COTTON RAISERS SHOULD ORGANIZE

For the Purpose of Producing Pure Short Staple Cotton Seed

THATCHER NEWS

Cotton Raisers Here Can Easily Raise All the Seed That They Will Need

Organizations of short staple cotton raisers for the purpose of producing within the State of Arizona pure short staple seed in quantity should be formed. A short staple cotton seed is one that will produce a cotton boll that will average 1.75 strands or less in length. Cotton seed that is much shorter than this standard is considered pure short staple cotton seed.

The Thachter Motor Club is already organizing to promote an association of cotton raisers and cotton growers. It is hoped that this organization will be successful in bringing about the formation of similar local associations throughout the State of Arizona.
