Letter to Caleb Smith.
MADISON, FLA.

Dear Sir: The easiest way we know of to make a little money is—if you're going to paint—to paint with the paint that takes least gallons.

Take a small job; say it takes 10 gallons Devoe, two coats; that's an average house. When the job is done and the bill comes in, it is $50; the paint etc $17.50; the rest is for labor and cartage; the labor is fixing the surface, shifting ladders scaffolds pulleys and ropes, and brushing on paint.

Take another job exactly like that; try another paint; it takes 12 gallons. The bill is $10 more. Take another exactly the same; another paint; it takes 20 gallons. The bill is $100.

There is only one Devoe; there's a dozen 12 gallon paints, and 100 that take 20 gallons to cover a 10 gallon job.

The only difficulty is in finding out Devoe. After that you save work; there's less work in 10 than in 12 or 20 gallons; less paint to buy and less to brush on and less wages to pay.

If Devoe were only a little better than others, there'd be some difficulty in finding out the difference. It goes twice as far as half the paints; that ought to be easy.

It wears longer too. You'll wait a good while, if you wait to find out how long it wears; there are thousands of people who know that the least gallons paint wears longest.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.
