WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

F. M. & E. M. KIMMELL EDITORS and PUBLISHERS.

SENATOR MANDERSON was not forgotten in the matter of floral tributes.

House met on Monday and adjourned without organizing. There was some dispute concerning the Mississippi representatives.

SPEAKER CARLISLE was presented with a beautiful bouquet in the shape of a George Washington hatchet, by two Kentucky ladies.

CARLISLE of Kentucky carried the day. Surset was too funny, it seems, to manipulate the gavel, and Sammy loves high tariff too dearly.

THE Senate met, Monday, and adjourned; there being no prospect of a speedy organization of the House. The President's message was witheld.

BRO. BILLINGS of The Alma Tribune thinks that "if Bro. Martin of the Orleans Sentinel only had the courage he would run an anti-monopoly paper." Bro. James had better stiffen up his weaker brother's spinal column.

"AVENGER" O'Donnell was found guilty of the murder of Informer Carey, Saturday, and the sentence of death pronounced upon him. The trial, which occurred in London, attracted much attention, both in the Old World and in this country.

VALLEY GRANGE ITEMS.

Stone and Fitch have returned from their hunt.

Bowles and Stone were down to Indianola, last Saturday. C. L. Nettleton traded for two of Mr.

Thomas' horses, last week. A very pleasant dance took place at George Fredericks, last Thursday night. A. E. Jacobs was over on the Beaver divide, last week, to deliver some horses
