Isn't it Worth 25c. To Be Cured of Constipation

People who suffer from habitual constipation with all its attendant ills, clogged stomach and bowels, sluggish liver, heartburn, indigestion, and thin and impure blood, are too apt to believe that the only remedy is violent purgatives. The contrary is the case. Such cathartics, even if they do move the bowels, are irritating and griping, leave the stomach inflamed and enfeebled and the constipated condition recurs with greater difficulty of cure and the sufferer constantly growing worse. There is a laxative that moves the bowels without pain or griping, cleanses the stomach, sharpens the appetite, stimulates the liver, strengthens the nerves, and purifies the blood, while its marvellous tonic properties tone up the entire system and keep it healthy.

Laxakola Does It

Its remarkable tonic properties reach every organ—the liver, kidneys and stomach, nerve, heart and brain—and removes the cause of your debilitated condition. This is the only way to secure an absolute and permanent cure.

Laxakola is the only medicine for ladies, is purely vegetable and its action is gentle, speedy and effective. For coated tongue, simple fevers, colds, chills and languid feeling it is the ideal medicine.

It tastes good. Children like it and ask for it.

Laxakola, the great tonic laxative, is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical, because it combines two medicines, viz: laxative and tonic, and at one price. No other remedy gives so much for the money. At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or send for free sample to LAXAKOLA Co., 120 Fulton Street, N. Y., or 355 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

New to Him.

The distinguished personage who had been announced as the speaker of the evening was late in arriving, and an effort was made to entertain the audience in the meantime by vocal music and short impromptu speeches.

A dozen or more persons began calling for "Professor Rice."

Somewhat perplexed, the professor of philosophy and belles letters, who was acting as chairman, arose.

"If Mr. Georgius Rice is in the audience," he said, "he will oblige by coming forward." Chicago Tribune.

An Unpatriotic Suggestion.

"What I want to see is to purify the politics of my community."

"Don't let any of the mercenary agents hear you say that," responded the friend.

"I don't see what difference it can make to my credit."

"They are so likely as not to take it for granted that income isn't good, and that you want office." Washington Star.

What the Matter Was.

"I see Dr. Skoop has got discouraged with the results of his treatment of Fritters and has given up going there. I really don't suppose he was able to find out what was the matter with him."

"Oh, yes; he found out all right enough."

"He did. What was it?"

"Impecuniosity."—Boston Courier.

In the Conservatory.

Ida—The grass widow has not been very successful in her game of snaring the old banker. Is she very much disappointed?

May—Indeed she is! One would think she was from Kentucky.

Ida—Why so?

May—She is such a blue grass widow.—Chicago Daily News.

Couldn't Spare It.

Easterner—Why don't you build your courthouse over there?

Westerner—Why, if we did we'd have to cut that tree down.

"Well, what of it?"

"What of it! Man alive, that's the only tree in the neighborhood to lynch a man on!"—Philadelphia Record.

Further Proof.

The Music Teacher—Just think! That opera was rejected by 20 managers.

Pupil—Well, its success proves that managers are not infallible.

The Music Teacher—Indeed, they are not! I have had an opera rejected by 15!—Puck.

Bound to Believe.

"In spite of the lucky stone you carry in your pocket, you lost all your money and a slate fell on you and broke your arm."

"Yes; but wasn't it fortunate I had that lucky stone? Think what might have happened to me otherwise!"—Chicago Post.
