ARREST OF THE MISCREANT.

A Vagrant, in Revenge for Being Put Off a Train, Endangers Hundreds of Lives.

Special to THE MORNING CALL

Los ANGELES, Dec. 1 .- Since the wreck of the Santa Fe train near Monrovia a few days ago by the placing of a big bowlder on the track Detective J. Frank Burns and his assistants have been doing some quiet but very effective work in ferreting out the supposed perpetrators of the outrageous crime. His investigation has resulted in the arrest of one of the suspected wreckers. He was brought to jail last night, and gave the name of F. R. Warner. Other arrests are expected to follow this evening.

Late this afternoon Detective Burns said that he had positive evidence that Warner was the train-wrecker. Warner is a tramp who has recently been committing petty robberies in and about Redlands. He is a tough-appearing fellow. He attempted to steal a ride on the freight on the day of the wreck and was thrown off by a brakeman. It is supposed that in revenge for his ejectment from the train he placed a large rock on the track and wanted to see the overland, crowded with passengers, derailed and destroyed. It is supposed that Warner had accomplices in this dastardly crime. LATER.-Warner has confessed his gullt, and says he tried to wreck the train out of revenge for having been put off while stealing a ride. It was thought that others were implicated, but the detectives have given up the idea of making any further arrests.

THE SAN DIEGO SUICIDE. Another Theory for the Young Woman's Desperate Act.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 1 .- It is now thought that the woman registering at the Hotel del Coronado as Lottie Anderson Bernard and Trains Stalled at Livermore by who committed suicide Tuesday morning was not suffering from cancer in the stomach but had been ruined, and realizing that she had been deserted as well, decided to end her troubles. She was a beautiful woman, and when arriving here on Thanksgiving day did not appear ill or unhappy, though representing that her brother. Dr. Anderson of Minneapolis, had parted from her at Orange, with the understanding that he would join her in a few days at Coronada. She is said to have inquired at the Hotel Brewster in this city whether Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were staying there. Her evident anxiety to trace the whereabouts of Anderson, and her distress on receiving no advices from him after going to the Hotel del Coronado, are now believed to prove that the man was not her brother. The Coroner has a dispatch from Mount Vernon, N. J., requesting a decription of the woman and signed Harry M. Bernard.

THE FOLSOM BRIDGE.

Wrecked by a Stray Log Boom on the Rampage. SACRAMENTO, Dec. 1 .- News came by telephone from Folsom to-day that a log boom belonging to the American River Land and Lumber Company, situated above the prison dam, has given way and thousands of logs strew the channel of the American River from Folsom to Sacramento. The river at Folsom has fallen about six feet since last night. The sand bars in front of the town are covered with logs. Water was coming over the dam with great force during the storm and the logs tion is entirely cut off. shot over the stone works with great force, striking the scaffolding surrounding the $32,000 steel suspension bridge, knocking down the temporary support and precipitating the immense structure into the channel. The bridge was a most finished and was expected to be turned over to the county on December 10. It is a total loss. The loss to the land and lumber company will be thousands of dollars.

THE PHŒNIX RAILROAD. Meeting of Stockholders and Election of Officers.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., Dec. 1.-The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Santa Fe, Prescott and Phoenix Railroad was held here to-day. The following directors were elected: D. B. Robinson, G.W. Kretzinger, N. K. Fairbanks, E. M. Dickey, all of Chicago: D. M. Ferry of Detroit, W. A. Bissell of San Francisco, F. M. Murphy, G. W. Vaughn, W. C. Bashford, all of Prescott. The following officers of the company were elected: D. B. Robinson, president; G. W. Vaughn, vice-president and chief engineer; F. M. Murphy, secretary; E. M. Dickey, treasurer; G. W. Kretzinger, general counsel. A large force of men has been placed at work on the road at Point of Rocks, seven miles north of Prescott, and the company expects to have its line in operation between Prescott and Ash Fork by February 1. The effect of the construction of this line is already felt by the large influx of capitalists to invest in mining properties. ACRES OF LEMONS.

Large Planting Scheme of the San

president of the San Diego Land and Town Company, and several directors of the company have arrived from Boston to look over the company's property here with a view to future policy regarding the 40,000-acre ranch on which the town of Chula Vista is situated. Yesterday they made a tour of inspection over the property. Mr. Braman says the company is so well satisfied with the outlook in this region that it will plant 1000 acres to lemons this winter, making the largest lemon grove in America.

ROBBED HIS FRIEND.

Arrest of a Smooth Confidence Man at Los Angeles. Los Angeles, Dec. 1 .- S. B. Hawthorne,

a well-dressed and smooth-talking confidence man, agreed to wake a guest of the United States Hotel up every morning. About a month ago he induced the guest to leave the door to his room open and put a chair against it. In this way he awakened the man several mornings, and then failed to wake him, having disappeared with a $150 gold watch and chain and $300 in money. Hawthorne was arrested while trying to dispose of the watch and chain.

DALY'S DEFALCATIONS. His Stealings From the Bank of British Columbia. VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 1.-W. C. Ward, general manager of the Bank of British Columbia, has returned from Nelson, B. C. He states that the total defalcation of Daly is $5574 76. Daly secured this by appropriating the bank funds, and also by taking money from depositors, giving personal receipts and guaranteeing interest beyond the bank rate. He was formerly connected some time. He has a wife and one child. JUMPED THE TRACK.

Serious Accident on a Tacoma Electric Line.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 1 .- An electric car jumped the track whitegoing down a steep grade at Old Tacoma this afternoon throwing several passengers to the ground. Among them was Captain James O'Brien, formerly of the whaleback steamer Wetmore, who had his left shoulder blade broken, besides receiving internal injuries. He was taken in an insensible condition into a drugstore and later removed to the hospital.

TIVE GUN WAS LOADED.

A Young Man Seriously Wounded by

A TRAMP'S SPITE. Saturday loaded with ball cartridges, while explaining its working to a customer. The ball passed through the corrugated iron end of the gunshop and entered the next building occupied as bandroom of the Ninth Regiment Band, striking John S. Martin in the back and penetrating his body, coming out on his right side. Mr. Martin is 23 years old and the oldest son of W. P. Martin of Pomona, late Democratic candidate for the Assembly from that district. The accident occurred while the young man was sitting at a table in the bandroom with two other young men. He is a member of Company D. Ninth Regiment, and possessed of a strong and vigorous constitution. The chances for his recovery are good.

REFUSED A LANDING.

The Northern Pacific Steamer Victoria in Difficulty.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 1 .- The Northern Pacific steamer Victoria arrived from China and Japan this afternoon, but was not permitted to land her cargo of passengers. The Collector of Customs refused to enter the vessel without a certificate from the United States quarantine officer at Port Townsend. The Victoria put into Port Townsend yesterday, and, it is claimed, waited nine hours for the Health Officer. The quarantine officer has been telegraphed for and is expected to arrive to-morrow morning. The vessel has 2000 tons of cargo, including 600 bales of silk for New York, sold to arrive, and this is very important. VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 1 .- The steamship Victoria of the Northern Pacific line arrived here yesterday with a number of passengers and over 2000 tons of freight. She had on board Mr. Carlill of Carlill & Dodwell & Carlill, manager of the company, and Captain Marshall of the Fairfield Shipbuilding Company, owners of the steamers. Both express satisfaction with the new company's business and prospects. All they want is a fair chance and if business warrants the steamers Arizona and Alaska will be placed on the run. The trip across was uneventful.

AFTER THE STORM.

Additional Reports From the Interior.

Washout-Roofing Ripped Off at Red Bluff.

RED BLUFF, Dec. 1 .- During the gale Thursday morning 600 square feet of the tin roof of the Oak-street public school were ripped off and the rain entering the building damaged two rooms badly. It will not stop the school sessions, as there is plenty of room in the Lincoln-street school to ac cmmodate the classes. The damage will probably reach $75 or $100. The wires of the Electric Light Company blew down early Wednesday evening and shut off the lights of the town after 11 o'clock. The water in Autelope Creek is OROVILLE, Dec. 1.-The storm was exceedingly severe here, many trees having been blown down. The Feather River rose eight feet in a few hours.

LAKEPORT, Dec. 1 .- The wind and rain for the last few days has been something unheard of for November. The rainfall to date is 950 inches. As far as heard from there has been very little damage done by the storm. There is a washout on the new road to Pieta, so the stage had to go to Hopland. The telephone line from Pieta here is down.

ANTIOCH, Dec. 1.-Five and a half inches of rain have fallen here in the last four days, a rainfall which has never been equaled in this section. No damage has been done in this vicinity, but it is feared losses have been sustained on the islands and tule lands. Telegraphic communica-

RE, Dec. 1.-Livermore Valley and the surrounding country has just experienced one of the heaviest wind and rain storms in its history. The rainfall from Sunday morning till Wednesday evening was 6.85 inches. A washout 200 yards long occurred on the railroad track near the Remillard brickyard between here and Pleasanton, and as a consequence there is a blockade of passenger and freight trains. We have received no mail since Wednesday noon and are not liable to get any till this evening. The train from Sacramento has been laid up here since Wednesday at 2:15 P. M. and will probably be detained till this evening at the least. The creeks are booming. The damage in the county is comparatively light. Farmers are rejoicing. The sun shone brightly to-day.

HURON, Dec. 1.-It has been blowing a gale for four days from the south, blowing at the rate of forty miles an hour. The wind ceased last evening, and the weather is cloudy, with promises of rain.

Graduates of Hahnemann Hospital College.

Ninth Annual Commencement in Odd

Fellows' Hall-Addresses by Dr.

THEY WILL HEAL THE SICK,

G. H. Martin and Others. The ninth annual commencement exerises of the Hahnemann Hospital College of San Francisco were held at Odd Fellows' Hall last evening in the presence of a large assemblage of invited friends. The stage was bordered with chrysanthemums and on its walls hung a silken banner, with the name of the college embroidered in gold. The faculty and the graduates formed a circle, with the new-fledged healers on the right. Among the latter were three ladies-Elise McCoskey Detrick and Eleanor Frances Martin of this city and Mary Almira Morgan of San Rafael. The names of their male classmates were: Ibnsina Charles Anker, Joseph Graham Crawford and Arthur Alexander Finch of this city; Joseph Dawson, M.D., of Vallejo, and Rev. Robert Swallow of Ningpo, China, Columbus Waterhouse, president of the board of directors, officiated as chairman. The exercises opened with an overture by the orchestra and a prayer by Rev. John Q. Adams. After a gavotte by the orchestra, Dr. George H. Martin, professor of mental and nervous diseases in the college, delivered an address of welcome on behalf of

He gave an historical review of the work accomplished by the Hahnemann Hospital College since its foundation. He congratu-lated it upon its present prosperity. The high standard of the studies pursued by the high standard of the studies pursued by the graduates was described, and in this connection mention was made of the fact that the standard had been raised from what it was a year ago. Then the student was required on his examinations to attain a general average of 70 per cent. Now to pass he must attain a general average of 75 per cent. Dr. Martin remarked that the public interest in medical colleges was not as great interest in medical colleges was not as great as it should be.

He described the practical methods pursued in the instruction of students. While the Hahnemann Hospital College had didactic lectures the main feature was the clinic, where the students came in contact with the patients. Each clinic was presided with the patients. Each clinic was presided over by a professor who was a specialist in his particular line. During the year 1000 calls had been made by students to patients in their homes. New life had been instilled into the institution by the sympathy of the profession at large with its work.

Dr. Martin said he was very proud of the graduating class of 1892. The reason for the class being so small was that, though many had started, there were only a few left. These few had been tried many times and they had never been found wanting.

Dr. G. E. Davis, dean of the faculty, next presented the graduates to Columbus Waterhouse, president of the board of directors. As each graduate stepped to the front to receive his or her diploma the audience ap-

Mrs. Eunice Westwater, in a sweet contraito voice, sang an aria, and for an encore "The Swanee River," after which there was more music by the orchestra.

Rev. Dr. Frederic J. Masters was the last speaker. He amused his audience with many anecdotes illustrating the crude state of medical knowledge in China. If there was any place on earth where a sick man might say with truth that life was not worth living, that place was China. The Chinese physician thumped, slapped and pounded his patient in the process of restoring his health. When these failed he seared him with hot iron, pricked him with needles and with hot iron, pricked him with needles and lighted benfires under his naked flesh. The people were taught that all diseases are due to malignant agencies

Dr. Masters referred to Rev. Mr. Swallow, one of the graduates, in the kindliest manner. He said he was a missionary who had crossed and recrossed the ocean to take a course in medicine in order to render more. effective service to the church that had sent him out. He said that all this self-imposed expense and labor and self-denial for the sake of poor wretches who could do nothing in return convinced him that we still live in an age productive of generous sympathies, heroic activities and disinterested self-sacrifices.

A NEW ORGANIZATION. William Henry Smith Will Retire From the Associated Press. DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 1.-The regular annual meeting of the Western Associated Press was held here yesterday with the largest attendance ever had.

In making his report the general manager announced his purpose to retire from active journalism, as he felt he had earned the right to a few years of leisure. Subsequently a committee was appointed and drew up resolutions bearing upon Mr. Smith's retiracy. The president announced that the general manager had consented to give his help to the board until the present complications were settled and the business put upon a satisfactory basis, which was received with applause. Two Brothers Killed in a Fight Over Mining Property. BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 1 .- News came the Sheriff here yesterday that James Burton and F. Burton, brothers, had been killed by Bill Gibson at Kernville, in the mountains, about eighty miles from here. The Sheriff left immediately to arrest the party, but this morning Gibson and his brother, Charles, came to Bakersfield and gave themselves up, stating that they understood that they were accused of the killing and that a warrant was out for their arrest, and further that they were atraid of the two other brothers of the Burton family who reside in the vicinity. The trouble came about the possession and working of some mines. The Burtons bear a bad reputation. The Gibsons, who are in jail, say they can prove their innocence.

Rapidly. PHŒNIX, Arlz., Dec. 1.-Figures carefully kept by the railroad company and stage lines for the past three months show an average excess of arrivals over departures of thirty-five per day, increasing this city's opulation at the rate of 1000 per month Investigations by a gentleman from the Board of Trade show that 90 per cent of this ncrease is permanent, the other 10 per cent being made up of invalids, sightseers and prospective investors. The number of visitors and those who expect to reside permanently for November alone was 2500.

Work on one of the electric lines has begun, and the material is on the way for two others. The construction of an electric belt ne, whose power will be obtained from Arizona Falls, nine miles from the city, will commence within thirty days. Sufficient capital is already on deposit here. The line will include the towns of Phœnix, Mesa and

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

A Negro Criminal Cuts His Way Out of the Red Bluff Prison. RED BLUFF, Dec. 1 .- Tom Harrison, a egro, confined in the County Jail on a charge of criminal assault on a married woman, sawed off a bar in the north window of the east side of the jail at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning and escaped. Sheriff Fish being apprised of the escape, got aboard the southbound Oregon express, which was over three hours late, stood in the cab and saw Harrison get aboard there.

The train pulled out and when near the Reeds Creek bridge Harrison got a glimpse of the Sheriff, who was watching the prisoner from the tender. The night was very dark and it was raining hard. The Sheriff lost sight of Harrison, who escaped. A posse has been out scouring the country since daylight yesterday morning. The Sheriff thinks it impossible for Harrison to make good his escape. The prisoner was tried last week, but the jury failed to agree and were discharged.

NOT THE ROBBERS. Two of the Roslyn Suspects Released on Examination. ELLENSBURG, Wash., Dec. 1 .- Dell Zachary and Peter Humphrey, the two men arrested on the Colville Reservation Monday on suspicion of being implicated in the Roslyn Bank robbery, had an examination here this afternoon. None of the witnesses were able to identify them. Zachary declared that he was between Oregon and Colville with a band of horses at the time of the robbery. Both men were released.

A Hospital Benefit.

The concert for the benefit of the Children's Hospital to be given on the evening of December 6 at Irving Hall by the Abbey Chency Amateurs promises to be a great success. Edmund Russell, famous in London and the East for his costume recitals, will appear for the first time before a San Francisco public in costume. His recitation of the "Romance of the Cowi" will be a rare treat. The well-known artists, Mrs. Carroll-terviewed on the subject give their unqualified support and indersement to THE CALL'S Christmas Box Bureau.

They are called on frequently for charity and never refuse a worthy appeal.

The Bareau proposes to dispense relief on a wholesale plan, and is general in its operation. Hence the project is one that meets with the approval of the merchants. Walter M. Castle, a member of the firm of Castle Bros., wholesale grocers, had this to say on the subject:

"Contribute toward the Christmas Box? Why, certainly I will, and do all I can to aid making it a success.

"It is a fine idea, and one that commands the support of every one. "I tell you that I am strongly in favor of

He did not know what the results of the canvass was, and put his signature to the tally sheets without knowing what he was really signing. He was positive that it was about 3 o'clock when the messenger boy climb over.

John Considine, who was a clerk at the precinct in question, testified that he was present during the count of the general ballots, and that it resulted in Buckley having 58 votes and Hoey 100.

He put the ballots on a string after they were counted and tied them up in a bundle. The sheets were laid out flat and strung in

The ballots as they were received by the Registrar were brought out, and through breaks in the wrapper it was clearly seen that the ballots were folded four or five es, then put on a string. John Stevens was the next witness. He was present in the booth when the ballots were counted, and remembered that Buckley had 58 votes and Hoey 100, and not Buckley 10 and Hoey 167, as now appeared in the tally sheet.

M. T. O'Sullivan, the United States Supervisor appointed by the Republican party to watch that precinct, was called. He kept a tally sheet of the count, and his evidence as to the results agreed with the ormer witnesses.

Fred J. Manly, the messenger who went to the booth and got the returns, was sworn. His evidence was the same as given in his affidavit before the Mayor a few days ago. He was positive that it was 5 o'clock when he went to the booth with the note given him by the two mysterious men for the packages. He stated that the envelopes were not out of his possession until be handed them in at the Registrar's office. P. Casey, the Democratic Supervisor, said he assisted in making the package containing the ballots. They were strung flat and folded together so as to go into the envelope provided for them.

The package now containing the ballots The package now containing the ballots purporting to come from that precinct was not as it was when he made it up. He thought it was about 3 o'clock when the messenger came for them.

Attorney Clunie objected to the board canvassing the returns for the Assembly from that precinct as the returns had been signed by only five of the precinct officers. It required the signatures of a majority It required the signatures of a majority of the board to make complete returns, and he asked that the Board of Commissioners secure the necessary number of signatures to the returns before proceeding to canvass
