VALENTINE, NEBRASKA. AUGUST 2, 1900.

NUMBER 28

We are Demonstrating the Leadership of this Store Every Day Now.

This is not news to our customers. They know that we lead in showing the best assortment of seasonable dry goods at popular prices. But there are a few people who do not know it, or at least they seem not to know it, for they continue to buy where assortments are smaller and prices higher. We venture to say that no store in this county offers better values. Every article has its merits and will bear the closest scrutiny.
