubs will be held at Meuropolitan Hail in San Francisco on Thursday, September 15, 1892, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. It is expected that delegates will attend from over 150 clubs, and every county in the State will be represented. All Democratic clubs are eligible to membership in the association, and it is urged that every organization send a full representation to the convention. The basis of representation is one delegate to every 25 members and one for every fraction thereof over 15. Arrangements have been made with the Southern Pacific and the San Francisco and North Pacific Railroad companies whereby delegates are allowed a reduction of one-third for round-trip tlekets to San Francisco. In order to obtain this reduction it is necessary that a list of the delegates from each club, duly certified to by the president and secretary thereof, be sent to these headquarters as soon as they are elected, and in no case later than September 8, 1892. Upon receipt of this list we will forward certificates which will entitle each delegate to the reduction for the round trip. He said that five years ago his father went to Sacramento years ago his father went to Sacramento and obtained employment in the carshops. His mother went to live with one William Meyers in rooms on Kearny street, near Broadway. Meyers, he says, treated his mother cruelly and she had him arrested and incarcerated in the County Jall. While Meyers was "doing time" Mrs. McClelian took her boy and went to live in the Whitney House on Dupont street. At the expiration of his time Meyers found the woman and resumed his relations with her. Yesterday morning Meyers gave Frank five cents and sent him to a bakery for three loaves of state bread. The baker's "yesterday's bread" was all gone, and he gave the boy one fresh loaf for the nickel. When Frank produced the soiliary loaf at the house he was sent back with it to the baker, but the latter would with it to the baker, but the latter would not take it, and when the child again appeared at the house he was driven away by the irate Meyers. Later in the day he sought the house again, and this time he says his mother drove him away. He wandered about the streets until dark, when he was found on Pine street. A DAUGHTER OF FORTUNE.

How Mrs. Berry of 121 Post Street Got $3750 for a Quarter. For years Mrs. Berry of 121 Post street has supported herself and family of three bright children by conducting a dressmaking establishment over O'Connor & Moffatt's dry-goods store. For years she has saved what she could out of her earnings there, but on Tuesday last in one glorious swoop she found herself the helress of fortune to she found herself the helress of fortune to the tune of nearly $4000.

A little over a week ago she heard of the Premium Note Company at 26 Montgomery street, and at once decided to try her luck by purchasing a few of the company's coupons. She bought six of them at two bits apiece, which totalled up $1 50 in all, and then ouietly waited when Tuesday's drawing at New Orleans was held she read the list telegraphed to the evening papers. The number of her coupon, 22,490, was the number of that which drew the first prize. She was $3750 ahead.

Mrs. Berry immediately went down to the company's office to have her good fortune verified. She there was assured of her winning, but will have to wait until Tuesday next, when the official lists arrive from New Orleans, before her money will be handed over. Nevertheless Mrs. Berry has been enter-taining a constant stream of friendly well-wishers at her apartments ever since her luck was made known. To all of these she repeated the assurance that she had no in-tention of retiring from either her own busi-ness or the pleasing risks that are offered by the Premium Note Company. "I've made $3750 on a quarter by my first investment," said she to a CALL reporter yesterday, "so why shouldn't I try it again?".

SUPPOSED SUICIDE. Death of an Unknown Found Unconscious in the Park. Officer McGinnis found a man apparently about 55 years old lying unconscious in Golden Gate Park late yesterday afternoon.

The man was dressed in a cheap black suit, The man was dressed in a cheap black suit, with heavy shoes. He had gray hair and mustache. At the Receiving Hospital all attempts to restore him to consciousness failed. The surgeon found a few cheap novels and some change in his pockets. An eagle, the letters "R. M." and a star were tattooed in blue ink on the right arm.

The unknown died at 11:40 o'clock last night, and the body was sent to the Morgue, where an inquest will be held to-day. Dr. Somers thinks that death resulted from narcotic poisoning.

A Deputy Assaulted. C. J. Newell, a Deputy Sheriff of Alameda County, went to Irish-American Hall yesterday to serve a warrant on a man who was attending a meeting held there. As soon as he made known his errand he was set upon and forced out of the place. He called in Officers Ross and Riordan, who, at his suggestion, arrested John Dunphy for battery.

2 INGRAHAM—In Chicago, August 6, 1892, Clinton,

The shooting, from all accounts, was accidental. It appears that Weigel, with James Brewer and John Healey, were drinking in the saloon when Beaver entered. The trio invited the newcomer to join them, which he did. After a while the young men tried to be funny at Beaver's expense by pushing him and knocking his hat off, until finally the herseplay became so rough that the whole four wentsprawling on the barroom floor. It was then that the pistol was discharged, but how no one could tell. Indeed, Weigel did not know for some time after that he had been hurt. When he did Beaver and his friends had M. G. [Downleville papers please copy.] When he did Beaver and his friends had Weigel, notwithstanding the remon-strances of the saloon-keeper, who called a hack to bring him to a physician, refused to ride or go in search of a doctor. He started off to walk home and on the way fainted from loss of blood. The police used every effort to identify his assailant, but without success, until Beaver's death at the hands of the outlaws opened the mouths of the witnesses to the generating.
