THE CHRIST-CHILD OF LONG AGO.

Of all the dear stories, the sweetest we know is one of the Christ-Child of long, long ago.

His bed was a manger, his pillow but hay, Yet slumbering sweetly the little Babe lay.

And part of the story's a song of the night: The angels were singing thro' skies shining bright, The wondering shepherds the glad music heard, And hid in their hearts ev'ry beautiful word.

This story of Jesus we'll never forget, He lives up in heaven and cares for us yet, And all the great blessings and joys that we know, Come still from the Christ-Child of long, long ago.

CHORUS—

We love him, we love him, and he loves us, too, The Bethlehem Baby so tender and true; We love him, we love him, and like him would grow, The dear little Christ-Child of long, long ago.
