St. Johns has always been fortunate of late years in escaping fires destruction of property. It is well that our people are careful in the matter of putting up stoves and stove pipes, and it is also well for all of us to be doubly careful now while the water works are out of commission. Let us admonish one another along these lines before too late.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN SNOWFLAKE.

Too late Thursday for our issue of last week report came here that the large mercantile establishment of Flake Bros. at Snowflake was burnt to the ground. The fire started from a stovepipe which passed up from a second story room through the roof of the building. Nearly all the merchandise on the ground floor was carried out to safety. The upper rooms were occupied as class room and carpenter shop of the Academy, and everything in them was destroyed, entailing a big loss to the Academy.

Theater Manager—You say you object to having real food on the table in the banquet scene, Mr. Greesepaynt. Why the rest of the company are delighted at it!

Mr. Greesepaynt—Yes; but my part requires me to rise from the table after a couple of mouthfuls and say, "I cannot eat tonight—a strange dread comes over me. I will seek the quiet of yonder apartment for a time."—McCall's Magazine.
