BATTLE OF CHICKAMAUGA

Mr. Jno. G. Coddin, Tallahassee, Fla., June 20, 1907.

Dear Sir:

I saw your letter, and I am putting the history of the battle of Chickamauga, which is the most important battle that ever took place in the south, in writing for you to copy the brief history of that great affair, and which I am sure will make a very pleasing read.

The battle of Chickamauga was fought on September 19th and 20th, 1863, between the Union forces under Generals Rosecrans and Burnside, and the Confederate forces under Generals Longstreet, Pickett, and Hood.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

J. B. B. Perry.
